'Last Week Tonight With John Oliver' returns to HBO

By Kyla Brewer

TV Media

s 24-hour news channels, websites and apps rise in popularity, the public is becoming more invested in national and international news. Indeed, broadcast journalists have become celebrities in their own right, for better or for worse. However, one of TV's most popular late-night hosts offers a comedic yet critical twist on the news of the week.

John Oliver ("The Daily Show") returns with a satirical look at the headlines and more in the season premiere of "Last Week Tonight With John Oliver," airing Sunday, Feb. 18, on HBO. The late-night program features a mix of commentary, comedic sketches and interviews as the intrepid host turns a critical eye to politics, corporations and even the media.

The opener kicks off the fifth season of the program, which premiered in April 2014. Last fall, HBO announced the show had been renewed for three more 30episode seasons, so fans of the British comedian can expect to see him on the cable channel until at least 2020. When the deal was announced by HBO executive Casey Bloys, the host responded in typical Oliver fashion: with tongue planted firmly in cheek.

"We're very grateful to Richard Plepler, Casey and everyone at HBO for letting us continue to do whatever it is we actually do," Oliver said. "We'd also like to thank our staff for all their hard work. We're incredibly proud of all of you, and rather than tell you that to your face, we'd like to do it in the cold, dispassionate form of a press release."

For his part, Bloys had nothing but praise for the performer, saying: "His extraordinary genius for rich and intelligent commentary is second to none."

Oliver has worked his way up through the entertainment industry since starting out as a standup comedian in the United Kingdom. Before "Last Week Tonight," he was best known to North American audiences for his work on Comedy Central's "The Daily Show" as the program's senior British correspondent, and he later filled in as interim host when Jon Stewart ("Rosewater," 2014) went on hiatus.

His work on "The Daily Show" was well received by critics and audiences alike, and the gig eventually led to his show on HBO. Thanks, in part, to his noholds-barred approach to lambasting politicians, corporations and more, Oliver has gained millions of loyal fans who tune in for his refreshing perspectives on current events, as well as guirky comedy sketches by him and other performers. Viewership for the show is on the upswing, with about 1.2 million live viewers for last season's finale, which aired Sunday, Nov. 12, 2017. Millions also tune in on the show's You-Tube channel. Oliver was even named one of Time magazine's list of 100 Most Influential People in 2015.

In its short life, "Last Week Tonight With John Oliver" has had a marked influence on politics and business, even as far back as its first season. A 2014 segment on net neutrality is widely credited with prompting more than 45,000 comments on the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC) electronic filing page, and another 300,000 comments in an email inbox dedicated to a proposal that would allow "priority lanes" for certain internet traffic. Shortly after another piece about underfunded public defenders in New Orleans aired, thousands of dollars were donated by the show's fans. Oliver and pal Mike Meyers ("Austin Powers: The Spy Who Shagged Me," 1999) famously urged Canadians to vote against then-Prime Minister Stephen Harper in the 2015 federal election. In one of the show's most headlinegrabbing episodes, the host interviewed accused whistleblower Edward Snowden.

Purportedly armed with "full creative freedom" from HBO, Oliver has also taken on big tobacco companies, televangelists, debt buyers, coal mining and, of course, President Donald Trump. In fact, Trump has been a frequent topic for the comedian, who has been unabashedly critical of the current administration. While such opinions likely put Trump's supporter's off, Oliver has nonetheless established himself as one of the heavy hitters of the modern late-night landscape.

For all of his efforts, Oliver and his team have been handsomely rewarded, both in ratings and in accolades. In fact, to say the show is acclaimed may be an understatement. In its short, four-season existence, it has earned nominations for no fewer than 44 major awards, from Emmys and Critics' Choice Awards to GLAAD Media Awards and Writers' Guild of America Awards. For its inaugural season, the show even won a prestigious Peabody, which recognizes enlightening and invigorating work.

Other notable wins include back-to-back Emmys for Outstanding Writing in a Variety Series in 2016 and 2017, a Critics' Choice Television Award for Best Talk Show in 2016, and a Dorian Award for TV Current Affairs Show of the Year in 2016. "Last Week Tonight With John Oliver" was also recognized with a Television Critics Association Award for Achievement in News and Information in 2015, though Oliver has insisted that his show is comedy, not journalism. In spite of his intent, commentators from such mainstream media outlets as The New York Times, Time and The Huffington Post have described Oliver's work as journalism.

