Dear Superintendent Toliver and the Community of Eagle Grove:

On behalf of the Forest City Board of Education and the Forest City Community School District, we sincerely apologize for comments heard over The Cube broadcast during the basketball game held November 28, 2017.

Although the comments were not made by Forest City Community School personnel, we do not condone nor support the comments and we are sorry for any issues that may have been caused to your students, school or the community of Eagle Grove.

Measures are underway to prevent anything of this nature happening during future broadcasts. Please accept our sincere apologies from the school district and the community of Forest City.

Educationally yours,

Darwin Lehmann
Superintendent
