It took this town 20 years to agree on a pronunciation.

Finding the right employee health plan should take no time at all.

Nobody pronounces it Heleena anymore. But back in the 1860s, settling on a pronunciation was a challenge. Kind of like choosing the right health plan for your organization. As members of the Helena Chamber—and unlike national insurers—we know what it takes to run a business here. Which is why our health plans include things like a $500 accident benefit, $0 copays for preventive generic prescription drugs, and access to board-certified doctors over the phone.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR 2017 BOARD CHAIR

Lynn Etchart

It was my honor and privilege to serve as Chair of the Helena Area Chamber of Commerce's Board in 2017.

I was fortunate to have an outstanding Staff and Board, and together we worked to bring value to our local business community.

Our members told us that Legislation, Economic Impact, and Professional and Leadership Development were priorities for the Chamber in 2017. Here are a few of the highlights and successes that "made the Chamber matter more" for business this year:

- Successful lobbying effort at the 2017 Montana Legislature

- With the stellar work of Lobbyist Ronda Wiggers, the chamber lobbied on over 100 bills at this year's session. Our pro-business work makes a difference for all of Helena's businesses.

- Professional Development - Wisdom Wednesdays

The Chamber provided free opportunities for businesses and their employees to learn from some excellent presenters, including: Ray Zinn- longest running Silicon Valley CEO, and author of Tough Things First; Jason Davis/Tim Meldrum - SMA Architects - Making Your Business Shine From Within; Sheriff Leo Dutton - L&C County Sheriff - Live Shooter Do's and Don'ts; and Jaime Sorenes - St. Peter's Hospital - Importance of a Healthy Team.

- Annual Banquet - Over 700 members of the local business community came together to network and celebrate our business community. Instead of our silent auction, we changed things up to auction "chair" packages sponsored by local businesses.

- Leadership Development - Leadership Helena - This marks the 34th year of the Chamber's outstanding program with 34 professionals completing the nine-month program, which includes leadership training, as well as opportunities to meet and hear from local business and government leaders.

- Economic Impact - Another successful SWISH Tournament with 120-130 teams was held in 2017. The SWISH is the oldest youth basketball tournament in Montana, and has an annual impact to the local economy of $750,000 to $1 million.

- Publications that make a difference for Helena - Vacation/Relocation Guide (25,000 copies), Helena Street Map (10,000 copies), Business 2 Business Connection Magazines (2X a year - 5000 copies), Trends Report - data guide (2500 copies), Tear-off maps (2500), and many information sources via our website, e-blasts, and more.

The Helena Area Chamber had a very successful year in 2017! Thank you to all who work for and support our local businesses.

Best wishes,
Lynn Etchart, 2017 Board Chair

A MESSAGE FROM OUR 2018 BOARD CHAIR

Jason Davis

First, a word of thanks and gratitude to our 2017 Board Chair, Lynn Etchart, for her wisdom and leadership this past year. Lynn did a tremendous job moving the board and entire Chamber of Commerce forward on a long list of priorities in 2017. Thank you Lynn!

Building upon Lynn's leadership and successes in 2017, I look forward to the opportunity to serve as the 2018 Helena Area Chamber of Commerce Board Chair. Over the past year we have met with many of our member businesses and have asked them all, "what are your top three business challenges you are currently facing?" Based on the feedback we received, here are some of the key points that I feel will make the chamber matter more... to the members, to future members & generations, and to the greater Helena Community:

- Workforce Development: By far, the biggest business challenge currently facing our members. All businesses are having challenges with recruitment and retention of skilled workers. Along with that, the affordable housing and transportation challenges of Helena are exacerbating this challenge. The Chamber plans to focus a lot of effort towards helping our businesses with this challenging issue.

- Chamber's Education Committee and Outreach: We will continue to work to address career path readiness and career choices that will enable Helena students to start working towards meaningful and needed workforce gaps in the Helena and Montana economies.

