

British
High Commission
Port Vila

JOB VACANCY POLICY & COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER

The British High Commission in Port Vila is recruiting for a Policy & Communications Officer. In this exciting position, you will play a key role in supporting cooperation between the UK and Vanuatu in a range of areas, while providing analysis and reporting of policy and political developments in Vanuatu to colleagues in the UK and Pacific region. This is an excellent opportunity for an outgoing, proactive and organised individual with a keen interest in supporting deeper UK-Vanuatu relations.

We are looking for a person with Experience of working in a policy and/or communication role in business, government, civil society or another diplomatic mission in Vanuatu.

This is a permanent, full-time position (40 hours a week) with a monthly salary of 230,308 VuV per Month

For more information and/or to submit your application, please access the following link to our FCO local staff vacancies website - <https://bit.ly/3XhGSPn>

This job is open to Vanuatu citizens and permanent residents with permission to work in Vanuatu. Only online applications submitted through the official website will be considered.