Director of Athletics Barry Alvarez

Barry Alvarez is entering his ninth year as Director of Athletics at the University of Wisconsin and seventh without the additional title of head football coach. Alvarez served as A.D. and football coach from 2004-05.

Wisconsin has enjoyed remarkable success during Alvarez's tenure at the head of the athletic department, winning a combined 16 team national titles and 37 conference regular-season or tournament crowns since he took over.

In Alvarez's eight previous seasons as A.D., Wisconsin has finished at least 22nd in the NACDA Director's Cup five times, including a 16th-place finish in 2006-07. That is the second-best finish in school history. Six different teams have won national titles during Alvarez's tenure, including four in the magical 2005-06 season. Ten different teams have been crowned as conference champions, including five in each of the 2005-06, 2006-07 and 2007-08 seasons.

On the academic side, more than 1,000 student-athletes have earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in Alvarez' eight-year tenure. In 2011-12, seven sports recorded their highest team grade-point averages for either the fall or spring terms.

Alvarez was appointed in the spring of 2008 as one of the chairs of the NCAA's Football Academic Enhancement Group, which was formed to review and recommend improvements for the APR rating. He also serves on the NCAA Football Issues Committee. In addition, Alvarez was named "Person of the Year" by the Big Ten Club of Southern California in 2008. Alvarez was voted into the state of Wisconsin Athletic Hall of Fame and the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 2009 and was inducted into the UW Athletics Hall of Fame in 2010.

Recently elected to the College Football Hall of Fame, Alvarez guided Wisconsin's football fortunes for 16 seasons (1990-2005). He has been at the forefront of the revival of the Badger athletic program during his entire tenure in Madison. He piloted Wisconsin to three Big Ten and Rose Bowl titles (including back-to-back in 1998-99) en route to becoming the winningest football coach in school history (118-73-4 record).

Alvarez was just the 10th coach in Big Ten history to win 100 games at one conference institution. His 8-3 (.727) record in bowl games with the Badgers is the best in college football history (among coaches with at least 11 bowl appearances). The 1993 national coach of the year, he was a two-time (1993 and 1998) Big Ten coach of the year and a finalist for ESPN's coach of the decade (1990s) honor. He received the Victor Award's 1999

National Coach of the Year accolade and was the 2004 AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year.

Alvarez retired from coaching at the conclusion of the 2005 season in order to concentrate solely on running the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics. He has made a lasting impression on the Wisconsin sports scene. His well-documented turnaround of the once-moribund Badger football program has helped to allow the school's entire athletic department to blossom into one of the nation's finest and most respected organizations in college sports.

When Alvarez arrived in Madison in 1990, Wisconsin had compiled a 9-36 record during the previous four seasons and attendance at Camp Randall Stadium had dipped to an average of 41,734 per game (54 percent of capacity). The program sorely needed a boost and got it when new Director of Athletics Pat Richter hired Alvarez from Notre Dame, where he had been an assistant coach under Lou Holtz.

Over the next 16 seasons Alvarez transformed the football program and, subsequently, the culture of athletics at the UW. The success of the football program ignited and heightened interest in Badger sports. Alvarez's list of accomplishments at Wisconsin is remarkable. Consider just a few of the most notable ...

- winningest coach in school history (record of 118-73-4, .615)
- highest bowl winning percentage of all-time (8-3, .727)
- coached three Big Ten and Rose Bowl champions
- only Big Ten coach ever to win the Rose Bowl in consecutive seasons
- just the 10th coach in Big Ten history with 100 victories at one conference institution
- coached five national award winners, including Ron Dayne (Heisman, Doak Walker, Maxwell), Jamar Fletcher (Jim Thorpe) and Kevin Stenke (Ray Guy)
- guided UW to back-to-back Big Ten titles in 1998 and 1999 (hadn't happened at Wisconsin since 1896-97)
- coached the four of the five winningest teams in school history
- named national coach of the year in 1993; Big Ten Coach of the Year in 1993 and 1998; Victor Award's 1999 National Coach of the Year; and 2004 AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year.

