Kit Harington ("Game of Thrones") stars as Robert Catesby, a 17th century Catholic who spearheaded a daring plot to assassinate King James I of England, in "Gunpowder," premiering Monday, Dec. 18, on HBO, and continuing Dec. 19 and 20. Harington, who is a direct descendant of the real Robert Catesby, is also an executive producer of the three-part miniseries. Liv Tyler ("Armageddon," 1998) and Tom Cullen ("Knightfall") also star.

King in the North no more

Kit Harington sets out to slay a king in 'Gunpowder'

By Kyla Brewer TV Media

urderous plots abound in prime time, but not all of them are true. A new miniseries whisks viewers back in time to take a look at one of history's most famous assassination attempts.

Kit Harington stars as his reallife ancestor Robert Catesby, a 17th-century Catholic who set out to kill the King of England by blowing up the House of Lords in 1605, in "Gunpowder," premiering Monday, Dec. 18, on HBO. The cable giant offers viewers backto-back airings as the three-part miniseries continues Tuesday, Dec. 19, and concludes Wednesday, Dec. 20.

While the series originally aired on BBC One in the U.K. in October, HBO was quick to ink a deal to bring the show to North American audiences. It's no surprise that HBO snapped it up — Harington has proven himself as a bankable star, thanks to his role as Jon Snow in the cabler's critical and ratings hit "Game of Thrones." His personal connection to the "Gunpowder" story only increases his enthusiasm for the project, which shines through in his performance.

"Kit's passion for and belief in 'Gunpowder' are evident in every frame of the miniseries," HBO executive Kary Antholis said.

Harington is stretching his wings with "Gunpowder," which he developed alongside Daniel West ("South Riding," 2011) and Ronan Bennett ("Public Enemies," 2009). He also serves as a co-executive producer with West, Ollie Madden ("MI-5," 2015) and Stephen Wright ("The Fall"). Produced in association with Kudos and Thriker Films, the show began filming in February, but it had actually been in the works for years.

"Three years ago, Daniel West and I conceived and began developing 'Gunpowder' with Kudos and Ronan Bennett," Harington said. "We are now thrilled to share this unique story with the U.S. audience."

The miniseries opens in 1603, as the persecution of Catholics grows in Protestant England and the country wars with Spain. Catesby is a young Catholic nobleman who vows to defend his faith, even though his refusal to abandon his religion leads him to the edge of ruin. "Gunpowder" explores what happens as he and his collaborators gather the resources necessary to carry out their violent plot so that a new Catholic monarch will take the throne.

At the same time, the King's spymaster, Sir Robert Cecil (Mark Gatiss, "Game of Thrones"), leads the charge to hunt down, torture and kill priests. Meanwhile, other Catholics lose their property as their oppression continues.

Despite Father Garnet's (Peter Mullan, "My Name Is Joe," 1998) efforts to engage in peaceful protests, Catesby forges ahead with his plan. His behavior makes his cousin, Anne Vaux (Liv Tyler, "Armageddon," 1998), worry that his actions may have dire consequences.

Tom Cullen ("Knightfall") portrays Guy Fawkes, who is more famously associated with the socalled Gunpowder Plot than even Catesby, even though the latter is recognized by many as the ringleader. In Britain, Guy Fawkes Day, or Guy Fawkes Night as it is sometimes known, is commemorated on Nov. 5, because the reallife Fawkes was discovered guarding the explosives under the House of Lords on that day in 1605.

The cast also includes Edward Holcroft ("Kingsmen: The Secret Service," 2014) as Thomas Wintour, Shaun Dooley ("Broadchurch") as Sir William Wade, Robert Emms ("War Horse," 2011) as Father John Gerard, and Derek Riddell ("No Angels") as King James I. Sian Webber ("East-Enders") plays Lady Dorothy Dibdale, David Bamber ("Rome") plays Henry Percy, 9th Earl of Northumberland, and Kevin Eldon ("It's Kevin") portrays Sir John Hawksworth.

