Coerver Coaching: THE Technical Camp
- July 18-21
All age levels $95 to $285
Coerver is the largest soccer educational program in the world. It is designed to develop and improve individual player skills through 1v1, small group play and constant repetitions of exercises on and off the training field—which over time leads to consistent individual play, strong technical skills, composure, vision, creativeness, and confidence.
Coerver Coaching is based on the fundamental belief that any system or team is only as good as the individuals that form it. The essence of the Coerver method is ball mastery. All other aspects of the game from receiving and passing to group play flow from that basic building block. While the Coerver Coaching program is relevant to elite players, it is equally appropriate with modifications, to all young players. For more information contact Phil McGovern at info@helenasoccer.org or visit http://helenasoccer.org/camps-clinics/visiting-camps.