Alvarez's coaching career began at the high school level. He served as an assistant at Lincoln (Neb.) Northeast High from 1971-73 before taking over as head coach at Lexington (Neb.) High from 1974-75. His last prep coaching stop was at Mason City (Iowa) High where he was head coach from 1976-78 and where his team won a 4A state title in his final year.

Iowa's Hayden Fry hired Alvarez as an assistant coach in 1979. The Hawkeyes played in six bowl games (two Rose Bowls) during Alvarez's eight years in Iowa City, compiling a 61-33-1 mark in the process. Alvarez's standout player with the Hawkeyes was LB Larry Station, a two-time All-American and two-time Academic All-American.

Alvarez left Iowa after the 1986 season to become linebackers coach at Notre Dame. He was promoted (linebackers to defensive coordinator to assistant head coach) by Holtz each of his three seasons as the Fighting Irish went 32-5 and won the 1988 national title. While in South Bend, Alvarez coached All-America linebackers Michael Stonebreaker, Ned Bolcar, Cedric Figaro and Wes Pritchett.

Alvarez grew up in Langeloth, Pa., a small town among the coal mines and steel mills in western Pennsylvania. He starred as a prep linebacker and went on to play at Nebraska (1965-67) for legendary head coach Bob Devaney. Alvarez was the leading tackler for the 1967 Cornhuskers, who led the nation in total defense and created a school-record 40 turnovers. Alvarez played in both the Sugar and Orange Bowls at Nebraska (the Cornhuskers were 25-7 during his three varsity seasons).

Alvarez is a 1969 graduate of the University of Nebraska, where he played linebacker and went on to earn his master's degree. He received a Distinguished Alumnus Award from his alma mater in 2003. Alvarez and his wife, Cindy, were co-campaign chairs in the effort to bring a Gilda's Club (a free support center for families dealing with cancer) to Madison. That facility opened in the fall of 2008. In addition, Alvarez serves on the Board of Directors of the MACC Fund (Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer).

Alvarez and his wife, Cindy, are the parents of three grown children - daughters Dawn and Stacy and son Chad (wife Stephanie). Barry and Cindy are grandparents to Joe and Jake Ferguson; Grace and Jackson Delzer; and Scarlett and Barry John Thomas Alvarez.

Head Coach Bret Bielema

The easy way to sum up Bret Bielema's six-year career as Wisconsin's head coach is to look at the numbers. 60 wins, six bowl appearances, five times ranked in the final A.P. top 25, two Big Ten titles and two trips to the Rose Bowl.

Not as easy to quantify but just as important as the numbers are the adjectives people use when they talk about the Badger football team under Bielema, words like "tough," "smart," "physical," "aggressive," "punishing," and "relentless." Those are the characteristics that have propelled UW to three consecutive 10-win seasons, including back-to-back Big Ten titles and Rose Bowl appearances.

Under Bielema's watch, UW has extended its school-record bowl streak to 10 seasons, the second-longest active streak in the Big Ten and tied for the ninth-longest streak in the country. Bielema's career winning percentage of .759 (60-19) is the fifth-best in the country among FBS coaches with at least five seasons of experience. UW's winning percentage over that span ranks second in the Big Ten and ninth in the country. Wisconsin is also 33-15 (.688) in Big Ten games during Bielema's tenure. Despite coaching just six seasons, Bielema already ranks third in school history in career victories.

In Bielema's six seasons as head coach, UW has had 16 players earn All-America honors, including 10 first-team All-Americans. UW players have also won the Outland Trophy twice, the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and the Lott IMPACT Trophy and been finalists for the Heisman Trophy, Doak Walker Award, John Mackey Award, Manning Award, Rimington Trophy and Ted Hendricks Award. In the last five years, 16 Badgers have been taken in the NFL Draft, including three first-rounders.

Bielema, who served as Wisconsin's defensive coordinator for two seasons before becoming head coach, has helped UW amass a 50-4 record at Camp Randall Stadium in his eight years in Madison. That is the third-best home record in the country over that span. The Badgers won their first 16 home games under Bielema, the second-longest home winning streak in school history, and are currently riding a 16-game home winning streak. That is the second-longest active streak in the country.

