

Does anyone remember us?

By NECIA P. SEAMONS
Citizen editor

Who are these young men?
Their photos were found at the Franklin County Court House recently and passed on to Claudia Erickson in hopes that she could identify them. Erickson writes historical columns for The Preston Citizen, and is the secretary of the Franklin County

Historical Society.
To date, she has been able to visit with three 90-plus year-olds in the county who might know who these young men are. The photo with the Henderson name tag is Lyle Henderson. He was in the ROTC and has no idea how his picture would have end up in this group.
Anyone with clues as to who these young men are, is requested to contact The Citizen at 208-852-

0155 or a member of the Franklin County Historical Society (Erickson, Jeff Olson, Myrna Fuller, Ann Moedl, Elliott Larsen and Julie Waldron). We would love to share their stories with our readers.
One thing for sure, these men played a part in protecting the Constitutional freedoms endowed on the citizens of the United States through their service.