

ATTENTION: This is a very simple special election ballot. All ballots are the same throughout the county except for the precinct designation on the bottom of the ballot. There is no rotation of names since it's a partisan race. You may take this sample ballot to the polls and use it as a guide in marking your ballot. The only write-in votes counted are those where someone is engaged in a write-in campaign and has filed a notarized write-in affidavit by June 17th with the Secretary of State.
