

Many attend Cambridge's annual Lighted Snowflake Parade

Braham Fire and Rescue made sure to decorate their vehicle with Christmas lights for the Snowflake Parade.

Isanti County Beyond the Yellow Ribbon that helps support veterans in the community wave to the crowd during the annual Cambridge Lighted Snowflake Parade on Nov. 20. Photos by Nikki Hallman

Many people in the community attended the annual Christmas tree lighting located at the corner of Main Street and Highway 95 in Cambridge.

The Grinch, Olaf the snowman and many more characters rode in a float with presents under the Christmas tree.

Lakeville's Pan-O-Program had a very patriotic float during the Snowflake Parade.

Anoka Ambassadors decorated their float with a classic Halloween theme to represent the city.

Pine City Ambassadors ride retro snowmobiles in the Snowflake Parade.

The Maple Lake float included a big three leaf clover.

The Cambridge Fire Department did not disappoint as the entire fire truck shined brightly with lights.

Cambridge Ambassadors were all smiles they rode in their hometown parade.

St. Michael Ambassadors smile as they sit on a bright castle.