

JOINT LETTER OF ENDORSEMENT

Gloucester Superior Officers Association
Gloucester Police Patrol Association

To the Editor of the Gloucester Daily Times:

A United Endorsement for Interim Police Chief Michael Gossom

As the City of Gloucester considers its next permanent Chief of Police, the Gloucester Superior Officers Association and Gloucester Police Patrol Association proudly stand united in our strong support for Interim Chief Michael Gossom. Our endorsement reflects firsthand knowledge of his character, proven leadership, professional qualifications, and lifelong commitment to Gloucester.

Born and raised in Gloucester, Michael Gossom understands our community, its values, and its unique challenges. He has raised his family here, with children who have graduated from and continue to attend Gloucester Public Schools. His commitment to this city extends well beyond his professional responsibilities. Gloucester is his home.

Throughout his career, Interim Chief Gossom has demonstrated integrity, accountability, sound judgment, and professionalism. His extensive experience, leadership training, and institutional knowledge have prepared him to lead the Gloucester Police Department effectively.

Interim Chief Gossom understands our department, its personnel, and the challenges facing modern law enforcement. At a time when recruitment, retention, officer wellness, and community trust remain critical priorities, his experience and established relationships provide valuable continuity and a strong foundation for the future.

Our joint endorsement reflects the shared confidence of both patrol officers and superior officers. While our associations represent different ranks and responsibilities, we are united in our belief that Michael Gossom possesses the leadership, temperament, and dedication necessary to move this department forward. This endorsement is not simply about promoting from within. It is about recognizing proven leadership and acknowledging that the best candidate may already be serving our community.

We respect the City's selection process and encourage those responsible for this important decision to give significant consideration to Interim Chief Gossom's qualifications, experience, and demonstrated commitment.

Gloucester deserves a Police Chief who knows its streets, understands its people, respects its officers, and has a personal stake in the future of our community.

We firmly believe that leader is Michael Gossom.

For these reasons, the Gloucester Superior Officers Association and Gloucester Police Patrol Association proudly and unanimously stand together in our full support of Michael Gossom as Gloucester's next permanent Chief of Police.

Respectfully and in Solidarity,

Gloucester Superior Officers Association
Gloucester Police Patrol Association

United in our commitment to the officers, residents, and future of Gloucester.
