"The impact of the Chamber finding a focus on the people and organizations in East Helena is so greatly appreciated. From promoting events and businesses, to bringing productive economic conversations to the city, to better understanding our challenges and opportunities has been a benefit to greater Helena community. Now serving on the chamber board as a representative of East Helena has also been impactful. The city has the ability to make more informed growth and development decisions and the chamber has been able to influence broader issues from what is happening out east. We are grateful and proud of the relationship the chamber has been able to provide and foster amongst stakeholder partners. Galaxy Roasting has been the perfect conduit to help bridge ideas and action for East Helena. Thanks to Kevin at Galaxy and Callie at the chamber for their leadership in making these connections."

Carroll College

Carroll College: A Premier Institution in the Heart of Helena

A Tradition of Excellence

Carroll College, founded in 1909 and among just nine Catholic diocesan colleges in the nation, has long been a beacon of higher education in Montana. Guided by the motto Non scholae, sed vitae—“Not for school, but for life”—Carroll provides a transformative liberal arts education rooted in intellectual growth, ethical leadership, and service. Drawing students from across the Pacific Northwest, the Northern Rockies, and beyond, the college offers a diverse and expanding range of programs tailored to meet the evolving needs of students and the workforce.

Academic Excellence and Experiential Learning

Carroll’s academic strength lies in its blend of liberal arts and professional preparation. With a student-to-faculty ratio of 12:1, students benefit from personalized instruction and research opportunities in fields such as biology, political science, business, and health sciences. The college’s Core Curriculum provides a strong foundation in critical thinking, problem-solving, and communication skills, enhancing specialized degree programs.

Experiential learning is central to a Carroll education. The Sed Vitae Experience ensures every student engages in internships, study abroad programs, service-learning projects, or research. These opportunities bridge classroom learning with practical career preparation in health-care, engineering, education, law, and beyond.

Innovative Programs and Affordability

Carroll offers top-ranked programs in Anthrozoology, Nursing, Psychology, and Biology. To address workforce demands, the college has expanded its graduate and specialized programs, adding a Master of Social Work and an Accelerated Nursing track, while also in the development stages of a Physician Assistant program.

Carroll is committed to accessibility, with 99% of students receiving institutional aid. The Yellow Ribbon Program offers an affordable pathway for veterans and their dependents, while Carroll’s Pell Promise ensures eligible Pell recipients from Montana can attend tuition-free, further reinforcing Carroll’s dedication to student support.

A Vibrant Campus Community

Carroll fosters a strong sense of community with more than 30 student organizations focused on academics, faith, service, athletics, and the arts. The college hosts over 350 annual events, from concerts and theater performances to lectures, masses, and service projects, many of which welcome the Helena community.

The Carroll Adventure and Mountaineering Program (CAMP) allows students to explore Montana’s vibrant outdoors. On campus, the Hunthausen Activity Center provides state-of-the-art fitness resources. With 97% of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors living on campus, students enjoy a close-knit environment that supports academic, spiritual, and personal growth.

Athletic Excellence and Character Development

Carroll’s Fighting Saints compete in the Frontier and Cascade Collegiate Conferences of the NAIA. Student-athletes receive holistic support, balancing academics and sports. Facilities such as Nelson Stadium and the PE Center enhance the athletic experience for both competitors and fans.

In the fall of 2024, Carroll received the inaugural NAIA School of Character Award, recognizing its commitment to integrity, sportsmanship, and leadership. This distinction highlights the college’s dedication to developing well-rounded student-athletes who excel both on and off the field.

A Campus That Blends Tradition and Innovation

Spanning 63 acres in Helena, Carroll’s beautiful campus offers a blend of historic charm and modern facilities. Recent investments include the Corette Library and Simperman Learning Commons, the E.L. Wiegand Nursing Simulation Center, and Valley Bank Field at Nelson Stadium. These resources provide students with cutting-edge learning and athletic environments.

Impact on Montana and Beyond

Carroll consistently ranks as Montana’s leader in graduation rates, medical school placement, nursing NCLEX pass rates, and graduate lifetime earnings. Many graduates remain in Montana, strengthening the state’s workforce and economy.

