Corvallis Walking Trails

The weather is certainly improving and so it is a good time to take your furry pal for nice walks in the woods around Corvallis. A good reference for these walks is Corvallis Trails by Margie Powell. The book lists twenty eight walks in and around Corvallis and an additional twenty two walks further out. The trail descriptions tell one if the walk would be good for both you and your pal. As I have stressed in the past, walks with the pup are good for both of you. One important thing to remember, though, is this time of year is tick time. These nasty arachnids are often found in tall grass or on low hanging bushes so after the walk be sure to check your furry walking companion for unwanted riders. Also, you can obtain tick prevention meds from your local veterinarian. Finally, a good idea is to see you don't have any nasty creatures attached. So, good walking this summer.