In his first two seasons as head coach, Bielema led UW to 21 wins. Only two other men in Big Ten history -- Michigan's Fielding Yost (22) and Ohio State's Jim Tressel (21) -- have guided their teams to as many as 21 wins in their first two seasons as Big Ten head coaches.

Bielema coached Wisconsin to victories in 17 of his first 18 games. That represents the second-best start to a head coaching career in Big Ten history. Only Michigan's Yost, who went 55-0-1 from 1901-05, had a better beginning to a career.

Last season UW won the inaugural Big Ten Football Championship Game, defeating Michigan State, 42-39 in Indianapolis, to advance to the Rose Bowl for the second-straight season. It was just the third time in the last 19 years that a Big Ten team advanced to the Rose Bowl in back-to-back season (Wisconsin also did so in 1999 and 2000).

The Badgers, who won the Leaders Division, fished the season with an 11-3 record. For just the third time in school history, Wisconsin recorded 11 regular-season victories. The only other 11-win regular seasons were in 2006, Bielema's first season at the helm, and 2010. UW has won at least 10 games eight times in school history and Bielema has been a part of five of those teams (four as head coach, one as defensive coordinator).

Wisconsin's high-powered offense ranked sixth in the country in scoring in 2011 and was led by QB Russell Wilson and RB Montee Ball. They became the first teammates in FBS history to throw at least 30 touchdowns and run for at least 30 scores in the same season. Ball, a first-team All-American (along with offensive linemen Peter Konz and Kevin Zeitler), was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy and tied Barry Sanders' FBS record for TDs scored in a season.

The Badgers had a school-record nine players earn first-team All-Big Ten honors. In addition, six different players earned All-America mention.

In 2010, the Badgers won a share of their 12th Big Ten championship in school history and first since 1999. UW tied a school record with seven conference victories. The Badgers earned their seventh-ever trip to the Rose Bowl, and their first since 1999.

UW finished the season with an 11-2 record and ranked seventh in the final Associated Press Poll. The Badgers were explosive on offense, ranking fifth in the country in scoring offense (41.5 points per game). Their 45.2 points per game in conference play was second-best in Big Ten history. Wisconsin nearly became the first team in FBS history to have three running backs gain 1,000 yards in the same season as James White finished with 1,052 yards, John Clay had 1,012 and Montee Ball ran for 996.

Wisconsin was the most disciplined team in the country in 2010, leading the nation in both fewest turnovers (9) and fewest penalties per game (3.15). UW also ranked in the top 10 nationally in pass efficiency, third-down conversions, fourth-down conversions, red zone offense, time of possession and turnover margin. The Badgers were one of just six teams in the country to rank among the top 25 in both total offense and total defense.

The Badgers took home several national awards in 2010, including the Outland Trophy (Gabe Carimi), the Lott IMPACT Trophy (J.J. Watt) and the Unitas Golden Arm Award (Scott Tolzien). Carimi, Clay, Lance Kendricks, John Moffitt and Watt were all named All-Americans, giving Wisconsin its most All-American honorees since 1999.

Bielema also garnered national acclaim for the Badgers' tremendous season. He was named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson, Bear Bryant and Home Depot Coach of the Year awards as well as a semifinalist for the Joseph V. Paterno Coach of the Year Award.

In the Big Ten, 18 players receiving some sort of All-Big Ten recognition, including five who picked up first-team honors. Carimi, Kendricks, Moffitt, Watt and Antonio Fenelus were all named first-team All-Big Ten, while Carimi was named Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year and White was chosen as the Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

Wisconsin's success under Bielema has translated to the classroom as well. UW had a record-tying 22 members of the football team honored as Academic All-Big Ten in 2010, the second consecutive season Wisconsin had 22 players named Academic All-Big Ten. Before 2009, the school record was 19, set in Bielema's second season.