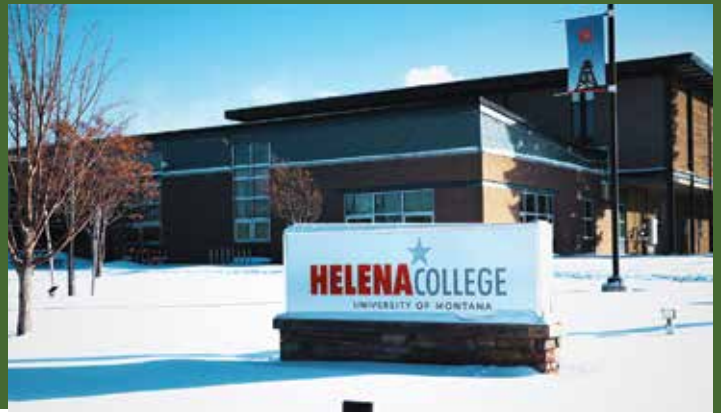

From academic excellence to a thriving campus life, Carroll College continues to shape future leaders. Whether through innovative education, athletic success, or service-driven initiatives, Carroll remains steadfast in its mission to prepare students not for school, but for life. St. Peters Health

St. Peter's Health is a not-for-profit health system guided by its mission to improve the health, wellness and quality of life of the people and communities it serves. St. Peter's has a 99-bed acute care hospital (regional medical center), primary and specialty care clinics, cancer care, behavioral health unit, urgent care clinics, home health and hospice care, dialysis clinic and ambulance services. St. Peter's provides care for an estimated 97,000 residents in a five-county area including Lewis and Clark, Broadwater, Powell, Meagher and Jefferson counties.

St. Peter's is a DNV-GL Health Care accredited organization and is the first hospital in Montana to receive the prestigious ISO-9001 quality management certification. St. Peter's is governed by a volunteer board of directors that includes leaders and health experts who serve as fiscal stewards of the community's health care dollars and resources. St. Peter's employs more than 1,800 people, including over 130 physicians and advanced practice providers in more than 20 specialties at locations in Helena and throughout the service area.

St. Peter's is a people-first organization committed to empowering its people to help them grow and thrive. In 2024, St. Peter's relocated its Pete's Place employee child care program from a 2,500-sq.-ft. residential home to a 22,000 sq.-ft. former elementary school building, increasing the amenities in the facility as well as the number of children it can serve. The $3.6 million investment not only supports parents and families, it benefits the community by empowering parents to engage fully at work in their roles because they have quality child care they can rely on.

In 2021, St. Peter's launched The Fred C. Olson Learning and Development Institute, a professional development program that has provided employees with almost $400,000 in donor-funded scholarships through the St. Peter's Health Foundation. St. Peter's employees can apply for these scholarships to receive financial assistance for a variety of continuing education including certifications or degree programs.

St. Peter's is equally committed to donating time and money to community-based services that address key health challenges or improve the health and wellness of its residents. For example, St. Peter's community health workers play a crucial role in Helena's Frequent Users of System Engagement (FUSE) initiative, which works to reduce the need for emergency health care visits and facilitate stable housing for community members. St. Peter's also launched its Mobile Crisis Response Team (MCRT) in 2020 through a partnership with Lewis and Clark County. MCRT works throughout the community alongside local law enforcement to provide mental health crisis intervention services that help community members avoid jail or emergency room visits.

Benefis Health System

Benefis is a nonprofit healthcare system that offers a surgical center, infusion suite, specialty and primary care, home health, imaging, and more in Helena. Benefis, which is based in Great Falls, serves a 42,000-square-mile region with a hospital, senior care, hospice, air ambulance, and rural outreach.

As she looks across the valley from the windows of the Benefis Helena Specialty Center, Teresa Gilbert remembers icy roads, hours spent driving to Great Falls, and the extra costs of travel for her frequent transfusions.

“Sometimes during the winter, I had to cancel when the roads weren’t good. When I had treatment, I was so exhausted by the long day. It got ridiculous,” she said. “It means a lot to have Benefis here.”

Teresa sees Dr. Caroline Aks, an oncologist, to manage a blood disorder, “and it’s going great.”

