

New Specialized Skin Cancer Surgery Close to Home

Geneva General Hospital is proud to welcome Ryan Fields, MD, and Brian Riesenberger, PA-C, to its medical staff.

Dr. Fields will be treating soft tissue cancers such as melanoma at Geneva General Hospital. He is a renowned surgeon and researcher devoted to caring for people with complex cancers. Dr. Fields is Chair of the Department of Surgery at the University of Rochester Medical Center, Surgeon-in-Chief at Strong Memorial Hospital, and Associate Director for Translational Research at the Wilmot Cancer Institute

Ryan Fields, MD

Brian Riesenberger, PA-C

Fellowship: Surgical Oncology, Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center

Residency: General Surgery, Barnes-Jewish Hospital/ Washington University

Medical School: Duke University School of Medicine

Brian Riesenberger, PA-C

Master of Science in Health Sciences for Physician

Assistants: Joan & Sanford I. Weill Medical College of Cornell University

Bachelor of Science in Biology: St. John Fisher College

Dr. Ryan Fields and Brian Riesenberger, PA-C are seeing patients at 200 North Street, Suite 304, Geneva, in the Medical Office Building, adjacent to Geneva General Hospital.

Patients can schedule an appointment by calling
(585) 275-1611.

Extensive experience surgically managing a wide spectrum of skin cancer diagnoses, including:

- Melanoma
- Basal cell carcinoma
- Squamous cell carcinoma (cutaneous)
- Merkel cell (cutaneous neuroendocrine carcinoma)
- Benign and malignant superficial soft tissue tumors (e.g. lipomatous tumors, dermatofibrosarcoma protuberans [DFSP])

UR Medicine
Surgical Oncology - Geneva

Medical Office Building, 200 North Street, Suite 304
(585) 275-1611

flhealth.org

UR MEDICINE