

The Arthur Christian girls' basketball got their first win of the season at home over Oakwood,

The win improved the Conquering Riders to 1-1 on the season.

Arthur's Alexa Franklin had a game-high 28 points to go along with 5 rebounds and 4 steals. She hit four of eight from behind the arc and was four for four from the free throw line.

Arthur Christian hit 8 of their 17 three-point attempts.

Murray State commit Katelyn Young led Oakwood with 20 points.

Arthur's Chloe Tiarks, who is six inches shorter than Young, guarded the six-footer most of the game. Despite Young's 20 points, Oakwood struggled getting the ball to Young most of the game. Tiarks had 5 rebounds and three steals.

Arthur's senior duo of Lindsey Mast and Lyla Kauffman did a great job defensively on the perimeter, making Oakwood passes to Young difficult. Mast finished with 5 points and 3 steals and Kauffman hit two three pointers to finish with 6 points.

Points by Quarter:

Arthur = $11 + 15 + 11 + 5 = 42$

Oakwood = $10 + 7 + 9 + 9 = 35$

Arthur Christian box score:

Alexa Franklin 10-4-28 (4 - 3 pt, 5 rebounds, 4 steals)

Lyla Kauffman 2-0-6 (2 - 3 pt)

Lindsey Mast 2-0-5 (1 - 3 pt)

Alexis Cutler 1-0-3 (1 - 3 pt)

Keisha Miller 0-0-0

Chloe Tiarks 0-0-0 (5 rebounds, 3 steals)

Isabel Dolan 0-0-0

Oakwood box score:

Denius 1-1-3

Wells 0-0-0

Rupp 1-0-2

Wright 2-1-5

Cox 0-0-0

Pinnick 2-0-5 (1 - 3 pt)

Young 9-2-20