City Question 1 City of North Branch 0.5% Sales Tax for Road Pavement Program and Park Improvements
Should the City of North Branch request the Minnesota State legislature to authorize the City to enact a 0.5% (eg. 5 cents on $10.00) general sales tax on taxable sales of goods and services as currently applied within the City for a term of up to 25 years from the date of first collection thereof with 80% of revenue dedicated to funding the City's Road Pavement Management Program, for purposes including paving gravel roads and reconstructing or overlaying existing paved streets, and 20% of revenue dedicated to funding the construction of improvement at Williams Park up to $2,500,000, after which 100% of revenue will be dedicated to funding the Road Pavement Management Program?
A "Yes" vote means you favor the city of North Branch requesting authority to enact a 0.5% sales tax dedicated to fund the Road Pavement Management Program and improvements at Williams Park.
A "no" vote means you do not favor the city of North Branch requesting authority to enact a 0.5% sales tax dedicated to fund the Road Pavement Management Program and improvements at Williams Park.
