

JOIN US FOR OUR 3RD YEAR LAKE VIEW SPEAKER SERIES

Sat., Jan. 3, 2026

Billy Mills

1964 Tokyo Olympian USA Gold Medalist in the 10,000 Meter Run

Originally from South Dakota and a member of the Oglala Sioux Tribe, Billy Mills was orphaned at twelve but later attended the University of Kansas on an athletic scholarship. His stunning gold medal in the 10,000-meter run at the 1964 Tokyo Olympics remains one of the greatest Olympic upsets. His story is depicted in the 1983 film Running Brave. Mills later founded Running Strong, a nonprofit for American Indian youth, and is the author of multiple books.
