I bailed as well. I just wanted to get out of there.

I'm wanting Jodee Anderson or TJ to call the potential new hire. She was suppose to be on the agenda for approval Monday and I'm not sure if that is still the case. I think Janna was going to touch base with Jodee today to make a plan for that.

I have several names of Sups with ties to Mason City interested in our position. I really would like to hire a temp retired sup until the position is filled. Lots of issues we will need to discuss in public.

I think a letter is a must to the entire school. Good idea.

A personal letter from you is a good idea as well just to get something out soon. . I may do that as well. I think our tight lipped behavior is making people uneasy

Obviously, I can understand just wanting to get out of there. What do you think about a letter to the staff? I might send an email out to the principals and staff members who were there last night on just a personal basis not representing the board of course.

My wife told me that she is being treated like the plague today. Not exactly the response I was expecting. Makes me wonder whether people are feeling uneasy about not knowing what is going to happen next.

Thanks,

Brent