- Making our events and activities appealing to ALL generations: Our Chamber will matter more and be more effective, if our young professionals are also engaged and participating in Chamber events and activities. One example is making our After Hours Events take place from 4-6 so younger generations can make this work with families and other obligations. In addition, we are discussing the possibility of focused business learning opportunities as a part of the Business After Hours.

- Strengthening ties with City and County Government: The Chamber members offer a large voice in the City and County Government policies and we will work with locally elected officials to cultivate pro-business and business responsible policies for the Helena area communities.

Although the Chamber cannot solve all of the above challenges on our own, we are committed to be a leader in the community discussion. Working together, we can achieve great things! I believe 2018 will see the Chamber make great progress in work that will directly help our businesses to succeed, grow and prosper. Please give me a call if you'd like to be a part of this exciting agenda!

Jason M. Davis, 2018 Board Chair

Why do you serve on the board and what do you like about serving?

"One of the things I love about Helena is that so many people volunteer, donate, serve on Boards, and give back to the community. I serve on the Chamber Board - and on other non-profit Boards - because it is my responsibility as a citizen of Helena to help make this the best community possible - and that means helping local businesses, schools, healthcare, government, and so many more aspects of what makes Helena a great place to live. I like serving on the Chamber Board because of the businesses and people I have gotten to know, and the issues we have tackled together. I believe that the Chamber makes a difference for our community, and it's good to be a part of that effort."

My favorite event would have to be Intermountain's Festival of Trees because of the mission of Intermountain and their passion and commitment to betterment of children's lives. Grandstreet Theatre's Christmas show is one of my favorite events. Regardless of the production, to witness the talent and excitement in the young actors is an amazing experience and always gets me in the holiday spirit. We are so lucky to live and work in a community which values the arts!

What is the best benefit of the Chamber for business?
"The best benefit that the Chamber provides for my business and others is their advocacy for each and every business in Helena and the surrounding area. What is the best benefit of the Chamber for businesses?

"The chamber has many benefits, but the best benefit is the support it provides to local businesses. The chamber is always the voice pushing and supporting local businesses. The chamber is the network connecting people with local businesses. The chamber is the support helping new businesses gets their name into the community. The list goes on and on, but local businesses rely on the Helena community and the chamber is the building block that helps support this."

Janet Hedges
Raymond James Financial

What is your favorite event in Helena and why?

I would say the Salute to Women Luncheon would be my favorite event for a number of reasons. First of all it celebrates strong women who make a significant contribution to benefit others in our community. The second reason I love the event is that it is a fundraiser for the Soroptimist Club of Helena and American Business Women's Association. Both clubs work to improve the lives of women and girls through mentoring and educational opportunities. This in turn helps create new female leaders in our community. Finally the luncheon provides an opportunity to commune with fellow business leaders who all share the same vision of celebrating women who make a difference.

Kevin Poulin

What is the best benefit of the Helena Chamber for businesses?

The best benefit of being a member of the Helena Chamber is that you have an organizational partner that can help to promote your business, facilitate opportunities for leadership development, and promote workforce development strategies. "One of the biggest benefits of membership in the Helena Area Chamber of Commerce is the networking that comes with being a member. The ability to share ideas with one another at Chamber meetings and events and stay connected to the community is vital to a business' success. It gives us the opportunity to learn from each other, enter into cooperative efforts and most importantly, to develop relationships throughout the local Helena area business landscape and the whole community. Certainly a valuable resource and a worthwhile investment!"

Maureen Oelkers

What is your favorite place to take visitors?

"The Capitol because its beauty and history. Also, Mount Helena for the spectacular view of the Helena area. Oh, the Parrot because I grew up hanging out there with all my buddies. Of course the Cathedral and all of its "AWE" because I was baptized, made my first communion, confirmed and married there. Also, raised my kids in the church.

Andres Haladay (Ex-officio)

What is your favorite place to take visitors and why?