"Gunpowder" may not have dragons like "Game of Thrones," but the miniseries has plenty to offer viewers with its big-screen quality cinematography and thrilling plot, as Catesby and his co-conspirators play a dangerous cat-and-mouse game with Cecil's spies. The program was a big hit in the U.K., drawing more than seven million viewers for its premiere and closing strong with more than 4.5 million. It's important to note that there was some criticism due to the level of nudity and violence, but, for the most part, the reviews across the pond were positive.

Criticism aside, many people will likely tune in to watch Harington, who won't be back in his Jon Snow cloak until "Game of Thrones" returns for season 8. Those in the know say that probably won't be until at least 2018, and several industry pundits are predicting it will be 2019 until "Thrones" fans return to the Seven Kingdoms.

While most TV viewers probably recognize Harington from his "GoT" role, his other credits include the historical film "Pompeii" (2014), the computer-animated film "How to Train Your Dragon 2" (2014) and the British drama "Testament of Youth" (2014). "Game of Thrones" was, believe it or not, his first significant television role, which he landed shortly after appearing on stage in an award-winning National Theatre production of "War Horse."

There are plenty of stuffy period dramas out there, but HBO's latest thrilling miniseries brings viewers the little-known story behind a shocking attempted assassination. Don't miss Harington as he tackles a once-in-a-lifetime role as his own ancestor Robert Catesby in "Gunpowder," premiering Monday, Dec. 18.

The Great Christmas Light Fight

6 9 8:00 p.m.

Settle in for an evening of outstanding holiday decorating as Carter Oosterhouse and Taniya Nayak meet families who go all out to deck their halls in this season finale. Oosterhouse and Nayak will then decide which family deserves the $50,000 prize.

Lucifer

23 8:00 p.m.

After a conversation with Linda (Rachael Harris) and Lucifer, (Tom Ellis), Maze (Lesley-Ann Brandt) decides to head to Canada to tackle a tricky case, but Chloe (Lauren German) is worried that Maze is being lead on by a deceiving con man.

Carter Oosterhouse and Taniya Nayak co-host "The Great Christmas Light Fight"

Man v. Food

TRAV 9:00 p.m.

Host Casey Webb invites viewers to tag along as he visits Seattle, where he climbs a Mt. Fuji-sized burger in this new episode. He also tackles seven terrifyingly spicy Buffalo wings that have defeated more than 5,000 challengers.

9JKL

4 9:30 p.m.

Actor Josh Roberts (Mark Feuerstein) continues to adjust to living next door to his meddlesome parents in this comedy. He struggles to establish personal boundaries as he also contends with his brother's family, who also live nearby.

Ree Drummond bakes up success

Ree Drummond hosts "The Pioneer Woman"

By Andrew Warren

hat's a city-girlturned-country-gal to do while she's at home on the range? For Ree Drummond, building a blogging, culinary and lifestyle empire while still finding time to raise a happy family seems to be what was in the cards.

The host of Food Network's "The Pioneer Woman," currently airing new episodes Saturday mornings, started out as just a humble blogger way back in 2006, writing about life on a ranch in Oklahoma and about homeschooling her kids, but once she started posting recipes accompanied by vividly elaborate photographs, everything changed.

Her website and blog (thepioneerwoman.com) is still going strong these days, and so is "The Pioneer Woman" on Food Network. The Christmas season is in full swing on Drummond's ranch, and in the Saturday, Dec. 23, episode, she's baking up some tasty treats that are great at any time of the year: cookies!

That's right, it's cookie day on the ranch, and Drummond's baking a sweet foursome of treats that are as perfect for sharing with loved ones at Christmas as they are at any other time of the year. First up are chocolate mint iced cookies that she decorates with swirls of white-as-snow royal icing, followed by some sweet browned butter sugar cookies that she uses as a base for her decadent cookie jam pies.

The oven's working overtime, though, with a third batch of cookies ready for their time in the heat, and these ones — chocolate chip cookies with bacon and caramel corn — take decadent to a whole new level, Finally, Drummond gives the oven a break for her final batch, some no-bake cookies that she makes with seeds, grains, nuts and fruits.

That's a lot of cookies for just one family, but Drummond, as always, has the answer. She packs them up (while saving some for herself, of course) into cute little cookie collections for her kids to deliver to their friends and family, and who wouldn't be happy about receiving a gift like that?

