

Missourian

ATHLETE

OF THE WEEK PROGRAM

Name: Avery Lackey
Sport: Basketball
Grade: Senior
School: SFBRHS

Reason for Nomination: Avery Lackey recently scored her 1,000th career point versus Incarnate Word Academy. Lackey has had an outstanding senior season. She averages 12 points and eight rebounds per game. She is one of the top shot-blockers in the area. Lackey has been an important part of the Lady Knights for four years. She led Borgia to a third-place finish in the Union Tournament where she also was named to the all-tournament team.

Reason for Nomination: John helped the New Haven Shamrocks finish second in last week's South Callaway Tournament and was named to the all-tournament team. Liggett also was named to the Montgomery County Tournament all-tournament team earlier this season. "While he has always been a talented offensive player, this year he has really improved as a defender," New Haven Head Coach Aaron Peirick said.
