

The Schenectady County Legislature is making it easier for residents of all ages to enjoy affordable outdoor fun. This passport is your guide to summer fun in Schenectady County.

Explore, discover, and connect with your community
Complete a few activities or finish them all!

Learn more at:

www.schenectadycountyny.gov/get-outside

EXPLORE NATURE

- Hike a trail at the County Forest Preserve
- Discover the waterfalls at the Plotterkill Preserve
- Walk the trails at the Indian Kill Nature Preserves
- Explore the Wolf Hollow Nature Trail
- Go birdwatching and identify five different species
- Take a nature photograph and share it with family and friends
- Watch a sunset from a local park or preserve
- Find and identify three native trees

ON THE WATER

- Go fishing in the Mohawk River or another local waterway
- Paddle a canoe, kayak, or paddleboard on the Mohawk River
- Visit a lock along the Mohawk River and learn how it works
- Attend a water ski show in Scotia