In 2009, UW won 10 games for just the sixth time in school history, capping the season with a win in the Champs Sports Bowl over No. 14 Miami. The Badgers started the season 5-0 before dropping a pair of games to teams ranked in the top 15. Wisconsin then won five of its last six games to finish the season 10-3. Its 5-3 record in conference play was good for a share of fourth place. After not being ranked to start the season, UW finished the year ranked 16th in both polls.

In addition to the team success, a number of Badger individual earned honors in 2009. Running back John Clay was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year while linebacker Chris Borland took home conference freshman of the year honors. A total of five Badgers were named first-team All-Big Ten. Wisconsin led the Big Ten in scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense, rushing defense, sacks, time of possession and red zone offense. In the national rankings, UW ranked among the top 10 in rushing defense, third-down conversions, sacks, time of possession and red zone offense.

In 2008, Bielema guided the Badgers through a midseason slump to qualify for their school-record seventh consecutive bowl game. UW began the season 3-0, including a road win at No. 21 Fresno State. That was Wisconsin's first road win over a ranked non-conference opponent since 1958. Following that victory, UW lost four straight games to open the Big Ten season. The Badgers rebounded, however, winning four of their last five regular-season games in order to qualify for the Champs Sports Bowl. Included in that streak was a wild win over rival Minnesota that allowed UW to keep possession of Paul Bunyan's Axe for the fifth straight season.

Bielema took the Badgers to New Year's Day bowl games in each of his two campaigns as head coach. In 2007 the Badgers were 9-4 overall and Bielema was a semifinalist for the George Munger Award, given by the Maxwell Football Club to the national coach of the year. The 2007 Badgers fought through key injuries and other forms of adversity to win four of their last five games and earn an invitation to the Outback Bowl in Tampa, Fla. Two Wisconsin players -- TE Travis Beckum and K Taylor Mehlhaff -- earned All-America honors.

Bielema guided the Badgers to a 12-1 overall record and 7-1 mark in the Big Ten (good for a second-place tie with Michigan) during his rookie year in 2006. Wisconsin capped that record-setting season with a 17-14 win over Arkansas in the 2007 Capital One Bowl. No previous Wisconsin team had won more than 11 games in a season. In addition, Bielema became just the third rookie head coach in NCAA Bowl Subdivision history to pilot his team to 12 victories.

Bielema's efforts were rewarded when he was named the 2006 Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year. Bielema also was named one of five finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and was a finalist for the 2006 Schutt Sports Division IA Coach of the Year Award.

Wisconsin surprised most observers outside the program by setting school records for overall wins (12) and regular-season victories (11), as well as tying the UW mark for conference victories (seven). The Badgers did it with a defensive unit that ended the 2006 regular season ranked among the top three nationally in pass defense, pass efficiency defense, total defense and scoring defense. And they did it with an offense led by a pair of seniors (QB John Stocco and All-America tackle Joe Thomas), a young but talented offensive line, the Big Ten Freshman of the Year (P.J. Hill) at tailback and an emerging corps of receivers, including John Mackey Award semifinalist Travis Beckum.

Bielema was Wisconsin's defensive coordinator in 2004 and 2005, a period in which the program produced a 19-6 record under former head coach Barry Alvarez. The 2004 Badgers were sixth nationally in scoring defense and ninth in total defense. The 2005 club, which earned Wisconsin's first shutout since 1999, finished its 10-win season with a 24-10 victory over No. 7 Auburn in the 2006 Capital One Bowl; UW limited the high-powered Tigers to just 236 yards of total offense.

During Bielema's two years guiding the Badger defense, two players (DE Erasmus James and DB Jim Leonhard) earned first-team All-America honors and two others (DT Anttaj Hawthorne and DB Scott Starks) were first-team All-Big Ten selections. While coaching the Badgers' linebackers, Bielema developed Mark Zalewski and Dontez Sanders, both of whom earned honorable mention all-conference acclaim.

Bielema was co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State under former head coach Bill Snyder from 2002-03. The Wildcats were 22-6 during Bielema's time there and finished in the top 10 nationally (in both 2002 and 2003) in scoring and total defense. The Wildcats won their first Big 12 title in 2003. Among Bielema's standout players at Kansas State were first-team All-American Josh Buhl, 2003 NFL second-round draft pick Terry Pierce and second-team All-Big 12 selection Bryan Hickman.