No matter how you look at it, fans and critics can look forward to another season of insightful commentary and hilarious, offthe-wall comedy when Oliver and his crew return to the airwaves in "Last Week Tonight With John Oliver," Sunday, Feb. 18, on HBO.

Today With Kathie Lee and Hoda

10:00 a.m.

Kathie Lee Gifford and Hoda Kotb discuss the headlines and other news of the day in a new episode of NBC's flagship morning program. The hosts interact with fans through Facebook and Twitter as they offer their often hysterical perspectives.

DC's Legends of Tomorrow

63 8:00 p.m.

The Waverider gets blown up over and over again when Zari (Tala Ashe) becomes trapped in a time loop in this new episode, and the key to escaping seems to lie hidden among the many secrets that her shipmates are hiding.

Kathie Lee Gifford co-hosts "Today With Kathie Lee and Hoda"

The Alienist

тит 9:00 р.т.

The team uncovers more information about the killer in this new episode. Meanwhile, Moore (Luke Evans) and Sara (Dakota Fanning) share an intimate moment. Elsewhere, Kreizler (Daniel Brühl) approaches an old mentor for advice.

Scorpion

4 10:00 p.m.

Walter (Elyes Gabel) and Sylvester (Ari Stidham) enter an international chess competition on foreign soil while on a daring undercover mission for Team Scorpion in this rebroadcast. They hope to extricate a U.S. spy before her cover is blown.

Chef Roger Mooking digs into primal cooking

Roger Mooking hosts "Man Fire Food"

By Andrew Warren

s there anything that's quite as satisfying as cooking with fire? The steady warmth of glowing hot coals, the blazing heat of flames and the distinct taste of smoke can all bring out something deep and primal inside of us, whatever they're being used to cook.

For chef Roger Mooking, fire's more than just flames: it's the most primal and pure way of cooking, and in "Man Fire Food," airing Wednesday evenings on Cooking Channel, he checks out some of the most mouthwatering and innovative dishes being prepared using humanity's oldest cooking method.

In this week's episode, airing Wednesday, Feb. 21, Mooking jaunts across the country to find some of the most innovative ways in which classic surf and turf is being prepared. His first stop is in Miami, Florida, where a chef shows off a unique homemade rig that can roast, sauté and grill over hot coals. With Mooking's help, he uses his cooking contraption to grill up some juicy pork, which he serves with a seafood-stuffed paella, a Spanish seafood and rice dish that they cook in a huge, partysized pan.

Later, our host heads across the country to Southern California. where he dives into a transplanted New England clambake. This East Coast classic has been given a Golden State twist, with the fresh seafood, spicy chorizo and local produce all being steamed in a wooden wine barrel. Farther north, in the state's Sacramento Valley, he finds a local making juicy Italian porchetta that's been spit-roasted on a handcrafted rotisserie, which he serves with fresh oysters that have been basted in the pork drippings.

Open flame may be the oldest cooking method we have, but everywhere Mooking goes, he finds inventive devices, contraptions and machines built by people to get the most succulent flavors imaginable out of it. Even desserts can be on the menu, and in next week's episode, airing Wednesday, Feb. 28, he checks out scrumptious sweets that are being made the old-fashioned way.

Cooking with fire may be old, but the creative methods and inventive devices used in "Man Fire Food" are anything but. Join Roger Mooking as he checks out the most primal of cooking methods Wednesdays on Cooking Channel.

Daddy's Home 2

Stepdad Brad (Ferrell) and biological father Dusty (Wahlberg) were previously rivals for their kids' affection, but they've since become close friends who plan to bring their families together under one roof for a big combined Christmas Day celebration. Those plans are thrown into disarray when both men learn that their own fathers are coming to visit for the holiday. and when they arrive, Dusty's cool, womanizing dad Kurt (Gibson) takes an immediate dislike to both Brad and his own overly affectionate father, Don (Lithgow). For an extended family that so recently got over its strife between fathers, the barely healed wounds are about to get ripped right back open now that two more daddies are in the mix.

Director: Sean Anders. Stars: Will Ferrell, Mark Wahlberg, Mel Gibson, John Lithgow, Linda Cardellini, Alessandra Ambrosio. 2017. 100 min. Comedy.