“I love her. She listens to me. We make a plan, and it works,” she said. “She’s great and very knowledgeable.”

Launched in 2024, the Helena Specialty Center turned an empty lot at a former mall into a beautiful, vibrant medical hub. It expanded care options close to home for Helena and surrounding communities.

Dr. Anthony Russo, medical director of the Benefis Spine Institute, is among the orthopedic surgeons operating in the new center.

“Having a complex spinal condition or injury is a scary situation for patients,” Dr. Russo said. “My team and I understand these conditions and work to educate patients to try and minimize the anxiety that can accompany the treatment process. We do our best to make it less scary.”

Helena’s enthusiasm for Benefis has been heartwarming, said Amy Linder, senior vice president of Provider Practices. “Specialties that people have come to Great Falls for are now closer to home for many of our patients.”

Helena Area Fire Departments

HELENA

Mission Statement: The members of the Helena Fire Department proudly continue the tradition as Guardians of the Gulch, by professionally providing a quality, effective, skillful, safe and caring service to protect our community whenever and wherever needed.

The Helena Fire Department is a proud member of the Lewis and Clark Rural Fire Council and the Tri-County Fire Safe Working Group.

The history of the Helena Fire Department was born simply of necessity and the matter was taken in hand as shown in the aforementioned newspaper articles.

The constant threat of complete destruction by fire of this newly born city made Helena very cognizant of the danger that ultimately did leave it "a heap of ashes." These conflagrations lead to the eventual formation of a part paid, mostly volunteer fire department on December 29, 1872. From its beginnings, the department operated from several stations generally in the area of what is today South Last Chance Gulch. Several years after Helena's incorporation as a city in 1881, the Helena Fire Department moved into the station at the newly built City Hall at Main and State Streets. From that location they protected Helena until that station was destroyed by the 1935 earthquake.

At that time, the Helena Fire Department relocated alongside the Helena Police Department in the A-A Garage at the end of South Main. These buildings formerly housed the trolleys that operated in the area and were also known as the "car barns."

On March 10, 1939, the Helena Fire Department was moved to its current location on the east side of the Civic Center on Neill Ave. This station has been in continuous operation since that time. This main station was remodeled in 1977, expanding its living quarters and providing more office space. With the addition of a second station on the east side of Helena in 1978, the Helena

Fire Department continued to provide the citizens of Helena with protection from fire, but also added response to many other types of emergencies that arise in our community.

EAST HELENA

The East Helena Volunteer Fire Department is the primary fire response agency for the City of East Helena. Consisting of 16 volunteers, they are prepared to respond to both the fire and medical needs of city residents, they are an all volunteer fire department that provides fire suppression, Emergency medical services and many other services to the community and surrounding area.

MONTANA CITY

Letter from the Mayor

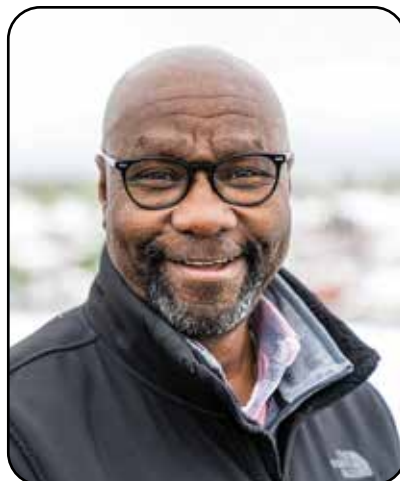

Dear business owners, neighbors, and visitors,

As Mayor of the City of Helena, and on behalf of the City Commission, we are honored to be a partner of the Helena Area Chamber of Commerce. Helena is a community rich with history and tradition. Thanks to the efforts of the Helena Area Chamber and its' many partners, it is also well positioned to prosper into the future.

Helena is a truly unique City, serving as a hub for Montana's government, industry, recreation, and so much more. While it is most widely known as the State Capitol, I like to think that Helena offers a cross-section of everything our great state has to offer.

The Helena Area Chamber and its members are a cornerstone of the growth and vitality in our City. Our small business community has led the revitalization of historic buildings throughout the area. From the 6th Ward to Downtown, our local entrepreneurs are creating exciting, re-imagined spaces that our residents know well, and our visitors are starting to discover.

