

North Branch Chamber of Commerce celebrates business anniversaries

by Nikki Hallman

nicole.hallman@apgecm.com

Many North Branch businesses recently celebrated their anniversaries with the North Branch Chamber of Commerce.

At the North Branch Chamber of Commerce Luncheon held Tuesday, Dec. 14, Chamber Administrator Shelby Rollins announced the businesses that have been with the chamber for five years or more. Those businesses are:

- 95 printing – five years.
- BJ Baas Builders Inc. – 10 years.
- North Branch Physical Therapy – 10 years.
- North Folk Winery – 10 years.
- Spring Lake Lutheran Church – 15 years.
- A & K Construction – 20 years.
- Chisago County Historical Society – 20 years.
- Domino's – 20 years.
- Jimmy's Johnnys – 20 years.
- Karl's TV Audio and Appliance – 20 years.
- Maytag – 20 years.
- North Branch Golf Course – 20 years.
- North Metro Signs – 20 years.
- NorthBrook Church – 20 years.
- Provide Care – 20 years.
- Q-Media – 20 years.
- Uptown Maple Commons – 20 years.

Rollins also mentioned board members that will be leaving this year and honored their commitment by presenting them with a plaque. Those board members leaving are:

- Jim Antolik – RE/MAX Results.
- Charlie Hult – Lampert Lumber.
- Jay Reed – Viking Cola.
- Jenelle Boyce – Benjamin Franklin.

Casey Wright (left) and Charlie Hult of Maytag.

Julie Anderson and Rich Anderson of Jimmy's Johnnys.

Ann Tessneer and Mike Tessneer of North Folk Winery.

Bailey Loftman and Paul Grundhauser of Karl's TV, Audio and Appliances.

Janet Gellerman of Q-Media.

North Branch Chamber of Commerce Administrator Shelby Rollins (left) with Charlie Hult receiving his plaque as an appreciated board of director and treasurer who will be leaving the board.

Colleen Rod of Provide Care Inc.

North Branch Chamber of Commerce Administrator Shelby Rollins (left) with Jenelle Boyce of Benjamin Franklin, receiving his plaque as an appreciated board of director and chamber of events team member who will be leaving the board.

Jim Antolik of RE/MAX receiving his plaque as an appreciated board of director who will be leaving the board.

Samantha Brannen (left) and Mark Netzing of North Branch Physical Therapy.

Dennis Johnson of North Branch Golf Course.