Home on the range isn't just about riding horses and herding cattle, and Ree Drummond loves sharing the lifestyle with people near and far. New episodes of "The Pioneer Woman" air Saturday mornings on Food Network.

Dunkirk

With the Allied forces trapped against the ocean at Dunkirk in the opening days of the German invasion of France, three parallel stories tell of their eventual evacuation against all odds across the English Channel. On land, a group of young soldiers struggle to survive as they await boats that can get them to safety. In the air, a Royal Air Force pilot (Hardy) fights on, despite a broken fuel gauge. At sea, a civilian (Rylance) races his pleasure craft across the English Channel to help with the evacuation, despite the risk to his passengers, his son (Glynn-Carney) and his son's friend (Keoghan). Director: Christopher Nolan. Stars: Fionn Whitehead, Tom Hardy, Mark Rylance, Tom Glynn-Carney, Barry Keoghan, Harry Styles, Aneurin Barnard. 2017. 106 min. Drama.

The LEGO Ninjago Movie

Lloyd (Franco) is shunned and loathed by the people of Ninjago, thanks to his dad being the evil warlord Garmadon (Theroux), who keeps trying to conquer the city, but what they don't realize is that Lloyd is also a member of the secret ninja force that always foils his father's villainous plans. When Lloyd finally reveals his identity to his estranged dad, the ninja and evil warlord set out on a journey together, but Garmadon finds it iust as difficult to change his nature as Lloyd does to forgive his father for his absence from his life. Directors: Charlie Bean, Paul Fisher, Bob Logan, Stars: Jackie Chan, Dave Franco, Justin Theroux, Fred Armisen, Kumail Nanjiani, Abbi Jacobson, Michael Peña. 2017. 101 min. Animation.

The Librarians

тит 8:00 р.т.

Santa decides to take a vacation and invites Flynn (Noah Wyle), Baird (Rebecca Romijn) and Jenkins (John Larroquette) along in this new episode. But when the magic door is stolen, the Librarians must use Santa's sleigh to save the day.

Pitch Perfect

8:30 p.m.

College freshman Beca (Anna Kendrick) joins her school's all-girl a capella group in this hilarious musical comedy. With Beca and some other fresh talent on board, the group takes on their cocky male rivals at a national competition.

Ivy in "Storage Wars"

Storage Wars

A&E 9:00 p.m.

When the buyers attend an auction in West Covina, Ivy shows the ladies how to dress for success in the first of back-to-back new episodes. Later, Justin gets on Rene's good side, and Darrell acquires a totally tubular locker.

The Real Housewives of New Jersey BRAVO 9:00 p.m.

When Margaret tries to make amends with Siggy in Milan, the results are shocking in this new episode. Teresa tries to talk some sense into Siggy, who isn't ready to forgive Margaret. Elsewhere, Dolores and Melissa have a heart-to-heart chat.

I Love Lucy Christmas Special

4 8:00 p.m.

CBS presents two colorized versions of the classic blackand-white series, including the episode in which the Ricardos and the Mertzes reminisce about how their lives have changed since Little Ricky (Keith Thibodeaux) was born.

The Dick Van Dyke Show - Now in Living Color

49:00 p.m.

Convinced that the romance in her marriage is fizzling, Laura (Mary Tyler Moore) decides to dye her hair blonde. This new one-hour special contains newly colorized versions of classic episodes of the beloved television series.

Mary Tyler Moore in "The Dick Van Dyke Show - Now in Living Color"

Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives FOOD 9:00 p.m.

Cameras follow Guy Fieri as he sets out to find the best grub from moms' kitchens in this new episode. He visits a mother and son who serve Chinese specialties in Boulder, and samples island favorites from a Jamaican joint in Columbus.

Marvel's Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D.

6 9:00 p.m.

Lost in space, the S.H.I.E.L.D. agents race to save the Earth from afar in the new season of this action-packed drama. As Coulson (Clark Gregg) and the rest of the team meet other inhabitants of the spaceship, they realize something's gone horribly wrong.

