KURT WILSON, FOR THE MONTANA STANDARD

By the light of his lantern, a visitor to Lewis and Clark Caverns State Park walks among the stalactites, stalagmites and columns discovered in the late 1800s.

This is the 1st edition of this extensive event guide. Enclosed is a variety of events for the summer provided and collected from various partners, sources and events in the area. This guide was created to bring attention to local events June through September with events in Butte, Helena, Anaconda, Dillon, Virginia City, Whitehall and more!

For season-long events check after the end of September.

See Page 13. Bannack State Park is filled with visitors during Bannack Days. The old ghost town is a National Historic Landmark and actors, musicians and Fish Wildlife and Parks staff gave demonstrations to visitors on pioneer lifestyles and education on the plants and animals in the area. The site is now a ghost town but it was the first place where gold was discovered in Montana in 1862.

The poster for Townsend Rotary Fall Fest features a warm, autumnal color palette of oranges, yellows, and browns. At the top, a decorative border of pumpkins and leaves frames the event title "TOWNSEND ROTARY FALL FEST" in a mix of bold, serif and sans-serif fonts. Below the title, the dates "October 4-6" are prominently displayed in a large, dark serif font, with "Townsend, MT" in a smaller font underneath. The central part of the poster is a collage of three images: a top view of a crowded street lined with vintage cars for a "CAR SHOW!", a middle section showing a band performing live music on a stage with the text "3 Days of Fun!" overlaid, and a bottom section with a woman smiling and holding a beer, with the text "Free Live Music" overlaid. The bottom of the poster features the text "Great Food, Drinks, Art, Clothing, Crafts and more!" in a bold, sans-serif font. Below this, a paragraph describes the event as a family-friendly event starting at 4:00 pm on Friday, October 4, 2024, and running through 5:00 pm on Sunday, October 6, 2024. It includes a Facebook logo and the website "TownsendFallFest.com".
