— Five Blue Devils on First Squad —

Clifton Dominates Finger Lakes All-Star Team

Clifton Springs' Blue Devils dominate the 1963 Geneva Times All-Finger Lakes conference football team in general and the backfield in particular.

The Blue Devils, co-titlists this season, have three-fourths of the backfield with Charlie Button at quarterback, Biff Tatro at halfback and Pete Landschoot at fullback.

The fourth member of the backfield, Scott Price, was picked for the second team.

The Blue Devils also picked up a pair of line spots, with coaches in the league naming Ron Wheat at center and Andy Goodrow at guard.

Phelps, which shared first place with Clifton; Red Jacket which took third and Victor, which battled for the title until the final two weeks before slipping to fourth, each placed two men on the first team.

Phelps end Phil Beniamino had the honor to be the only unanimous selection on the all-conference team as coaches this year had trouble agreeing on the wealth of talent in the loop.

Only three other players drew as many as five of a possible six first place votes. Victor tackle Bob Burns and Tatro each had five firsts and one second while Red Jacket guard Mike Davis had five first place votes.

Joining Beniamino on the team from Phelps is tackle Ron Hilfiker. Red Jacket's Al Colburn, an end, made the team along with Davis, and Don Dillman joins Burns from Victor, rounding ou the backfield.

Goodrow, at 220 pounds, is the big man on the club. Burns weighs 190 and the sizes go down to Beniamino's lean 160.

Ohly two juniors were able to crack the starting lineup and they come from Clifton, indicating trouble for the rest of the league again next season.

The two underclassmen are Goodrow and Landschoot.

Clifton's domination of outstanding players extends to the second team as well as the first with three Blue Devils also being named to the second eleven, giving Clifton a total of eight players on the first two teams.

Phelps also has three on the second team while Red Jacket has two and Dundee, Victor and Palmyra - Macedon each have one.

Clifton's second team stars are end Jim Sanford, tackle Scott Walker, and halfback Price.

Phelps contributes guard Roy Wilkes, center John Raczenski and quarterback Jim Preece.

Red Jacket's players are end Ron Cianfoni and tackle Bill Eddinger.

Rounding out the squad are guard Dic Exton from Victor, halfback Tom Gagliano from Palmyra - Macedon and fullback Bill Bason from Dundee.

All but two players on the squad are seniors. The exceptions are Cianfoni, a junior, and Gagliano, a sophomore.

George Doherty, Clifton Coach, completes the domination by the Devils, being named coach of the year by his fellow mentors.

Spa Cagers Roll Past Honeoye

By KEN DARLING

CLIFTON SPRINGS — The Clifton Springs Blue Devils have left no doubt about their goal for this season — thorough domination of the Finger Lakes basketball conference.

Last night, the Blue Devils hosted Honeoye, rated a possible title contender and one of the few teams to beat the Spa quintet last season. The Bulldogs hung close for a half, but then Clifton's overall strength prevailed and the home team swept to a 69-49 victory.

Honeoye trailed by just four points, 31-27, at halftime. In the third period, domination of the backboards and some torrid shooting propelled the Blue Devils into a 15-point lead. The battered Bulldogs fell 21 points behind early in the fourth quarter, then rallied briefly to pull within 15 again but never got any closer.

Charlie Button and Scott Price again led the Devil scoring. Button tallied 21 points, including 12 in the third quarter when Clifton outscored Honeoye 21-10. Button hit on seven of ten field goal attempts in the second half.

Price, the 6-3 senior with steel springs for legs, netted 20 points, including 12 in the third quarter when Clifton outscored Honeoye 21-10. Button hit on seven of ten field goal attempts in the second half.

Joining Button and Price in double figures was Biff Tatro with 11 points. Spa Coach Joe Pitcher was happy about Tatro's effort, remarking that "I've been looking for a third man to hit double figures."

Honeoye also placed three men in double figures. In addition to Bruce, Rod Washburn had 18 points and Mike Johnston ten.

Pitcher was enthused with his club's rebounding, calling it the key to the game. "Last year when we lost to Honeoye it was because we didn't rebound." Helping Price off the boards last night were Ray Walters with nine rebounds and Jim Loughlin with eight.