Prior to his years at Kansas State, Bielema spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Iowa, where he worked for head coaches Hayden Fry and Kirk Ferentz. The 1997 Hawkeyes posted three shutouts and ranked No. 4 nationally in scoring defense. Bielema coached Fred Barr (first-team All-Big Ten), Vernon Rollins and Matt Hughes (both honorable mention All-Big Ten) at Iowa.

Bielema earned four letters (1989-92) after joining the Iowa football program as a walk-on. He earned a scholarship after his first year and was a member of Iowa's 1990 Big Ten championship team. A starter as a junior in 1991, he was a team co-captain as a senior. Bielema signed a free agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks and later completed his playing career with the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League. Bielema has participated in 10 bowl games as a player or coach.

A 1992 graduate of Iowa with a bachelor's degree in marketing, Bielema was born in Prophetstown, Ill., on Jan. 13, 1970. He and his wife, Jen, were married in March, 2012 and live in Madison.

Assistant Coaches

Chris Ash co-Defensive Coordinator / Defensive Backs

Chris Ash is heading into his third season at Wisconsin and his second as the Badgers' co-defensive coordinator. In Ash's first year in Madison, he coached the defensive backs, a position he still oversees.

In Ash's first season as co-defensive coordinator, the Badgers ranked 13th in the country in scoring defense (19.0 points per game) and 15th in the nation in total defense. It was the first time since 2006 that Wisconsin had allowed fewer than 20.0 points per game. Ten of the Badgers' 14 opponents failed to score more than 17 points.

UW allowed just 163.6 yards per game through the air in 2011 to rank fourth in the NCAA in pass defense. That was the second-best mark for Wisconsin's defense in the last 20 years. Oregon State, Michigan State (twice) and Oregon were the only teams to pass for more than 180 yards against the Badgers.

Five UW defenders earned All-Big Ten honors, including four first-team selections. Linebackers Mike Taylor and Chris Borland finished 1-2 in the conference in total tackles, with both finishing in the top 10 in the country. Taylor's 150 tackles were the most by a Badger since 2001. Defensive backs Aaron Henry and Antonio Fenelus tied for second in the conference with four interceptions apiece as UW ranked second in the Big Ten with 16 INTs.

In 2010, as UW's defensive backs coach, Ash oversaw marked improvement in the Badger pass defense. UW allowed just 193.9 yards per game through the air. Three of the starters in the Badger secondary earned all-Big Ten honors as Fenelus earned first-team all-conference from the media, Henry was a second-team pick by the coaches and cornerback Niles Brinkley was a consensus honorable mention All-Big Ten pick.

In his first year as a starter at free safety, Henry scored three defensive touchdowns, recovered three fumbles, recorded two interceptions and led the team with 47 solo tackles. Fenelus led the team with four interceptions, including one he returned for a TD.

Prior to coming to Wisconsin, Ash spent eight of the last 10 seasons at Iowa State, beginning as a defensive graduate assistant in 2000. He was promoted to secondary coach in 2002 and added the title of recruiting coordinator in 2006.

Following the 2006 season he moved on to become the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at San Diego State. He stayed there for two seasons before returning to Iowa State in the same position.

Ash began his career as a volunteer assistant at Drake in 1996. The next season he served as a defensive graduate assistant for the Bulldogs. During those two seasons he was on the same staff as UW assistants Dave Doeren and Charlie Partridge. When Doeren left Drake following the 1997 season, Ash took over his role as defensive coordinator for two seasons.

Ash has coached in six bowl games in his career, including the 2009 Insight Bowl when Iowa State defeated Minnesota. Last year's Cyclones' defense finished ninth in the country with 32 takeaways and tied for second in the nation in red zone efficiency. In 2005, Iowa State led the Big XII in interceptions (22) after finishing second in the conference the prior year (17).