Hollywood Q&A

By Adam Thomlison TV Media

Q: Recently I saw the announcement of an engagement of Rose Leslie to Kit Harington. Honeysuckle Rose is the name of an actress who was in "Foyle's War," which was a popular English series taking place during WWII. Are they one and the same? A: They are not. Part of the confusion comes from the fact that you actually got the latter actress's name wrong: The actress who played Samantha in all 28 episodes of the period mystery series "Foyle's War" was actually Honeysuckle Weeks (to be fair, the second half is the least memorable part of her name).

Even so, there could be reasons to wonder. Though former

"Game of Thrones" star Rose Leslie is eight years younger than Weeks, they share a certain similarity.

Q: I used to love an old Christmas movie that was about a group of toys in a playroom on Christmas Eve. I'm pretty sure it was done by Jim Henson but it wasn't the Muppets or "Sesame Street" characters. What was the name of it?

A: The '80s were a big time for Jim Henson's workshop. "The Muppet Show" and "Sesame Street" were runaway hits that had made Henson a household name, and he seemed to be churning out new shows and films all the time.

For that reason, smaller-scale productions like the 1986 one-hour Christmas special "The Christmas Toy" have sort of fallen through the cracks of our cultural memory. Make no mistake, though, it's pure Henson magic.

It's about a group of toys that come to life when people aren't around — an idea that has since become a sort of children's-story trope. In this one, they come alive on Christmas Eve and start making plans to welcome the new toys that will be joining them on Christmas morning. One character, Rugby Tiger, recalls how special he felt when he was the child's new favorite toy, and decides to hide himself under the tree again this year to get the feeling back. A grand toy rescue ensues when things don't go as planned.

Deck the Halls

амс 3:30 p.m.

A man (Matthew Broderick) sets out to regain his Christmas crown when his new neighbor's (Danny DeVito) holiday decorations make him a local celebrity in this comedy. As the tension escalates, the two men challenge each other to a speed skating race.

Christmas Getaway

HALL 8:00 p.m.

When a single travel writer (Bridget Regan) is double-booked, she finds herself in a cabin with a widower (Travis Van Winkle) and his young daughter in this premiere holiday movie. Luckily, what begins as an inconvenience blossoms into more.

Ten Days in the Valley

6 9 10:00 p.m.

When Jane (Kyra Sedgwick) and Bird (Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje) revisit the scene of the Casita raid, they finally catch a break in the case in this new episode. Elsewhere, Ali (Erika Christensen) learns something surprising about Tom (Josh Randall).

Cat vs. Dog

ANPL 10:00 p.m.

In this new episode, Jackson and Zoe try to help Tami, whose three dogs have been terrorizing her two cats. The solution could be a rooftop cat sanctuary atop her guest house, complete with scratching posts, food stations and lawn chairs.

I read that a plane in India had to make an emergency landing after a passenger found out her husband was cheating on her mid-flight. The passengers were like, "Finally! Some good in-flight entertainment!"

President Trump is wrapping up his two-week trip to Asia. Yep, Trump said he couldn't wait to get home, put on his pajamas, and tweet in his own bed.

Another big story right now is this Roy Moore scandal. And get this: there's apparently a "creep list" of men in Congress known for inappropriate sexual behavior. And if you're a

I read that Congress is debating if President Trump should have the power to order a nuclear strike. I guess right now, it's an even split between "No" and "Hell no."

After the Franken story broke yesterday morning, Trump sent out a tweet at 10 p.m., calling him "Al Frankenstein." That story again: it took Trump a full day to come up with the nickname "Al Frankenstein."

Donald [Trump] Jr. tried to minimize his relationship with WikiLeaks on his Twitter account, but they did have a relationship. Although it is possible that he thought he was in a conversation with NeNe Leakes from "The Real Housewives of Atlanta."

Late Night With Seth Mevers

It was announced today that a new television series based on "The Lord of the Rings" will be produced for Amazon Prime. Perfect for people who felt like the six threeand-a-half-hour movies didn't cover enough ground.

The first drive-thru marijuana store has opened in Nevada. Which is super convenient, except for the eight hours it takes you to drive home.