My favorite place to take visitors is Last Chance Gulch. It's a great way to show off Helena's history and the myriad of small businesses that form the core of our Downtown.

Sharon Hastings

What is your favorite thing about Helena?

"I love the location of Helena and how it is nestled into the mountains. The close proximity to the local mountain biking and hiking trails, the community ski hill of Great Divide, the groomed cross country ski trails at the top of MacDonald Pass and the many different waters that surround us make this community priceless in my mind. The dedication and commitment of the people that care for and work to preserve these outdoors is inspiring."

2017 Chamber Business of the Year Radisson Colonial Hotel

The Radisson Colonial Hotel is an icon of the Helena Community that was built in 1971. It has had new owners since 2012 and boasts some amazing stats that make it an award winning business. They host 2200 conferences and events per year and recently invested millions to update and make it very upscale. The hotel employs more than 100 people and services 150 guest rooms along with 18,000 square feet of flexible event space, which is the most in Helena with 15 conference rooms.

The Radisson also stands out as an employer by providing lunch/dinner to all employees during their shift and have parties for staff two times a year. But their generosity doesn't stop there, as they host twice a year the Lost and Foundation, an organization that raises money for needs in the community, they participate in Festival of the Trees, they host a disadvantaged family for Christmas including presents, donate to the Lewis and Clark Humane Society and participate in food drives.

Their recent renovation left only the grand staircase as an original feature, with renovations being done by local businesses.

Terry Gauthier

Terry Gauthier owns two businesses and employs 90-100 people and is a big supporter of local events and organizations such as 4-H, Big Brothers Big Sisters, Intermountain, Lewis and Clark Humane Society, Prickly Pear Land Trust, Boy Scouts, YWCA, NAMI, Helena Food Share, Governor's Cup, SWISH Tournament, Toys for Tots and Helena Education Foundation. He is a former Marine with 22 years of service. As a retirement option, he and his wife bought their businesses in Helena and made this their home. Because it is important to him that his employees earn a livable wage, he was the first of his industry to offer a starting wages of $12-$13 per hour to address that and help with workforce shortages experienced in Helena. A couple of years ago, this businessman stepped up to give business a voice in the Montana legislature and was successful in becoming a Senator for the Helena area.

Broadwater Hot Springs & Fitness

Broadwater Hot Springs and Fitness has had an amazing transformation recently by new owners who had a grand vision of what this business could become. Having a great respect for the Helena Community and roots that date back to their great grandparents, the owners took a leap of faith and purchased this business and have invested hundreds of thousands of dollars to make it the stellar business it is today. The transformation of Broadwater Hot Springs and Fitness -- not only within its original intent, but in adding greatly to the services, amenities and even the addition of a restaurant and bar -- is the perfect example of a business investing in Helena to improve our quality of life. Owners Scott, Chris and John have not only made the Springs into a top notch health and spa club but also a destination for visitors and locals alike to enjoy a warm soak, a great sandwich and a relaxing drink. The transformation has made all the pools, the locker rooms, and facilities top quality. The former racquet ball courts were changed into an upscale bar and grill with great food, beer and wine where you can go to soak and sip or just unwind from a long day. Tourists are welcome and can enjoy the rejuvenating waters along with the amenities.

SWISH Tournament

You don't need to have a young athlete in the family to see the impact of the Helena Area Chamber of Commerce's annual Youth SWISH Basketball Tournament.

With 123 teams averaging eight players each competing in 11 area gymnasiums, the 2017 event brought about 984 children from throughout Montana to Helena. The coaches, referees, volunteers, parents and fans that came with them pushed that number well over 4,500.

For the participating youngsters, the event is a chance to hone their skills in a friendly competition with their peers from across the state.

For the local economy, those spending their money at local hotels, restaurants and stores produce an estimated economic impact of close to $1 million.

The 23rd annual tournament is scheduled for March 10-11, 2018, and registration forms are available at helenachamber.com.

