

Iowa's red and yellow zones

The White House's coronavirus task force says Iowa remains a "red zone" for spread of COVID-19, and now has 61 counties in either "red" or "yellow" zones, an increase from two weeks ago.

More than 100 new cases per 100,000 population Test positivity rate between 5% to 10%