Honeoye Coach Harlan Munn agreed that rebounding was the deciding factor in the tilt. "They were stronger and started to wear us down in the third period," he said. "They began outrebounding us consistently and that was the ball game."

Munn also noted that "In the second half their shooting got hot and our boys seemed to lose their eyes." Clifton connected on 30 of their 75 field goal attempts for the game, including a blistering 17 for 37 in the second half.

The two clubs battled evenly throughout the first quarter, with the difference never more than four points. Two foul shots and a jump shot by Washburn pulled Honeoye ahead 14-13 with seconds left in the period, but Button's free throw knotted the score.

In the second quarter Johnston hit three straight outside shots for the visitors, but two field goals by Price and one by Button kept the Devils even. Bruce's foul shot put Honeoye ahead temporarily, but Loughlin and Price reeled off six straight counters to move Clifton ahead, 26-21.

Washburn and Bruce added three points apiece, but a free throw by Walters and two jump shots by Button gave Clifton the fourt-point halftime edge.

Clifton's attack leaped into high gear as the second half opened. Button hit two jumpers before Washburn countered for Honeoye. Then Button and Tatro scored off a fast break, Walters added a layup and the Devils were in front, 41-29.

With Price and Button continuing to rip the nets, Clifton added 11 more points for a 52-27 margin as the quarter ended. Early in the fourth period the Devils rolled to a 60-39 lead before Honeoye was able to slow down the assault.

CORNING — A stiff defense by West High of Corning smothered Penn Yan for a 42-29 victory in a non-league test here last night.

West High led by only four points, 18-14, at the half but Penn Yan managed just three foul shots in the third quarter as the home team opened a 14-point lead. The Mustangs outscored the Corning five in the final period 12-11.

The Mustangs were plagued by poor shooting from the floor, hitting only 19 per cent in the first half and 13 per cent in the second half. No one reached double figures for Penn Yan, with Roger Jensen's nine points pacing the team.

Non-League Encounter —

Saints Top Carmel

AUBURN — Sharp shooting and strong rebounding, the combination which basketball coaches dream about, enabled the De Sales Saints to whip Mt. Carmel 57-41 in a non - league contest here last night.

The Saints of Coach Bob Maher hit on 22 of 49 field goa attempts, while Carmelites managed only 18 of 65. Tom Welch paced De Sales with 22 points and Leo Fitzgerald added 12.

Fitzgerald was the chief reason why the Saints out-rebounded their taller opponents, as he came down with ten rebounds.

Maher was also pleased with the play of Bob Davie, who scored only two points but contributed "several good assists."

DeSales led all the way, jumping off to a 11-6 edge in the first quarter. At halftime the Saints, playing their usual type of ball control and waiting for the good shots, had increased their margin to 24-16.

Midway through the third period "We were far enough ahead so we opened up a little," Maher reported. The result was 33 points for the Saints in the second half while Mt. Carmel picked up 25.

For Mt. Carmel, Pete Herrling dominated the scoring with 17 points.

The win evened the Saint's overall mark at 1-1. They dropped their Wayne - Finger Lakes opener to Lyons, 44-33, Tuesday.

Clarkson Raps Spartan Icers

POTSDAM, N.Y. (AP)—Michigan State, still shell - shocked from a 7-1 hockey defeat inflicted by Clarkson, takes on St. Lawrence tonight in the third game of the Spartans' Upstate tour.

Michigan State measured St. Lawrence, 5-1, Thursday before encountering the fierce Clarkson attack Friday night.

Three Clarkson goals within the first 80 seconds of the game stunned the Spartans. They did not retaliate until the third period.

Bob Birrell stopped 28 shots as Clarkson romped to its third straight victory without a defeat.

Concannon Top AFL Draft Pick

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Quarterback Jack Concannon of Boston College was the No. 1 draft pick of the American Football League, at the draft meeting held today.

Concannon was selected by the Boston Patriots.

Boston got the right to pick first in the AFL in a trade with the Denver Broncos.

Denver traded its No. 1 pick to Boston—obviously to clear the decks for the signing of the hometown quarterback—and received in return Boston's No. pick, No. 3 pick and a player to be named later.

Kansas City, picking second selected another quarterback Pete Beathard of Southern California.

