22 reported killed in Independence Day attack in Ukraine

BY DEREK GATOPLOUS AND BENJAMIN LEUNG

22 people were killed and 117 were wounded in a attack on a beach in the southern port city of Odesa in Ukraine on July 4th. The attack, which was reportedly by sea, occurred as a large crowd of people was gathered to celebrate Independence Day. The attacker was reportedly a group of Russian Special Forces members who used a boat to reach the shore and then opened fire on the crowd."