Ash graduated from Drake with a bachelor's degree in secondary education in 1996. He received his master's degree in education from Iowa State in 2005. A native of Ottumwa, Iowa, Ash has two children, Tanner and Jacey.

Zach Azzanni Wide Receivers

Zach Azzanni, who served as the offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Western Kentucky in 2011, is set to begin his first season as Wisconsin's wide receivers coach. Azzanni is a 13-year coaching veteran who has also coached at Florida, Central Michigan, Bowling Green and Valparaiso.

With Azzanni directing the offense, Western Kentucky featured the nation's No. 2 rusher in 2011, Bobby Rainey. He averaged 141.3 rushing yards per game, running for 1,695 yards and 13 touchdowns. Behind Rainey, the Hilltoppers led the Sun Belt Conference in rushing offense. WKU tight end Jack Doyle was also the top receiving tight end in the Sun Belt and finished fifth among TEs in the country in receiving yards. Western Kentucky was 7-1 in the Sun Belt, finishing second to Arkansas State. That followed a 2-10 overall record in 2010. WKU improved its conference win total by five from 2010 to 2011, the biggest turnaround in Sun Belt history.

Azzanni was hired at Florida following the 2009 regular season and coached in the Gators' appearance in the 2010 Sugar Bowl in which Tim Tebow ended his career with a personal-best 482 passing yards. He spent the 2010 season at Florida, coaching the Gator wide receivers and serving as the passing game coordinator. UF defeated Penn State in the Outback Bowl that season.

Prior to going to Gainesville, Azzanni spent three seasons as the assistant head coach and receivers coach at his alma mater, Central Michigan. Azzanni's 2009 wide receiver unit was one of the most prolific in the college football. Bryan Anderson established an NCAA mark with a catch in 53 consecutive games, while teammate Antonio Brown had a streak of 40 straight games with a catch. Anderson and Brown combined for 49 career touchdown receptions, tied for the top active duo in the country for scoring receptions. Anderson totaled more than 3,500 yards receiving in his career and Brown eclipsed the 1,000-yard receiving mark for the second time and surpassed 3,000-yard receiving for his career.

Both receivers went on to sign NFL contracts, with Brown starting for the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV. In 2011, Brown was named the Steelers' team MVP and earned a Pro Bowl selection after becoming first player in NFL history with at least 1,000 yards receiving (1,108) and at least 1,000 return yards (1,062) in the same season.

Prior to joining the Central Michigan Staff, Azzanni spent the previous six seasons at Bowling Green. He coached the wide receivers from 2003-06, leading a group that broke nearly every school receiving record. He coached Charles Sharon, the school's all-time leader in receptions (232), receiving yards (3,450) and touchdown catches (34). In 2004 he coached a group that produced four receivers with 1,000 yards receiving. Five of his receivers at Bowling Green went on to sign professional contracts.

Known for developing talent, Azzanni's 2004 receiving corp at Bowling Green was ranked third-best in the nation by Athlon Sports. His 2009 group was ranked ninth in the nation by the same publication, and helped him to be named college football's wide receiver coach of the year.

No stranger to success on the field as both a player and a coach, Azzanni has been part of nine teams that have either won conference championships or played in bowl games. As a player, he was part of the 1994 Central Michigan squad that won the Mid-American Conference championship and played in the Las Vegas Bowl. He also coached in the 2003 Motor City Bowl and 2004 GMAC Bowl at Bowling Green. He coached in two more Motor City Bowls at CMU in 2007 and 2008, and was part of the staffs at Florida for the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl and 2011 Outback Bowl. Additionally, he coached conference championship teams at Valparaiso, BGSU and CMU.

Azzanni graduated with a degree in Sports Management in 1999 from Central Michigan. Azzanni and his wife, Julia, have two daughters: Ava and Lyla.

Andy Buh Linebackers

Andy Buh (pronounced "Boo") is beginning his first season as the linebackers coach at Wisconsin. Buh spent the last two seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Nevada. He was formerly the co-defensive coordinator at Stanford.