The work being done with the Helena Regional Airport has also played an important role in furthering the impact of industry and tourism in our region. The continued pursuit of expanded flight service and renovations to the airport facilities are improving Helena's connectivity to the rest of the world.

As we look ahead, I am excited about Helena's future. The City is continuing to strengthen its position to recruit marquee commercial development. Perhaps there is no better window into Helena's future, however, than the renovation and expansion of the Montana Historical Society Museum. This impressive facility will be one of the State's crown jewels. I am excited for Helena to be the place where Montanans come to celebrate their heritage, and the world comes to understand our proud history.

Whether you are from Helena, thinking about moving here, or are just passing through, I hope you get to experience what makes our City so special. If you take a trolley tour through our historic district, check out one of our local breweries, or get lost exploring our public art scene – I trust you will get a better understanding why so many people are proud to call Helena home.

With our history rooted in the gold rush, you should not be surprised to find out that Helena is one of Montana's hidden gems. I am thankful you chose to be part of our story.

Montana Building Assistance Connection

The Montana Business Assistance Connection (MBAC) was created with the expressed purpose of improving the economy and livability of Lewis and Clark, Broadwater, and Meagher counties. We help businesses start up, improve, expand, relocate or transition to new ownership.

MBAC professionals and our key partners (SCORE, SBDC, Job Service, Chamber) mentor businesses. This is done by getting to know the business model, the people involved and specific needs.

We help you identify potential opportunities but at the same time minimize risks. These services prepare your team to obtain financial resources and secure capital.

Winter Activities

Feel the cold on your cheeks and anticipate the hissing of freshly groomed ski trails. Pack your gear and round up family and friends for a day on the slopes at Great Divide Ski Area. This historic ski area is a family-owned and operated facility with over 1,500 skiable acres.

Looking for a more mellow day in the mountains? Grab snowshoes or a fat bike and explore some of our 80 miles of trails starting from the heart of Helena's downtown. Want a little more solitude, drive 12 minutes to the top of the Continental Divide for groomed cross-country trails!

Scenic Routes

Augusta Route Tour is about three hour's drive time away from Helena. Begin this 131-mile tour by driving north on Montana Avenue to Lincoln Road, then take Highway 279. When you get to the sign for Marysville, turn left for a seven-mile side trip to the site of the Drumlummon Mine and surrounding ghost town. Head back down to Highway 279 and proceed northwest to Canyon Creek. Eight miles farther north is Highway 200. Continue on the Augusta Route by turning right on Highway 200. Along the way you will find Flesher and Stemple passes. These passes offer scenery perfect for hikers, photographers and wildflower seekers and provide great opportunities for biking and hiking on side trails. To get to either pass, travel west through Canyon Creek and watch for the Stemple Pass turn off to the left. Stay on the Lincoln Road to the top of the divide to find Flesher Pass.

The Continental Divide offers breathtaking scenery just half an hour away from Helena. These passes offer camping, biking and hiking opportunities. You will cross the Continental Divide again at Rogers Pass soon after the turn from 279. Gravel roads north of Augusta take you to Willow Creek Reservoir, Nilan Reservoir or to Gibson Dam on the Sun River. When you turn back from Augusta, follow Highway 287 all the way to I-15 and head to Wolf Creek. You can exit the Interstate to take a look at Holter Lake and the Missouri River. I-15 takes you up the canyon and all the way back to Helena.

Lincoln Route Tour (130 Miles) To make your loop tour in another direction, begin on 279, as noted on the Augusta route above, but turn left of 279 when you reach Highway 200 from Flesher Pass. As you head toward Lincoln, you'll begin to see the Blackfoot River as it winds its way through this valley. This area is great for snowmobiling, fishing, camping and hiking. Lincoln is a great place to stop for refreshments before continuing on your tour westward on 200. Browns Lake, a designated wildlife viewing area, is further ahead. You can continue on to the small town of Ovando, enjoying your view of the Scapegoat Wilderness to the north. Then backtrack on Highway 200 to the junction with Highway 141 and turn south. This road will take you to the ranching community of Helmville at the foot of the Garnet Range. From Helmville, get back on 141 and make your way through this agricultural valley to the town of Avon on the Little Blackfoot River. You may see beaver slide hay stackers in the fields, unique to this part of the country. Turn left on Highway 12. Stop at the viewpoint at the top of MacDonald Pass for a glorious view of Helena and the surrounding mountains. From the top of the pass, you'll descend swiftly back into Helena.