For more information or to volunteer, contact the chamber's Vice President Mike Mergenthaler at 406-447-1941.

Your Helena  Public Schools
...a great place to learn

Helena Public Schools thanks the Helena Area Chamber of Commerce and the business community for supporting the school bond and the construction of three new elementary schools in Helena.

Construction of the new schools will begin in Spring 2018. We are excited about the opening of these new 21st century schools in the 2019-20 school year.

We value our partnership with the Helena business community and appreciate your support.

Thank you!

36 Years of Success - Class of 2018

As evidenced by its flagship Leadership Helena program, the Helena Area Chamber of Commerce is about much more than meetings and cocktail dinners.

In fact, those selected to complete the eight-month program are probably more likely to end up blindfolded amid a stuffed-animal minefield or singing karaoke in a tinsel wig as part of a training exercise.

The chamber selects just over 30 Helena-area business leaders to participate in the program, which kicks off in September each year with an overnight retreat at a secluded ranch north of town. The participants then meet up once a month at various locations throughout town to complete training and tours and learn more about what makes Helena tick.

The chamber will begin accepting applications for the class of 2018-19 in June 2018. For more information, contact Vice President Mike Mergenthaler at 447-1941 or download an application from the Chamber's website at www.helenachamber.com/leadershiphelena.

"I am so honored to have been able to attend the program, meet new people, and learn so much about our community. I feel much more comfortable with community activities and my network of friends I met and still meet with."

Melissa Huntington, Reach Higher Montana

"The Leadership Helena program provided an invaluable experience for me, both personally and professionally. It is an excellent learning opportunity and instrumental resource for professionals."

"Leadership Helena is an excellent networking opportunity within the Helena community. The leadership training helped me make difficult decisions to meet my professional goals while balancing them with personal goals."

Boss of the Year Sara Medley takes personal interest in her staff

Erin Loranger, Independent Record

October 16, 2017

Sara Medley was taking her staff on a walking meeting Monday morning when an employee suggested they take a detour through the basement to move a bookcase. Instead, Medley, CEO of Mountain-Pacific Quality Health, was surprised by dozens of her employees and representatives of the Helena Area Chamber of Commerce, who were waiting to present her with the 2017 Boss of the Year Award. Medley said it couldn't have been more unexpected.

"That's why I'm wearing these stupid tennis shoes," she said.

She said the award was one of the most humbling moments of her career. Medley thanked her staff and said the award really belongs to them.

"You make my life truly worth living and make the lives of those we serve better," Medley said to her staff.

Jason Davis, who presented the award on behalf of the Chamber, said the competition was steep this year. But Medley stood out from the pack after an outpouring of feedback from her staff, who called her motivating and wonderful woman, and said she takes a personal interest in each one of her employees. ...

Several area Chamber members and business leaders were featured in news articles produced by the Independent Record. Here is a sampling of some of the highlights of the year.

Lewis and Clark Brewing Co. unveils completed expansion

Erin Loranger, Independent Record

August 6, 2017

Lewis & Clark Brewing Company celebrated the completion of a $9 million expansion project with a ribbon cutting ceremony by Gov. Steve Bullock and Mayor Jim Smith on Friday.

Bullock said the 15-month expansion project is just one example of healthy entrepreneurship in the state. There are 68 breweries in Montana providing more than 700 jobs, which results in approximately $100 million in economic output, he said.

"It's an exciting time across Montana," he said. "This is an incredible success story."

The new brewery, which is adjacent to the existing location, will triple production with advanced technology. Owner Max Pigman said he'd been looking for a way to expand for several years, but available property would have put him in the Helena Valley or Montana City. When he got the chance to buy adjacent property and petition the city for the sale of part of Dodge Street, the project became a reality.

"We really wanted to stay in our home neighborhood," he said.

At the old brewery, Lewis and Clark could fill 25 cans per minute. New equipment allows them to fill 250 cans. The technology will also give cans an extra six weeks of shelf life.

