HOMESWEET HOME

The Greek word for love is “phileo.”

PHILADELPHIA, LOVE BROTHERLY CITY OF

Translation of literal Spanish “dónde” is the easy one: “The place where

WHISKERS CRESTWOOD, KENTUCKY

A man named Joseph Beard donated land for the town’s first railroad station in 1857.

JACKALOPE CAPITAL OF THE WORLD DOXLEAS, WYOMING

The fictional animals were the creation of two taxidermists with a sense of humor.

THE WINDY CITY

While New York and Chicago were competing to host the 1893 Columbian Exposition, Charles Dana of the New York Sun sent a piece domestics of Chicago, calling it “that windy city.”

THE BIG APPLE

New York

THE WINDY CITY

While Chicago is famous for its harsh weather, Dana was referring to the windbag politicians who were badmouthing New York.

THE CITY OF THE EAST

New York

Gotham

The Big Apple