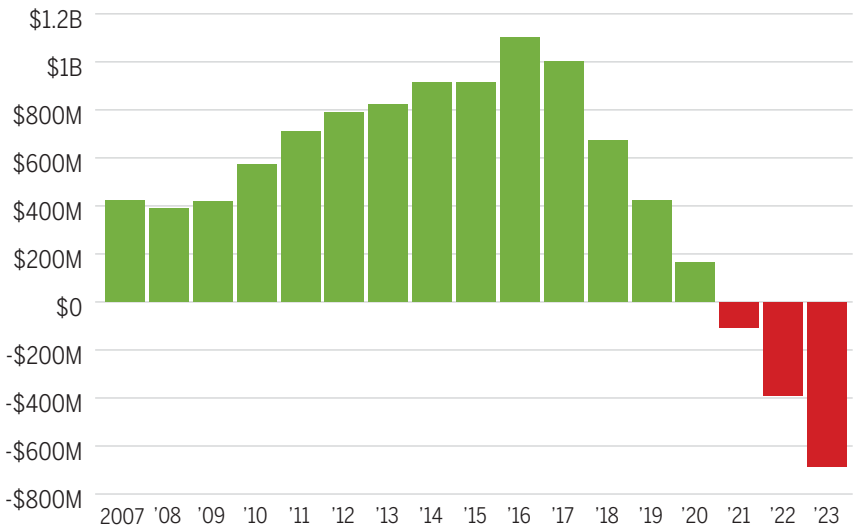
Illinois Road Fund balance

Even when Illinois' road fund held a balance of more than $1 billion in 2016, the Illinois Department of Transportation was struggling to keep up with road maintenance. After lawmakers voted in July to take $300 million out every year going forward for nonroad-related costs, policy experts calculate the road fund will be depleted in just a few years.



Source: Transportation for Illinois Coalition

Lee Enterprises graphic