Mike MacAdam's take

Good luck trying to beat Grand Job in the Honorable Miss. I won't. She simply outclasses this group by a mile, having missed by a nose against the likes of Ways and Means and Eclatant in the Grade II Bed o' Roses and Grade I Madison, respectively. Granted, her best distance is seven furlongs, but again, the class edge is overwhelming.

I'll put Maida in second off a big one at Laurel Park, and Striker Has Dial in third even though she got beat by 7 1/4 lengths in this race last year. Her two losses at the Spa were over sloppy-sealed tracks, and there's no rain in the forecast. Kappa Kappa rounds out the superfecta.