East Helena 4th of July Celebration

Celebrating our Independence with the people of Helena, East Helena, and the surrounding communities. Enjoy the 4th of July parade and the fireworks display.

East Helena Rodeo - July 12-14

The first East Helena Rodeo held in 1963, was sponsored by the VFW Post 10010. VFW members leveled the land donated for their use by the American Smelting and Refining Company; constructed the first rodeo arena and facilities and produced the first rodeo in the East Helena Valley. In the late 60's, many individuals joined in the efforts to keep a rodeo in East Helena and the East Helena Valley Rodeo Association (EHVRA) was formed.

The East Helena Valley Rodeo Association is made up of volunteers who aspire to see the sport of rodeo continue in the East Helena community. They strive to provide a safe environment for contestants and livestock to compete and display their skills and athleticism. Any profits from the yearly East Helena Valley NRA Rodeo held in July are used for the upkeep of the buildings, arena and the entire rodeo facility located in East Helena. Each year scholarships are awarded to Helena's High School Rodeo Team Members. Donations and sponsorships are also made to many community organizations.

Montana Pride Festival - July 26-Aug 3

Come celebrate 32 years of Big Sky pride in Helena July 26 through August 3 with a variety of networking and celebratory events, including a parade on August 2 in Downtown Helena at 11 a.m.

Part of the fun of Pride is showing that we're really everywhere even when people don't know it. Sometimes you just need a little color, sometimes you need a lot.

For more information or to register for the parade, please visit montanapride.org.

Attractions

Helena has many opportunities to explore the past all while enjoying the new developments of the future. Whether you are interested in a tour, performing arts or getting out for some fun in the sun there is something for everyone.

STATE CAPITOL ROTUNDA

1301 E. 6th Avenue

No trip to Helena is complete without visiting the Montana State Capitol. Situated on 10 acres of spacious lawns, Montan's Capitol looks north over the Prickly Pear valley.

Step inside to discover its history and classical architecture and view the paintings and murals of renowned western artists. Around the stunning rotunda are four round paintings showing four important kinds of people in Montana's early history: the Native American, the explorer, the gold miner and the cowboy. Explore the Capitol on your own with the aid of self-guiding tour booklets and a scavenger hunt for kids. These are available at the information desk on the first floor of the Capitol. The building is open Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Self-guided tour brochures are available on site or at the Montana Historical Society.

CATHEDRAL OF ST. HELENA

530 N Ewing Street • (406) 442-5825 • sthelenas.org

The Cathedral of St. Helena began as a vision founded in faith by Bishop John Carroll and wealthy miner turned banker, Thomas Cruse. According to Louie Gloege, parish business manager for the Cathedral,

Bishop Carroll selected the site for the building after scaling Mt. Helena and surveying the area. He wanted the mother church for the Diocese of Helena to be visible from anywhere in town. The land was purchased in 1905 through a generous contribution by Thomas Cruse. Construction on the cathedral began in 1908. The church wasn't fully completed until June of 1924.

The external building is built with limestone from Bedford, Indiana, considered to be sturdier than Montana sandstone. White marble altars, statues carved in Carrara marble, and genuine gold leaf gilding decorate the sanctuary space. The Cathedral's windows depict intricate scenes of events from the Bible and church history.

LAST CHANCE TOUR TRAIN

225 N. Roberts • (406) 442-1023 • lctours.com

Take a ride aboard the Last Chance Tour Train during its 69th season of operation. You can enjoy historic tours of Helena aboard open-air tour trains. A beautiful and informative tour of the Queen City of the Rockies awaits you. Learn about the discovery of gold in Last Chance Gulch in 1864 to how Helena became the capital city of Montana after a controversial election process.

