

Thousands attend Cambridge Customer Appreciation Event in downtown Cambridge

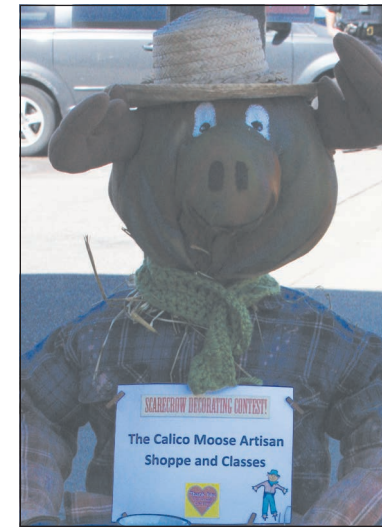

Thousands lined up for free hot dogs and brats served by volunteers at the Cambridge Customer Appreciation Event held Friday, Sept. 17, in downtown Cambridge. Photos by Nikki Hallman

Volunteers from different businesses and organizations served many people from the community who attended the event.

Anytime Fitness drew a crowd with their gorilla mascot.

The Calico Moose Artisan Shoppe and Classes was the first place winner in the scarecrow contest.

Children were able to stop and pet the miniature horses.

The Mincco Magic Show was a big hit during the event.

The Isanti County Miniature Horse Project brought miniature horses to the Cambridge Customer Appreciation event for people to enjoy.

Members of the Polaris Battalion U.S. Navy Sea Cadet Corps attended the event and had games for kids to play.

Culver's brought games, prizes and served custard to attendees.

Chuck Swanson State Farm Insurance was the second place winner in the scarecrow contest.

Balloon artist Ms. Jazee made balloon animals and flowers for children to enjoy.

Many kids laughed as they successfully dunked other kids.

Affinity Plus brought a wheel to spin and gave away different prizes.

Onlookers gathered when they heard the engine revving of a Chevrolet pick-up.

This beaming 1971 Dodge Charger caught the attention of many people that attended the event.

The Leader was the third place winner in the scarecrow contest.

Face painting was available for kids.

Mini doughnuts and kettle corn were a hit at the Customer Appreciation Event.

Eben and Barb Gillespie were one of the five performers at the Customer Appreciation Event.

Jim and Ginnie Richardson showcase their unique 1930 Ford Pickup during the classic car show.

Kids enjoy the bouncy houses during the Customer Appreciation event.

The Customer Appreciation Event brought around 2,200 people to downtown Cambridge.

The miniature horses and donkey were walked through the event.