

Fun had by all at First Baptist Church fall carnival

First Baptist Church in Cambridge offered hammerschlagen and other activities outside at their fall carnival held Saturday, Nov. 13.

Photos by Nikki Hallman

Many games were available at the fall carnival and many enjoyed playing mini golf.

Kids were excited as they got their faces painted.

Olivia Erickson was excited as she prepared to jump in a bouncy house.

Kids were surprised as they watched a magician perform tricks.

Ring toss was a fun game kids lined up to play.

There were many kids that waited in line to make their way through the indoor bouncy house.

Horse rides were a fun outside activity many enjoyed.

Volunteer Kyle Willette (pictured left) assisted as Scarlett and Elsie Macdonald played basketball.

The fall carnival activities included balloon animals. Many people waited in line to get a cool animal.

Apple basket upset was a popular game for the kids. If they made a bean bag into a basket without spilling the apples, they could win a prize or candy.

Food trucks were available outside at the fall carnival.