

Braham Girl Scout hosts Zombie Color Run/Walk

Girl Scouts and other participants prepare for the Zombie 5K/Walk Color Run held Oct. 2 at Braham High School.

Participants ended the sixth annual Zombie Color Run 5K/Walk filled with color during the event hosted by the Braham Girl Scouts on Saturday, Oct. 2.

Photos by Nikki Hallman

Everyone threw color in the air for the big finale.

Many people couldn't avoid being covered in color.

Girl Scout Leader and Braham Mayor Tish Carlson joined by Tracey Brewer and Angie Flowers.

White shirts were no longer visible after walking through the red and blue colored station.

Kids smiled as they participated in the color run

Girl Scouts were surprised about the bright red color they were covered with.

Some people were very excited to go through the first color station.

Ashton Schulz finished the run covered in color.

Even the youngest kids were filled with color.

Bright pink was a popular color most people wanted to be covered in.

Even the zombies became covered in color.