

Arcola/ALAH won the Tuscola Invitational today at Ironhorse Golf Course. The format was two man teams.

There were seven boys teams at the event which consisted of 6 hole segments of best ball, scramble, and modified alternate shot. The team shot a 152 which was 18 shots clear of 2nd place.

The team of Dallas Sisk and Alex Kuhns received trophies for the lowest team shooting a 1 over par 73. Derek Tuttle and Jacob Butler were the 3rd lowest team shooting a 79. Brayden Kauffman and Aaron Seegmiller shot an 82.

The team will be back in action vs. Clinton and Okaw Valley at Eagle Creek Golf course.