Pigman said they built the new space with the option for even more future expansion.

"We don't have to do anything but buy a tank and brew to increase production," he said.

The new space will be used to produce core products such as Prickly Pear Pale Ale, which will now be available in a 12 pack, while the old space will brew beers called "The Expedition Series." Pigman said customers will have more access to seasonals, barrel aged beers and sours.

Hot new springs: Broadwater opens with pools, grill, taproom and outdoors atmosphere

Erin Loranger, Independent Record

July 9, 2017

What used to be three racquetball courts is now a taproom and grill at Broadwater Hot Springs and Fitness.

John Rosa and brothers Chris and Scott Johnson bought the athletic club in 2015 and have spent the last two years adding a restaurant and renovating the majority of the space.

"There's not any other hot springs in town," Chris Johnson said. "From that perspective it's real easy to see that this facility needed to take another direction. It didn't survive as an athletic club."

Now customers can pay a day-use fee for any of the pools, sauna and steam room and the fitness center. The new taproom has a garage door that opens up into the pool area to allow people to easily go back and forth to order food and drinks. Since all beer and wine is served in plastic cups, people are allowed to have drinks while they're in the pool. The Springs Taproom and Grill menu includes pizza, burgers and other bar food. There are 19 beers on tap with three rotating. People can also choose from three tap wines.

The interior of the restaurant has tables made from the floor of the racquetball court, reclaimed wood, old railroad tracks and ties and photos of the historic Hotel Broadwater and Natatorium.

St. Peter's new CEO: 'The patient must be at the center of all we do'

Lacey Middelstead for the Independent Record

In his first three months as CEO, Wade Johnson has worked diligently to get a feel for the staff and providers of St. Peter's as well as the overall environment of the organization. Every day, he makes time to get on the front line of care, visiting with laundry workers and facility engineers to physicians and nurses. He has also honed a listening ear to gain awareness of current issues within the community, and pairs it with his knowledge of the impending changes in the health care industry.

Moving forward, Johnson plans to lead St. Peter's through a transformation that will elevate the standard of health care delivery to a place where all Montanans can be proud.

According to Johnson, this will require St. Peter's to challenge the way it does its work—starting at the top. Recently, St. Peter's board of directors redesigned the organization's governance structure to better support the complex system of services that St. Peter's now offers, while also giving the organization the flexibility to thrive in the face of significant industry change.

This resulted in a new name for the organization—St. Peter's Health—and the creation of a St. Peter's Health board to focus on the long-term, strategic priorities of the organization, along with operating boards for the hospital and one for the physician clinics that will focus on quality and performance. An additional six physicians have been added to these boards, a move Johnson believes will lead to better outcomes for patients while building a stronger operational foundation to attract top medical talent.

St. Peter's plans to roll out the new St. Peter's Health brand in January 2018

Benny's Bistro changes ownership after 21 years Feb. 5, 2017

Erin Loranger, Independent Record

After 21 years of building her brand of serving local and seasonal food, Margaret Corcoran is selling Benny's Bistro to someone with years of kitchen experience.

"It's time for new energy," Corcoran said. The new owner, Eric Potuzak, is new to business ownership but has extensive kitchen experience. He started working as a dishwasher when he was 14. Since then, he's worked at various restaurants, attended culinary school in Las Vegas and, most recently, ran the kitchen at the Radisson Colonial Hotel....

A HIGHER STATE OF CARE STARTS HERE. AND IT STARTS TODAY.

St. Peter's Hospital is now St. Peter's Health, but a new name and logo are just the beginning. We're building upon our rich history to raise the bar, not only in healing people when they're sick, but also as a trusted partner in keeping them well. We're bringing in more expert physicians, expanding our services and renewing our commitment to southwest Montana. And the best part is—we're just getting started. This is the new St. Peter's Health. This is a higher state of care.