The Star

The Biblical story of the Nativity is told from a four-legged perspective when donkey Bo (Yeun) runs away from the miller that owns him and ends up traveling with Joseph (Levi) and a pregnant Mary (Rodriguez) in the months before Jesus's birth. Along with a dove named Dave (Key), a sheep named Ruth (Bryant) and a trio of camels, the donkey makes the journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem with many adventures along nem with many adventures along the way, unaware of the significance of his traveling companions. Director: Timothy Reckart. Stars: Steven Yeun, Keegan-Michael Key, Gina Rodriguez, Zachary Levi, Aidy Bryant, Christopher Plummer, Gabriel Iglesias, Kelly Clarkson, Oprah Winfrey, Tyler Perry. 2017. 86 min. Animation.

Same Kind of Different as Me

After his infidelity is brought into the light of day, a successful art dealer but unfaithful husband (Kinnear) volunteers at a rescue mission with his wife (Zellweger) in an attempt to help rebuild the trust between them. There he meets and befriends a down-onhis-luck homeless man (Hounsou), whom he invites into his life, and whose actions, dreams and insights may be enough to save the failing marriage.

Director: Michael Carney. Stars: Renée Zellweger, Greg Kinnear, Jon Voight, Djimon Hounsou, Olivia Holt. 2017. 119 min. Drama.

Mel Gibson, Mark Wahlberg, Will Ferrell and John Lithgow in a scene from "Daddy's Home 2"

Riverdale

63 8:00 p.m.

When Southside High is unexpectedly shut down, Jughead (Cole Sprouse) and his fellow serpents transfer to Riverdale High. At the same time, Veronica (Camila Mendes) assures her parents she's still cool with their plans for SoDale.

The Amazing Race

4 9:00 p.m.

After weeks of racing all around the world, the remaining teams dash to the finish line in this season finale. Host Phil Keoghan welcomes the racers to their final destination as one team wins the $1 million grand prize.

Phil Keoghan hosts "The Amazing Race"

Storage Wars

A&E 9:30 p.m.

Jarrod and Brandi have a hunch about a locker's contents, and find themselves going all in a new episode of this reality series. Also, Ivy shows a skeptical Emily how to pull a win out of a locker and Kenny works on downsizing.

American Housewife

6 9 9:30 p.m.

Taylor (Meg Donnelly) tries to ditch her less-than-cool friend Ellen (Bebe Wood) so that she can go to a concert with her "blondetourage" in this rebroadcast. Meanwhile, Katie's (Katy Mixon) youngest daughter needs her mom less than she used to.

Gotham

23 8:00 p.m.

Carmine Falcone (John Doman) arrives in town, complicating things for Gordon (Ben McKenzie), Sofia (Crystal Reed) and Penguin (Robin Lord Taylor) in this rebroadcast. Elsewhere, Nygma (Cory Michael Smith) struggles to get a handle on his Riddler persona.

Top Chef

BRAVO 9:00 p.m.

The competition takes an emotional turn when the Voltaggio brothers reunite the chefs with some visitors from home in this new episode. After the Elimination Challenge, one chef will have to pack up their knives before the next leg of the finals.

Chris Scott in "Top Chef"

Project Runway: All Stars

LIFE 9:00 p.m.

The judging panel welcomes special guests RuPaul and Jesse Tyler Ferguson for a spectacular avant-garde runway in this new episode. Alyssa Milano hosts this version of the reality fashion show, which features all-star veterans and runway designers.

Mom

4 9:00 p.m.

Leonard Roberts reprises his role as Bonnie's (Allison Janney) brother, Ray, who returns from rehab and strikes up a friendship with Adam (William Fichtner) in this rebroadcast. Meanwhile, Bonnie and Christy (Anna Faris) take Ray's car for a joy ride.

Hollywood Q&A

By Adam Thomlison TV Media

Q: Why doesn't BBC America show the first season of the "Doctor Who" revival, starring Christopher Eccleston? The network shows all the other seasons.

A: There's no official answer to your question, but you're right that there's something going on there. BBC America is wild about "Doctor Who" reruns, with the exception of all the ones featuring Christopher Eccleston. That's a bit surprising since, as you point out, he's the Doctor who got this whole revival party started.

In the absence of official answers, I have some guesses. This may have something to do with the bad feelings between Eccleston and BBC after he quit the show, and/or there may be a shadowy broadcast-rights angle (shadowy in the sense that these things aren't public).

Eccleston quit the show after just one season. In a subsequent interview he revealed that, "I left 'Doctor Who' because I could not get along with the senior people. I didn't agree with the way things were being run." He followed that up with some statements that included swear words.

