

Today's anacrostic puzzle solution

Title: Paradise lost ... but I remember it fondly

Quote: Nostalgia is however a dangerous emotion both because it is powerless to act in the real world and because it glides so easily into hatred and resentment against those who have taken our Eden from us

- A. POTATO ... Most popular chip base
- B. REGIONAL RECORDS ... Three big achievements of the Goshen girls tracksters last Tuesday
- C. ODESSA ... Ukrainian Black Sea port
- D. FIVE ... Number of Revolutionary War veterans buried in Elkhart County: surprisingly, this many
- E. CONESTOGA WAGON ... Vehicle built by Studebaker in South Bend long before the Studebaker automobile became its signature product
- F. ATTENDANT ... UAL employee: Flight ____
- G. ROSETTE ... Decorative design surrounding a guitar's sound opening
- H. OSHA ... Government agency overseeing workplace safety
- I. LIMESTONE ... Stone quarried in southern Indiana and featured in "Breaking Away"
- J. YOU BETTER BELIEVE IT ... "That's exactly right!"
- K. NASCAR ... Sport the late Kyle Busch dominated until his recent, untimely death
- L. GLASS HOUSES ... People living in such structures should NOT throw stones
- M. HEADWIND ... You face it only on half of a biking run (though it seems like you face it both ways)
- N. ELKHART ... Location of the RV Hall of Fame which recently hosted 1400 people including Gov. Mike Braun to witness the ceremonial signing of a new law making RV transport more accessible
- O. IH ... International Harvester tractor-y logo
- P. LITHUANIA ... One of the three Baltic states, the other two being Estonia and Latvia
- Q. BARNDOMINIUM ... Highly practical type of house Lovina Eicher (GN) recently wrote about that functions as a living and work space
- R. ROWED ... What Michael did, repeatedly
- S. USE ... Consume
- T. NEWS SHEET ... Old-school term for a printed bulletin

Acrostic: Prof. Carolyn G. Heilbrun