One of the most pivotal models in Ford history!

After producing over 15 million Model Ts, Henry Ford closed his assembly lines to retool for its highly anticipated Model A. Boasting beauty, comfort and speed, the Model A created so much demand that over 500,000 cars were sold on the first day.

Now the “1931 Ford Model A Coupe” celebrates this pivotal vehicle with a 1:32-scale sculpture of the most publicized car in Ford history. From its iconic chassis and authentic paint color to its spoked wheels, every inch is faithfully rendered.

Plus this model year was especially notable because it was the first time ALL FIVE Model A body styles — coupe, roadster, tudor, pickup & delivery truck — shared a production year!

This sculpture debuts the A Model of Greatness Ford Model A Collection, a first-ever series showcasing the variations of the 1931 Model A in 1:32 scale. As a subscriber, you'll receive new issues as released, each for the same per issue price. Collect them all, or cancel at any time.