He's since refused offers to come back for guest appearances (it's a bit hard to explain for non-fans, but sometimes the past actors come back for cameos), and that might give us a hint as to what's going on.

When Eccleston refused to do a guest spot in the big 50th anniversary special, showrun-ner Steven Moffat opted to not include archive footage of him in a pivotal scene involving his incarnation of the Doctor, despite doing so earlier in the episode alongside footage of the others. In an interview with Doctor Who Magazine, Moffat explained his decision: "Not taking part in the 50th was a difficult decision for Chris ... and not respecting his wishes would have been grossly unprofessional and disrespectful."

BBC America repeated this quote in a story on its own site, which suggests it may agree and that's why it's not rerunning the Eccleston episodes.

The Voyager With Josh Garcia

10:00 a.m.

When Josh travels to Athens, he learns how traditional prayer beads have been transformed into worry beads in this new episode. He also ventures to the country-side where he makes a signature Greek dish and meets an Olympian.

Trisha's Southern Kitchen

FOOD 10:30 a.m.

Trisha and her sister, Beth, visit Nashville's largest flea market in this new episode. Inspired by the nostalgic vibes, they decide to take a walk down memory lane and reminisce about their favorite family comfort food recipes.

Anna Deavere Smith in "Notes From the Field"

UFC Fight Night

23 8:00 p.m.

Mixed martial arts fans gather at the Amway Arena in Orlando to watch top featherweights Josh Emmett and Jeremy Stephens battle in this premiere bout. The evening also features a strawweight contender bout between Jessica Andrade and Tecia Torres.

Notes From the Field

нво 8:00 р.т.

Anna Deavere Smith presents the stories of real-life people as she explores the lack of opportunity and resources for those living in poverty in this premiere adaptation of her one-woman show. She shines a light on students, inmates, politicians and more.

The Baltimore Ravens firstround pick was arrested on robbery charges. In other words, he's going to fit right in.

There's a new Harry Potterthemed cruise, and tickets start at $4,000 a person. For that price you get an owl, you get a wand, and you get to be alone for the rest of vour life.

Matt Lauer's wife has reportedly kicked him out of the house. Even worse, she's replaced him with Hoda.

China has banned hip hop from Chinese television. Which is bad news for China's biggest hip-hop star, the Notorious MSG.

The author of the new book on the Trump administration said that President Trump is currently cheating on Melania. When she heard, Melania said, "Thank God."

Meryl Streep was nominated for an Academy Award. Or as that's called in Los Angeles: "The first sign of spring."

Christopher Plummer, who replaced Kevin Spacey in a film, received an Oscar nomination. Afterwards, Plummer called Spacey to thank him for being a creep.

In the news yesterday, North Korea suggested that it would like to reunite with South Korea. I think something's up, because today, South Korea gave North Korea its Netflix password.

First lady Melania Trump decided not to go on the trip to Switzerland with President Trump, and instead she visited a Holocaust museum. When asked why, Melania said, "It just sounded like more fun."

It's come out that Bernie Sanders met with staffers to discuss a presidential run in 2020. Apparently, Bernie's first question will be, "Will I still be alive?"

The Tonight Show With Jimmy Fallon

Last night, the Eagles moved on to the Super Bowl after beating the Vikings 38-7. The last time someone got beat up that bad in Philadelphia, he had to move in with his Auntie and Uncle in Bel-Air.

Kim Kardashian and Kanve West named their newborn daughter Chicago West. That sounds less like a baby and more like something that would air on Thursdays at 10 p.m. on NBC.

The History Channel's show "Pawn Stars" is celebrating its 500th episode. To celebrate, the network gave the producers gold watches, which they immediately knew were fake.

Pizza Hut says if either team beats the record for the fastest touchdown in the Super Bowl, it's giving away free pizza to people in its loyalty program. The only downside is you have to tell people that you're in the Pizza Hut loyalty program.

Elton John just announced that he is going to retire after his next world tour. There's going to be a dramatic moment at the end where he admits that the lyrics really ARE, "Hold me closer, Tony Danza."

eating burgers, I think that means they were negotiating in Trump's bed.

Jimmy Kimmel Live

I'm glad "The Shape of Water" got so many nominations. I like that movie. And, finally, Hollywood is recognizing a monster other than Harvey Weinstein.

Late Night With Seth Meyers

Amazon has opened its first cashierless convenience store in Seattle. But they've already been one-upped by CVS, whose stores apparently have no employees at all.
