

GENEVA CONCERTS

CELEBRATING
80
YEARS
1946-2026

Please join us at the Smith Opera House for our 2026/2027 Season!

GARTH FAGAN DANCE

Saturday, September 26, 2026
at 7:30 pm

With 55 years of award-winning choreography, Garth Fagan Dance stands as a beacon of innovation, creativity, and artistic excellence in the world of contemporary dance. Garth Fagan is known around the world for his groundbreaking choreography of Broadway's The Lion King.

THE SYRACUSE ORCHESTRA

Sunday, November 15, 2026
at 3:00 pm

Echoes of America

Austin Chanu, conductor

JOHN ADAMS The Chairman Dances:
Foxtrot for Orchestra

JAKE HEGGIE Good Morning, Beauty
with Nikola Printz, mezzo-soprano

BARBER Adagio for Strings

COPLAND Appalachian Spring

THE ROCHESTER

PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

Friday, January 22, 2027
at 7:30 pm

Musical Landscapes

Andreas Delfs, conductor

SMETANA The Moldau

MICHAEL TORKE Sky, Concerto for Violin
with soloist Tessa Lark

SCHUMANN Symphony no. 3, "Rhenish"

THE SYRACUSE ORCHESTRA

Sunday, May 2, 2027 at 3:00 pm
Austin Chanu, conductor

The Syracuse Orchestra closes our season with works of two celebrated nationalist composers and a work of national remembrance:

SIBELIUS Concerto for Violin with soloist
Elina Vähälä

SHOSTAKOVICH Symphony No. 5

NATALIE DRAPER Energy and Light

(written in tribute to victims of PanAm Flight 103)

All concerts at the Smith Opera House, 82 Seneca St., Geneva, NY.

For more informaton, please visit GenevaConcerts.org.

*Children through grade 12
FREE*