HISTORIC REEDER'S ALLEY

Downtown Helena • reedersalley.com

Situated in the southwest corner of downtown Helena, Reeder's Alley is the oldest intact piece of early Helena. The year 1864 marked the beginning of a tiny settlement and Helena's transition to a mining boomtown. Four prospectors found gold in a small stream they dubbed "Last Chance." The Pioneer Cabin, just north of the entrance to Reeder's Alley, is the oldest documented dwelling in Helena.

GATES OF THE MOUNTAINS BOAT TOUR

North of Helena • (406) 458-5241 • gatesofthemountains.com

On July 19, 1805, Meriwether Lewis stopped to pen his observations of the Helena area's most awe-inspiring natural attraction—the Gates of the Mountains on the Missouri River just north of Helena. Suddenly, there loomed before them towering rock formations unlike anything they had ever seen. From both sides of the river, limestone cliffs rose to a spectacular height of 1,200 feet. Visitors to the Gates of the Mountains can experience the rising cliffs and mighty river in nearly the same way Lewis and Clark did on their passage through the Missouri River corridor. Two passenger boats embark on guided scenic tours of the area every day beginning May 27.

Disc Golf

If you're looking for a new summer sport, try your hand at Folf, or Frisbee golf. Helena is the birthplace of disc golf in Montana and has more folf courses than any other town in the state. If you're visiting Helena post to the Sleeping Giant Disc Golf Alliance Facebook page and one of the members may be able to join you or at the very least, give you some tips for the course. Or you can email them at thesgdga@gmail.com.

Huckleberry Hollow, 18 holes. There is a temporary course at the top of Priest Pass on National Forest Land called Huckleberry Hollow. Features 18 holes with objects and multiple dirt tee pads. This course is long and very prone to fast weather changes and high wind, so dress accordingly and be prepared for inclement weather. Also, pack sufficient water. Camp anywhere around hole one. Go west out of town toward Missoula. Before MacDonald Pass at the bottom, take a right just after Priest Pass Road sign. Follow Priest Pass Road to the top of the pass. Turn right at the elevation sign that reads 5,994 feet and park in the field. The first hole is the logging road to the right.

Hyzer Hills - Disc Golf Course, 18 holes. Take the South Hills exit off of I-15. Turn right onto Saddle Drive at the round-about. The course is on the south side of Saddle Drive. True folf course with rubber tee pads and basket targets.

Scratch Gravel Hills, 18 holes. From Green Meadow Drive go north to Franklin Mine Road and turn left, go west to Tumbleweed Drive and take a right. The road ends at the course parking lot.

Shady Scratch, 18 holes. Hilly area west of Green Meadow Drive. Go past the turn to Regular Scratch Gravel and proceed north on Green Meadow Drive past the blinking light. Turn left onto Norris Road and follow to turn around in the parking area. Go through wooden gate and veer to the left, follow the trail to hole number 1.

Sheep Mountain, 18 holes. This is a good course for technical players who like shorter holes. Take I-15 south to Clancy. Exit there and take a right. The road splits off to the left, stay on the right and turn right. Follow road up to Sheep Mountain Road. Turn right and go a mile or two and you will see the course as you drive through it.

South Hills, has a good mix of right, left, trees, open, lanes, moderate elevation changes and distances. From I-15: take exit 190 (S. Helena). Turn west and go straight through the roundabout. Halfway up the hill on your left is the course.

Ride on the Pedal Pub Trolley!

During a typical tour, riders can enjoy beer as they travel by pedaling on the trolley, which the website states requires a "low level of exertion." The cart runs on electricity, and pedaling charges it. Each brewery stop lasts about 30 minutes, and riders can bring their purchased drink back on the trolley. DeWolf said snacks and bubbles are encouraged while pedaling.

Celebrating 80 years IN HELENA

Our first office:

Thank you, Helena, for supporting our vision.

Our story begins in a garage in Helena, Montana, circa 1945, where two men, John Morrison and Joe Maierle, shared a vision for modern infrastructure in the American West. There, they built the Morrison-Maierle of today, a 100% employee-owned, professional services consulting firm offering engineering, surveying, planning, technology, and science services.
