

Many enjoy the Chisago County Fair

The Chisago County Fair was held July 18-21 at the fairgrounds in Rush City. There were plenty of 4-H exhibits and open class projects on display for fair-goers to enjoy. There was plenty of judging including entries in the goat, poultry swine, horse, rabbit categories and more.

Cambridge Ambassadors Alivia Good, Ali Simonson, and Aften Sandquist enjoy the Chisago County Fair parade.

Anna Speltz with the North Stars 4-H Club received the Grand Champion Purple Ribbon for this entry in the Shooting Sports classification.

Photos by Jorge Perales

There were a plethora of pile-ups during the Demolition Derby on July 20.

These two youngsters play around in the corn pit during the Chisago County Fair.

As always, beautiful photography was on display in the exhibition buildings during the Chisago County Fair.

Preparing animals for show is a full-time job for animal owners during the Chisago County Fair.

Members of the Rush City High School Marching Band provide entertaining music during the July 20 parade.

There was plenty of smoke in the area during the Demolition Derby on July 20.

The swings are always a fun attraction on the midway.

Photos by Jorge Perales

There were fun fashions on display during the 4-H Style Show.

There were smiles all around during the Chisago County Fair.

Beautiful wood working pieces were on display in the exhibition buildings.

The Braham Ambassadors wave to the crowd gathered for the July 20 parade.