

Many enjoy this year’s annual Hayride 4 Food Drive

The Isanti County 4-H Miniature Horse program attended the Hayride 4 Food Drive and brought miniature horses that were decorated with costumes.

Tractors were ready for this year’s annual Hayride 4 Food Drive held at the Bruce and Barb Bloomgren farm, located just north of Cub Foods in Cambridge.

Photos by Nikki Hallman

Two beautiful horses led one of the hayrides.

A Cambridge firefighter showed the inside of a fire truck to (pictured from left) Harper Sowada, Gage Sowada and Mackenzie Sowada.

Many people patiently waited for the next hayride.

Kids were able to sit or climb inside an open silo.

Glitter tattoos and face painting was a hit at the event.

The horse drawn hayride was a popular attraction.

A silent auction was held and donations were accepted at the event. Donations will be given to the local unit of the Salvation Army and the First Baptist Church Food Pantry in Cambridge.

Six bikes were donated for prizes, given by the nonprofit organization, “Bikes 4 Kids.”

People sat on hay bales as they prepare for a hayride.