'Jesus Christ Superstar' gets Legend-ary treatment

By K.A. Taylor

TV Media

n the late 1960s, musical theater was getting a complete makeover. For years, the genre did its best to avoid serious subjects, keeping joy and whimsy in the forefront. While it seemed for a time that interest in this form of theater was waning, a new breed of musical theater would resurrect the genre. Rock was woven into the pages of fresh, new takes on biblical narratives and, in 1970, "Jesus Christ Superstar" was born. On Sunday, April 1, NBC brings this legendary rock musical to audiences across North America, when "Jesus Christ Superstar Live in Concert" takes over prime time.

Initially a concept album, "Jesus Christ Superstar" delves into the last days of Jesus Christ, with particular focus on the relationships between Jesus and some well-known biblical figures, including Judas, Mary Magdalene and King Herod. The show plays fast and loose with depictions of these figures, as the musical's creators, Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice, look to humanize them and make them relatable. The lines between God and man are blurred, with Jesus unafraid to confront modern-day social is-

While the musical has no doubt been performed in countless high schools and independent theaters around the globe, its professional runs have been consistent since the concept album's creation, with more than 19 productions, including four on Broadway.

For NBC's live, prime-time adaptation, some major star power has been recruited. In the titular role of Jesus Christ is singer, songwriter and actor John Legend ("La La Land," 2016). Not only is Legend the star of the production, he is also co-producer. When asked by The Paley Center for Media to express why he was intrigued by the opportunity, Legend's answer was amusingly simple: "Bottom line is, they offered me the chance to play Jesus Christ ... I was like, let's do it."

While this is Legend's first leading role in a televised musical, it's not his first screen gig — he played the role of Keith in the multiple award-winning feature musical film "La La Land" in 2016. He also co-wrote and recorded a song with the film, "Start a Fire," enjoying a rare opportunity to contribute to a musical's score.

Joining Legend onstage and on screen — is singer-songwriter Sara Bareilles as Mary Magdalene, a notable follower of Jesus, according to biblical records. Sadly, she was known less for her witnessing of Christ's crucifixion and resurrection and more so for her profession as a sex worker, a depiction not entirely present in the gospels or other biblical texts. Another key player in the musical, one well familiar with its story and lyrical content, is legendary rocker Alice Cooper. Cooper takes on the role of King Herod, a ruler who lives for excess and decadence and fails to see the divinity of Christ, declaring him a liar.

This isn't Cooper's first time in the role: a 1996 cast recording of "Jesus Christ Superstar" also featured him as the king. Sitting at The Paley Center's discussion on this anticipated televised production with his fellow cast and crew, Cooper expressed his feelings about returning to the role. According to Cooper, Tim Rice is an "old friend of [his]," and it was Rice who long believed Cooper had the "[cynicism] and dangerous" nature required for the part.

Despite finding the same appeal as Legend with regard to being cast as Jesus, Cooper admits that "[he] never gets cast as Jesus," though he's not surprised and fairly certain he knows why. His stage persona as a rock musician doesn't really give that Christ-like vibe.

This all-new, one-time production of "Jesus Christ Superstar Live in Concert" is not the first television special of its kind.

Many viewers may be familiar with recent small-screen live adaptations of other musicals by NBC, including "The Sound of Music Live," "The Wiz Live," "Hairspray Live!" and "Grease: Live."

While these offerings may seem to be a recent phenomenon, NBC is no stranger to the teleplay. Both 1955 and 1956 found the musical adaptation of J. M. Barrie's classic "Peter Pan" making waves on TVs across America — notably the first time that a Broadway musical had ever been televised as a complete production, at that time also including almost the entire stage cast. Fittingly, "Peter Pan Live!" was also a recent NBC production, with the adaptation airing Dec. 4, 2014.

"Jesus Christ Superstar" made a name for itself in the early '70s for its infusion of rock 'n' roll with the Bible's foremost narrative. At once daring and mesmerizing, the production, which also received cinematic treatment in 1973, wasn't afraid to challenge preconceived notions and depictions of Christ and the figures that surrounded him.

At its core, though, much like the variability of the characters portrayed and the depths of their personas, Legend sees the production's music as not merely one-note. To him, the musical is "kind of a genre-bending and expanding piece," one that, "for those ... who love music and those ... who love to perform," does not have "as many boundaries as some would suggest."

Take a break from the quiet contemplation of Easter weekend and rejoice, for a renowned rock musical is about to shake up prime time. Catch John Legend, Sarah Bareilles and Alice Cooper as they're joined by an incredible cast for "Jesus Christ Superstar Live in Concert," airing Sunday, April 1, on NBC.

