

Today's anacrostic puzzle solution

Title: He wrote 18 novels after he said this at age 74

Quote: It heartens me to think of Verdi who composed thundering operas in his eighties; Michelangelo who did fine work in his ninetieth year, and Titian, who painted better than ever in his one hundredth

- A. NOTHIN' ... Lazy answer to "Whacha doin'?"
- B. O'HAIR ... New salon out by the Goshen Municipal Airport?
- C. VETERANS DAY ... Upcoming holiday honoring U.S. military service, first observed in 1919
- D. EIGHT ... Brady Bunch bunch, in toto
- E. LINE AND SINKER ... "He swallowed it hook, ____, ____!"
- F. I DIDN'T DO IT ... Bart Simpson response to accusation which turned him into a celebrity ... for awhile (from Season 5, Episode 12)
- G. SHINE ON ... Plea from a young lover in song: "____, harvest moon, up in the sky"
- H. THE TRUTH ... Col. Jessup (Jack Nicholson) iconic line from "A Few Good Men": "You can't handle ____!"
- I. JEFFERSON ... Original name of Goshen Theater ... also a nearby street
- J. APHRODITE ... Greek goddess of beauty (she's Venus in Roman mythology)
- K. METHINKS ... Start of a pirate's reflection, as he strokes his scruffy chin
- L. EPEIRID ... Geology 404: What do you call a shallow sea covering part of a continent? (Hint: It's not an "Erie dip" but it uses those letters)
- M. SWITCH ... Light device, train device, or old-school discipline device
- N. MADGE ... ____ Wickham, world-class 19th century violinist born in Goshen
- O. IPHONE ... Iconic pocket computer
- P. CAVE IN ... Submit to the grandkids' demand for another frozen ice cream cone
- Q. HOTWIRE ... Start a car without a key, in the old days
- R. EDITH ... Archie's 70's TV wife
- S. NOTABLE GOSHEN WOMEN ... Present display at the Goshen Historical Society from which Question N was taken
- T. EH ... Canadian equivalent to American's "amirite?"
- U. RUN WITH IT ... Take an idea far past the brainstorming session

Acrostic: Novelist James Michener