

Today's anacrostic puzzle solution

Title: A reverence for wood opened new doors for local resident

Quote: I just became more and more convinced that one of the most spiritual practices is using your hands. You're using God's materials. Wood is a pretty unique material — each piece has its own unique characteristics and you're always learning

- A. OPAQUE ... Hard to see through
- B. NINE HOURS ... Length of time Syracuse resident Jace Morgan took to swim the entire 17-mile perimeter of Lake Wawasee, a first
- C. TENNIS COURTS ... Newly-renovated sports facility at Goshen College
- D. HUNDRED YEARS' WAR ... Century-long conflict between England and France
- E. EB II ... If Eb had a son named after him
- F. TROYER ... Food distribution business leaving Goshen, ____ Foods,
- G. HYDRANGEA ... Shrub named for water-loving nature
- H. RAJ ERA ... Period of British colonial rule in India
- I. E. LINCOLN AVE. ... New street address for Goshen News
- J. SIDEWALKS ... New rule: you may still protest at the old courthouse in Goshen but no chalking is allowed on this surface
- K. HUMILIATING ... Shame-inducing
- L. OMEGA ... As Alpha is to A, this is to Z
- M. LIQUID ASSETS ... Readily available funds
- N. DOORS ... Verlin Miller, the speaker of the quote above, has made over 300 of these building pieces for Notre Dame University
- O. OUI OUI! ... Enthusiastic French agreement
- P. FAUCI ... Noted Dr. during the Covid era
- Q. CARTOONISTS ... Artists of a bygone era who are honored in Nappanee's Alley of the same name
- R. HYPNOTIC STATE ... Trance-like condition
- S. AMISH CRACK ... Local nickname for Rise'n Roll's cinnamon caramel doughnut, which has now been blended into The Chief's ice cream
- T. NEW TESTAMENT ... Collection of 27 books that changed the world
- U. GUCCI ... Designer label for chic handbags
- V. EMPTY SPACE ... Like a vacuum, a vacant building, or your cousin Gary's skull cavity
- W. UM ... Cousin Gary's initial response to most any question

Acrostic: "On the Threshold of Change"