Seven skilled chefs aim for the ultimate culinary prize

Host Alton Brown with the "Iron Chef Gauntlet" competitors

Bv Andrew Warren

t's time to throw down: one of the biggest and most coveted prizes in culinary television is once again up for grabs, and seven incredibly talented chefs are bringing their A games to seize it.

"Iron Chef Gauntlet" returns for a second season on Wednesday, April 4, on Food Network. A companion show of sorts to "Iron Chef Showdown" (which itself is a reboot of the venerable "Iron Chef America"), "Gauntlet" brings together some of the industry's top chefs, who are all hoping to be named the next Iron Chef and adding their names to the ranks of Michael Symon, Alex Guarnaschelli, Bobby Flay and last season's "Gauntlet" winner, Stephanie Izard.

"Gauntlet's" ultimate goal is to find a chef worthy of the Iron Chef title, but there's no quarantee that the accolade will even be handed out — that's where the real suspense comes in. Through several weeks of competition overseen by the incomparable Alton Brown ("Cutthroat Kitchen"), the seven competitors will be whittled down until only one remains, but making it that far is the easy party of the battle.

In that final episode, the sole remaining chef will face three culinary battles in quick succession against Iron Chefs Guarnaschelli, Symon and Izard. Only if the challenger's total score, as determined by a panel of judges, tops that of the reigning Iron Chefs will he or she join their ranks — and presumably the next season of "Iron Chef Showdown."

The fact that the top prize isn't even guaranteed to be handed out is definitely outside of the norm for a cooking competition, but that's a big part of what sets "Iron Chef Gauntlet" apart from its peers. The chefs looking to take that title run the gamut of culinary styles, and this season there are even two Canadians in the mix. Nicole Gomes and Dale Mackay are both "Top Chef Canada" winners, and they join Miami's Timon Balloo; David LeFevre of Manhattan Beach, California; Jeanie Roland of Punta Gorda, Florida; New York's Hong Thaimee; and Kevin Tien of Washington, D.C., in competing for that sweet chef's iacket.

"Iron Chef Gauntlet" is a fun twist on cooking competitions, with one of the biggest prizes in the industry up for grabs. The second season premieres Wednesday, April 4, on Food Network.

Insidious: The Last Key

Horror hits close to home when paranormal investigator Elise Rainier (Shaye) investigates a haunting in her own childhood house. When the home's current owner (Acevedo) begins experiencing paranormal activity in the house, Elise returns to confront the demon that terrorized her as a child and drove a rift between her and her family. As she and her team investigate the strange goings-on within the walls, however, they begin to uncover a secret that proves that sometimes the demons can be far more familiar than they might first appear. Director: Adam Robitel. Stars: Lin Shaye, Leigh Whannell, Angus Sampson, Kirk Acevedo, Caitlin Gerard, Josh Stewart, 2018, 103 min. Horror.

Father Figures

When adult twin brothers Peter (Helms) and Kyle (Wilson) learn from their mother (Close) that their father did not, in fact, die when they were young, they set out on a lengthy road trip to track him down and finally meet him. dad could be any one of several men, they meet with a number of potential fathers who all share their memories of the twins' mother.

Director: Lawrence Sher. Stars: Ed Helms, Owen Wilson, Glenn Close, J.K. Simmons, Christopher Walken, Terry Bradshaw, Harry Shearer, Zachary Haven. 2017. 113 min. Comedy.

Thelma

After growing up in a very strict conservative home under the watchful gaze of her fundamentalist parents, Thelma (Harboe) finally strikes out on her own to attend university in the big city, but after living such a sheltered life, she's wary of interacting with strangers. Things change when she locks eyes with a woman in the library, leading to a friendship with that stranger (Wilkins) that soon blossoms into a romance. As her love grows, Thelma starts to suffer from frequent seizures. Doctors are puzzled as to what's causing them, unaware of the latent power that's awakening inside the young and long-oppressed woman.

Hollywood Q&A

By Adam Thomlison

Q: Who voiced Bambi's father in "Bambi II"?

A: Disney didn't splurge on "Bambi II" (2006), opting to release it straight to video instead of going for a theatrical run. But it did go big when casting the biggest addition to the Bambi universe. The sequel, which was released 64 years after the original, is about Bambi finding his father, a mighty stag known as the Great Prince of the Forest. When you're putting a voice to a mighty stag, you go with Patrick Stewart.

