On Sunday, April 28, CBS premieres the first doubleheader installment of the original limited series "The Red Line." Billed as an "event series" by the network — and scheduled in a unique format intended to offer audiences a propulsive viewing experience with a swift resolution — the new drama focuses on the lives of three starkly dissimilar Chicago families as they deal with the consequences of an appalling, life-changing tragedy that has affected them all in different ways.

The Show Must Go On: The Queen + Adam Lambert Story

6 9 8:00 p.m.

Adam Lambert shares the remarkable story of how he began performing with legendary rock band Queen in this documentary. The film includes rare concert footage as well as interviews with Lambert and founding band members Brian May and Roger Taylor.

The Code

4 9:00 p.m.

After a dying Marine claims he was involved in the cover up of the murder of an Iraqi civilian, Abe (Luke Mitchell) and Trey (Ato Essandoh) are assigned to the case in this new episode.

Spring Baking Championship

FOOD 9:00 p.m.

The four remaining bakers celebrate the color pink as they create mini desserts featuring rose wine and cheese in this new episode. Later, they're off to the races as they honor the legendary Kentucky Derby. Clinton Kelly hosts.

Duff Takes the Cake

FOOD 10:00 p.m.

Duff draws inspiration from the Muppets as he creates a storybook cake for an inspiring group of students in this new episode. Later, the team prepares for an explosive cake delivery to honor a long-time volunteer at Chinatown's Firecracker Festival.

Casey Webb eats his way across the country in 'Man v. Food' ating competitions are as American as apple pie. Every county fair worth its salt has at least one, and they're easy enough to find as entertaining parts of fundraising efforts and the like.

Casey Webb hosts "Man vs. Food"

Of course, plenty of local restaurants have their own culinary challenges, and in "Man v. Food," host Casey Webb ("Part Timers") takes on some of the biggest, spiciest and the most daunting foods that can be found pretty much everywhere.

Webb is in Hawaii for a taste of aloha spirit in a new episode airing Tuesday, April 30, on Cooking Channel. In each episode, the host visits a different city and checks out some of the biggest and most decadent dishes that can be found in the area. He explores regional specialties and checks in with the locals to discover where they go when they want a meal that's as big as they come.

It's a fun and food-centric way to explore a city, but the main event is still to come: the challenge. While in Hawaii, our host tracks down a joint that serves a burger so big that only a few diners have ever successfully eaten the whole thing, and if Webb can chow down on an entire 3.5-pound burger, he gets to join their ranks — and take home another victory in the ongoing battle of man vs. food.

Webb is actually the second host who's stepped up to the plate and taken on food challenges in city after city. Actor Adam Richman ("Joan of Arcadia") was the original host, and he waged culinary battles for four seasons between 2008 and 2012, although in his last season he stepped away from tackling the eating challenges himself and instead selected a local champion to eat in his stead.

"Man v. Food" returned in 2017 after a five-year hiatus, with Webb at the helm and a whole host of new food challenges. He's been eating his way across the country ever since, and he can be found visiting Hawaii on Tuesday, April 30, on Cooking Channel.

Serenity

Fishing boat captain Baker Dill's (McConaughey) days are spent taking tourists on boat tours and trying to catch an elusive giant tuna named Justice, but his tranguil life is shattered when his exwife Karen (Hathaway) unexpectedly shows up in his remote Florida town. She offers him millions of dollars to murder her abusive new husband (Clarke) by pushing him into the ocean while out on a fishing trip. While Dill is torn between the immorality of the act and the offered money, his world begins to unravel around him in ways that he never could have imagined.

Director: Steven Knight. Stars: Matthew McConaughey, Anne Hathaway, Jason Clarke, Diane Lane, Diimon Hounsou, 2019. 106 min. Drama.

Arctic

A man (Mikkelsen) is stranded in the remote Arctic wilderness after his small plane crashes, surviving in the ruins of his aircraft and living off of fish that he manages to catch from the frigid waters. His hopes are buoyed when a helicopter arrives to rescue him, but a gust of wind causes that vehicle to crash as well, killing its pilot and seriously injuring its passenger, a young woman (Smáradóttir). With the food, medical equipment and map that he finds in the ruined helicopter, the man leaves the shelter and relative safety of his downed airplane and sets out on a dangerous journey across the frozen landscape with the injured woman in tow, hoping to make it back to civilization before the worst can happen.

Director: Joe Penna. Stars: Mads Mikkelsen, Maria Thelma Smáradóttir. 2018. 98 min. Adventure.

Miss Bala

While visiting Mexico, American makeup artist Gloria (Rodriguez) is separated from her friend when a nightclub is attacked by a brutal gang. When the same gang later kidnaps her, she agrees to work for them if they'll help her find her friend. As she's assigned more dangerous jobs, Gloria learns that her employers cannot be trusted, and she realizes she'll have to take matters into her own hands.

Director: Catherine Hardwicke. Stars: Gina Rodriguez, Ismael Cruz Cordova, Anthony Mackie, Aislinn Derbez. 2019. 104 min. Action.

Hollywood Q&A

By Adam Thomlison TV Media

Q: In the TV show "Frasier," was there a reason that Niles Crane's wife, Maris, never appeared in person?

A: For a show with an enormous list of guest stars —
1,132 according to the Internet
Movie Database — it never cast a pretty major character:

Maris, wife of Frasier's brother, Niles. The show's creators offered a pretty plain reason why not: they didn't think they could.

That decision was made quite early on the long-running sitcom. "Two or three episodes in, she was already so bizarre, she was uncastable," co-creator David Lee told Yahoo Entertainment. "So we just went,

'Well, we're never going to see her.'"