The New York Jets selected Matt Snell, Ohio State fullback as their No. 1 choice.

Concannon is 6-foot-3, 2 pounds from Corchester, Mass and is also a baseball and basketball player. He is 21 years old.

Slippery Floor Can't Stop Celts

There seems to be something out of the ordinary whenever the Boston Celtics play one of their National Basketball Association games on a neutral court in Providence, R.I.

Back on Feb. 15, Bob Cousy tossed in pro basketball's longest shot on record, a 79-footer, against the Syracuse Nats. Friday night the Celtics found a slippery floor to their liking and raced to a 112-78 victory over the Philadelphia 76ers, nee the Nats.

The 76ers, who took over the Syracuse franchise after last season, played the last quarter under protest. Player-Coach Dolph Schayes claimed the floor at the Rhode Island Auditorium was too slippery from rain seeping through the roof. At the time Boston led 63-34 as Tommy Heinsohn, with 18 points, Bill Russell with 15 and Clyde Lovellette with 13, seemed to have no trouleb getting around.

Cincinnati, the only club to beat the Celtics so far this season, crushed the New York Knicks 135-110 in one of the three other scheduled NBA games Friday night. Baltimore edged San Francisco 100-99 and Los Angeles drubbed Detroit 127-111.

College Football Windup—

Grandaddies in Spotlight

By BOB GREEN

A couple of doddering grandaddies—one the bowl and one The Game—take the spotlight today in the somber windup of collegiate football's regular season play.

The host spot in the Rose Bowl, granddaddy of all the postseason extravaganzas, will be settled in a couple of Big Six family squabbles at Los Angeles and Seattle, with Washington's Huskies favored to take it all.

And in New Haven, Conn., The Game will match Harvard and Yale for the 80th time in the most storied of all the traditional games.

Those three games, along with a majority of the games scheduled, were postponed from last weekend because of the death of President Kennedy. Most games scheduled memorial services and patriotic music at halftime instead of the usual colorful shows.

Illinois gained the visitor's spot in the Rose Bowl when it captured the Big Ten title with a 13-0 decision over Michigan State Thanksgiving Day. The Illini's opponent will be determined in the crosstown feud between Southern California and UCLA and the Washington-Washington State game.

Washington, at 5-4 overall and 3-1 in the league, can take it all by beating Washington State. Should the Cougars upset the Huskies, however, the winner of the Southern Cal-UCLA game probably will get the nod. UCLA has only a 2-7 overall mark, but both victories were in Big Six play, including an upset of Washington. Both the Trojans and the Bruins have 2-1 league records.

The West Coast representative will decided in a poll of league officials immediately after the two games.

Spots in the Cotton, Sugar and Orange Bowls also could be affected by the Saturday schedule, although Navy has postponed until next week its classic clash with Army. The second-ranked Middies are prime bowl contenders, but won't be in the market if they don't win their fifth straight from the Cadets.

Alabama and Auburn, each with a 7-1 record and ranked sixth and ninth respectively, both are bowl contenders regardless of the outcome of their clash in Birmingham. Auburn is a top choice for the Orange to oppose Nebraska, while Alabama appears headed for the Sugar Bowl, possibly to oppose Mississippi.

Ol' Miss, ranked third on a 7-0-1 record, is favored to beat old foe Mississippi State, 5-2-1, again, but it could be tough. Ol' Miss Coach Johnny Vaught, however, hasn't lost to his state rival in 16 games.

Foul Line Blues Hurt Romulus

ROMULUS — A cold night at the foul line cost the Romulus Warriors a chance for their second win of the year over Weedsport here last night, as the visitors took a 45-41 non-league decision.

In their opener on Nov. 16, Romulus belted Weedsport 45-30. Last night, the Warriors outscored their opponents from the floor 17-15 but managed only seven of 20 foul shots. Weedsport sank 15 charity tosses and that was the difference.

The winners controlled the board, taking a 42-26 edge in rebounds, but Romulus had more shots. Weedsport was 15 for 55 from the floor, while the Warriors of Coach Tony Alvaro were 17 for 62.

Rick Gambee paced Romulus with 20 points, but shared game honors with Weedsport's Doan.

Weedsport led 19-14 at halftime, and Romulus managed to slice only one point from the difference in the second half.