The great British thespian established his authoritative voice by playing Prof. Charles Xavier in the recent X-Men films, and of course Capt. Jean-

Luc Picard in "Star Trek: The Next Generation."

He's since had some fun taking on a series of voice-acting roles that generally lean more toward humor than gravitas. Most notably, perhaps, he voiced the Poop emoji in 2017's "The Emoji Movie." But he also narrated the delightfully juvenile comedies "Ted" (2012) and "Ted 2" (2015), and had a bit of self-referential fun by voicing great British playwright Bill Shakespeare in 2011's "Gnomeo & Juliet."

Another voice you might have recognized in "Bambi II" was that of Bambi himself. The voice actor from the 1942 original is, of course, long gone, so Disney went with someone from its more recent catalog: Alexander Gould, who voiced Nemo in 2003's "Finding Nemo."

Q: Whatever happened to the reboot of "Cash Cab"? I've seen three episodes and nothing else.

A: How you take the answer to your question will say a lot about whether you're a glass-half-empty or glass-half-full kind of person. "Cash Cab" came and went from the Discovery schedule over the course of three weeks, but that was the plan all along.

An optimist will hear this and think it's good news because it means the show wasn't canceled (again). But a pessimist will hear this and be disappointed there are no more episodes in the immediate future.

Today, Pizza Hut introduced a pair of athletic shoes that have a button that orders pizza. When they heard about it, fans of Pizza Hut said, "What are athletic shoes?"

The Academy Awards were last night and two of the biggest awards, two of the very biggest, went to Mexican director Guillermo Del Toro. So I'm guessing President Trump did not win his Oscar pool.

Some Republicans are really angry about a joke at last night's Oscars made about Mike Pence. My advice to those Republicans: don't watch the Tonys.

A lot of people quitting the White House now. Folks are concerned. In an interview, President Trump claimed there is "no chaos" at the White House. Just then a pair of chimpanzees crashed through the Oval Office on a stolen snowmobile.

President Trump is planning a meeting about violence with the heads of the video game industry. However, some people worry that it's just a trap so that Trump can deport the Mario Brothers.

It's come out that under President Trump, abstinenceonly education is making a comeback. In fact, Melania Trump said, "Abstinence saved my marriage!"

The Tonight Show With Jimmy Fallon

I read that President Trump is on a diet and has been trying to eat more salad. When he first ordered one at the White House, the kitchen was excited 'cause they thought the Obamas were back. It was so windy this weekend that almost all the passengers on a United flight to D.C. threw up. When United said, "We're gonna have to get rid of this plane," Spirit Airlines was like, "We'll take it!"

In honor of International Women's Day, Mattel is releasing a set of Barbies based on history-making women, like Amelia Earhart and Olympic gold medalist Chloe Kim. Yeah, it's called the "Way Too Good for Ken" collection.

Tonight, North Korean leader Kim Jong Un invited South Korean officials to dinner. It was described as two hours of, "You take a bite." "No, YOU take a bite first."

I read that Apple employees keep walking into the glass walls at their new campus in California. Then Apple customers said, "Oh, so you DO know how to make glass that doesn't shatter! That's interesting!"

"Sex and the City" star Cynthia Nixon said she may run for governor of New York. Then New Yorkers were like, "Uh, thanks, but we're more of a Samantha."

Everybody's still talking about this week's big "Bachelor" finale. One "Bachelor" fan said that watching the show has made her a smarter dater. Yep, she says that since she started watching, she no longer dates 25 people at once.

The Late Show With Stephen Colbert

Who here watched the Oscars? I absolutely wanted to, but I went to a school play. That's the kind of

The Late Late Show With James Corden

Did everyone watch the Oscars last night? If you watched, Jimmy Kimmel did an amazing job hosting. If you didn't watch, I'm proud to report "Peter Rabbit" won everything.

Frances McDormand, who won best actress for her role in "Three Billboards Outside Ebbing, Missouri," briefly had her Oscar stolen, but the thief was stopped by Wolfgang Puck's photographer. And the weirdest part of this story is that Wolfgang Puck has a photographer.

A new study claims that after you factor in driving costs and maintenance, nearly a third of Uber drivers are actually losing money on the job. Even worse, this study gives Uber drivers yet another conversation starter.

Donald Trump's son-in-law, Jared Kushner, was sent to Mexico today to head up the United States delegation to meet with the Mexican president. When they heard Kushner was going to visit, Mexico announced that they are going to go ahead and put that wall up themselves.