The joke was that meek, easily influenced, plain-looking Niles had married a woman who was domineering and delicately beautiful. However, the "delicate" bit got a little out of hand and became part of the problem.

"Nobody you could have cast would have been as interesting as the person the audience had envisioned," series writer/producer Joe Keenan said in the same interview.

"Suddenly she went from being just this excessively thin, chic, rich woman, to being somebody who routinely defies the laws of physics. You would do jokes about her running off through the snow and leaving no footprints, or going on a wine trip and getting into a vat of grapes and not being able to break any. Some characters just have to be off-screen."

It's not as if they were hard up for actors. As I say, the show featured more than 1,000 over its 11 seasons, a great many of whom were big-name stars appearing only as voices calling into Frasier's radio show. Luminaries such as Lily Tomlin, Ben Stiller, Mary Tyler Moore and even fashion designer Tommy Hilfiger took on the role of callers looking for help (who rarely seemed to get it) over the years.

The Kitchen

FOOD 11:00 a.m.

The co-hosts celebrate Cinco de Mayo with dishes inspired by Mexican drinks in this new episode. Sunny Anderson whips up Michelada steak tacos with cerveza pico. Then, Jeff Mauro and Geoffrey Zakarian share new ways to make tacos.

Kentucky Derby

3 2:30 p.m.

Three-year-old thoroughbreds take to the track at Churchill Downs to compete in the quintessential horse race at this year's Kentucky Derby. Widely known as "The Run for the Roses," the event kicks off the race for the U.S. Triple Crown.

Nate and Jeremiah with Anna and Albert Villagomez in "Nate & Jeremiah by Design"

Ransom

49:00 p.m.

Crisis negotiator Eric Beaumont (Luke Roberts) refuses to resort to violence as he tries to resolve kidnapping and ransom cases in a new episode of this drama. Beaumont struggles to balance the demands of his career with his personal life.

Nate & Jeremiah By Design τις 9:00 p.m.

The Barnes family started to renovate their home, but Haley's medical issues complicated the process, so they turn to Nate and Jeremiah for help in this new episode. Watch as the designers revamp their space to suit the family better.

The Tonight Show With Jimmy Fallon

A new report just confirmed that the Curiosity Rover detected methane on Mars. Although you know what they say: he who detected it, ejected it.

I heard that pretty soon, Walgreens is going to start selling CBD products in their stores. Meanwhile, you can get actual weed at any Walmart if you just raise your eyebrows at the right employee.

I read that Keebler was just sold in a deal worth $1.3 billion. It's great for Keebler, but tough on the elves who found an eviction notice nailed to their tree this morning.

I heard that Netflix just announced they're raising prices next month. In response, we're all gonna complain for five minutes and then keep paying Netflix whatever they want.

Trump told reporters that he still might close the Mexican border, and experts say if that happens, the U.S. could run out of avocados in three weeks. And that's when Trader Joe's will officially change its name to "Fight Club.

March Madness is back with the Final Four! The games are in Minneapolis, and I heard the NCAA actually had to take down some signs they hung up around the city 'cause they misspelled "NCAA." The guy who did it was like, "Why didn't my parents bribe me into a better college!"

This weekend, we've also got According to a new study. WrestleMania 351 It's over at Jersey. And you know it's gonna be crazy in New Jersey. Every time a wrestler gets hit with an illegal object, the ref's gonna be like, "I didn't see nuthin'!"

I read that over in Ukraine, a comedian who plays their president on TV is currently leading the polls in their upcoming presidential election. Americans heard that and were like, "Why not — Alec Baldwin 2020!"

Last night was the big season finale of "This Is Us." It ended with a flash-forward several decades into the future. The characters were old, gray, and STILL waiting for the new season of "Game of Thrones."

The Late Late Show With James Corden

The Texas State House recently passed a bill to legalize lemonade stands run by children. Lawmakers say this frees up resources to go after the real enemy: the Girl

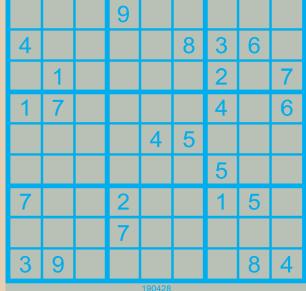

In a recent experiment, scientists in Switzerland played different types of music around aging cheese to see if it affected the taste, and the best tasting cheese was the one exposed to hip hop. In related news, it's apparently someone's job to play music for cheese.

A meat plant in New Hampshire is recalling more than 2,600 pounds of sausage products because they're afraid the meat could contain metal. Even worse, it may contain whatever it is that's normally in a sausage.

researchers say that just can have an effect similar to drinking it — even looking at coffee can wake you up in the morning. Yeah, I'm currently up to five photos of coffee a day.

Jimmy Kimmel Live

Las Vegas is a very special place. This is the only city in the world where you can take an escalator to cross the street in order to catch a gondola ride from Egypt to a circus.

You know, I got a lot of heat for floating the possibility that Gonzaga might not actually exist outside of the NCAA tournament. Now that they're out of it, count how many times you hear the word "Gonzaga" between now and next March. The answer will be "Gonzero" times.

You know you've been in Vegas too long when you see someone step off an elevator and you're surprised that they're not holding a yardlong plastic bong filled with purple margarita.

Late Night With Seth Meyers

AMC Theaters has announced that it will screen a 59-hour marathon of all 22 Marvel Universe movies. And if that isn't long enough for you, the next day they're showing one "Lord of the Rings."
