

LEGAL NOTICE

The Skagit Conservation District (SCD) Board of Supervisors voted on December 17, 2025, at their regular monthly board meeting, to hold an election to vote for an open Conservation District Board Supervisor position, currently held by Jed Holmes. The election will be held at Valley Business Center, 2021 E. College Way, Mount Vernon, WA in the second-floor lobby (north side of the building), with a public poll site on Wednesday, February 25, 2026, from 8:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. Absentee ballots can be requested by Wednesday, February 4, 2026, from the SCD, c/o Kelsey Freeman, 2021 E. College Way, Suite 203, Mount Vernon, WA 98273, 360-428-4313 or skagitcd@skagitcd.org. All absentee ballots must be received by the day of election, February 25, 2026, 12:00 p.m. Eligible voters are registered voters who reside within the boundaries of the District.

A conservation district supervisor is a public official who serves without compensation and sets policy and direction for the conservation district. An applicant must be a registered voter in Washington State and may be required to own land or operate a farm. The candidate filing deadline is 4:30 p.m. on Wednesday, January 25, 2026, at 2021 E. College Way, Suite 203, Mount Vernon, WA (SCD office). In addition, a SCD board seat is available for appointment by the WA State Conservation Commission (WSCC). This position is currently held by Margery Hite. Application and supporting materials must be received by the WSCC to be considered for the position no later than March 31, 2026. The published election procedures are available from the Washington State Conservation Commission at <http://scc.wa.gov/>.
