

Today's anacrostic puzzle solution

Title: If this is true then Rich Strike had it easy

Quote: "I'd rather be two strokes ahead going into the last day than two strokes behind. Having said that it's probably easier to win coming from behind. There is no fear in chasing. There is fear in being chased"

- A. GENGHIS...Mr. Kahn, I presume
- B. ONE-ARMED BANDIT...Loser's name for a slot machine
- C. LAMBORGHINI...Pricey Italian auto
- D. FIFTEENTH...Place Rich Strike was in after the first mile (and just a quarter-mile to go)
- E. EIGHTY TO ONE...Rich Strike's odds on winning the Kentucky Derby at post time
- F. RECORD...Goshen College student newspaper which won "Newspaper of the Year" award in college division for fifth time
- G. JONATHAN SWIFT...Author of "Gulliver's Travels"
- H. ABBREVIATE...Create an acronym
- I. CASSIDY...David or Butch, from the 70s
- J. KOWTOW...Grovel, fawn over, behave obsequiously
- K. NORTHRIDGE RAIDERS...Area high school football team who just received their Class 4A state runnerup rings
- L. ISAIAH..."Swords into plowshares" prophet
- M. CASSETTE...It came after the 8-track but before the CD
- N. KING NEPTUNE...Ruler of SpongeBob's domain (and perhaps the Goshen courthouse grounds)
- O. LOST ONE'S SHIRT...Came home from the racetrack broke
- P. ABBA...Palindromic pop singing group
- Q. UHHHH...Time-buying syllable for speakers worldwide
- R. SIREN...Horseracing for "fathered" ... like Keen Ice to Rich Strike
- S. IA...It's north of MO

Acrostic: Golfer Jack Nicklaus