The world watched in amazement as 60 Minutes recently showcased a revolutionary technology with the potential to transform medicine. We saw a machine that could be a cure for some of the most devastating diseases of our time: Parkinson's, addiction, and Alzheimer's. This isn't a distant hope; this is a reality being used in clinical trials right now.

Imagine a future where no family must face the slow, agonizing decline of Alzheimer's. A world where addiction can be treated at its source. Where the tremors of Parkinson's become a memory.

Imagine a device in every hospital making this life-changing treatment accessible to all.