In the last two years, Buh helped Nevada to a 20-7 record, including a 12-3 mark in the WAC. The Wolf Pack won the WAC title in 2010 and defeated Boston College in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. Nevada ranked 18th in the country in rushing defense at just 120.3 yards per game allowed. The Pack's 2010 unit was led by defensive end Dontay Moch, a third-round NFL draft choice of the Cincinnati Bengals who was 10th nationally in tackles for loss.

In 2011, Nevada went 7-6 and nearly upset No. 22 Southern Miss in the Hawaii Bowl, falling to the Golden Eagles, 24-17. The Wolf Pack limited the No. 15 scoring offense in the country almost 13 points and 130 yards below its season averages. On the season, Nevada finished 22nd in the country in pass efficiency defense and was led by first-team All-American defensive tackle Brett Roy.

Buh inherited a defense that ranked 91st and 96th in the country in total defense in the two years before he arrived at Nevada. In his two seasons, the Wolf Pack finished 54th and 52nd nationally.

Prior to this tenure at Nevada, Buh had three successful seasons at Stanford, including the last two as the co-defensive coordinator for the Cardinal. He began his tenure at Stanford in 2007 as the linebackers coach. In 2008, he was promoted by then-coach Jim Harbaugh to co-defensive coordinator for the Cardinal. Stanford had four defensive players earn All Pac-10 recognition in Buh's final season as the Cardinal made their first bowl appearance (Sun Bowl) since 2001.

Buh spent the 2006 season at Fresno State after four successful seasons (2002-05) at San Diego State. During his time with the Aztecs, Buh coached four players who went on to the NFL, including Kirk Morrison, a two-time Mountain West Conference Defensive Player of the Year. In 2005, Buh had two of his linebackers on national watch lists for the Nagurski and Butkus Awards.

Buh spent two seasons (2000-01) at Cal as a defensive administrative assistant after starting his coaching career at Nevada. He was the Wolf Pack's graduate assistant coach in 1997 and 1998 and was hired as Nevada's defensive backs/special teams coach in 1999.

Buh played at Nevada in 1993 and 1994 and helped the Pack to a Big West championship as a senior in 1994. The Pack went 16-6 during Buh's two seasons in Silver and Blue. He graduated from Nevada with a degree in physical education in 1996.

A native of Escondido, Calif. (Orange Glen HS), Buh played at Palomar College in Southern California, where he helped the team to a share of the 1991 Junior College Grid-Wire national championship as a freshman. He earned juco All-America honors as a sophomore in 1992 before transferring to Nevada. He coached one season at Orange Glen HS before beginning his college coaching career at Nevada.

Matt Canada Offensive Coordinator/ Quarterbacks

Matt Canada is beginning his first season as Wisconsin's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Canada spent last year in the same role at Northern Illinois, helping the Huskies to an 11-3 record, a MAC championship and a victory in the GoDaddy.com Bowl.

Last season, Canada directed one of the most explosive offenses in the country. Northern Illinois finished among the top 12 in the country in scoring offense, total offense and rushing offense. The Huskies joined Wisconsin as two of the five teams in the country to average at least 230.0 yards rushing and passing last season.

NIU's quarterback, Chandler Harnisch, was a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete and was named honorable mention All-America by SI.com. He finished ninth in the country in total offense, averaging 328.2 yards per game.

Last year marked Canada's second stint with Northern Illinois. He spent six seasons (1998-2003) as an assistant coach at NIU under former head coach Joe Novak, working with the NIU running backs (1998-2000) and quarterbacks (2001-02) before taking over as offensive coordinator in the Huskies' breakthrough 2003 season.

At Northern Illinois, Canada was part of the staff that revived the Huskie program, from a team that was 2-9 in his first season of 1998 to the team that upset Maryland, Alabama and Iowa State en route to a No. 12 Associated Press and No. 10 Bowl Championship Series (BCS) ranking in 2003.

Canada coached players whose names fill the Huskie record books, including current Atlanta Falcons' running back and 2003 second-team All-American Michael Turner, and fellow 1,000-yard rushers William Andrews and current Wisconsin running backs coach Thomas Hammock. The Huskie offense under Canada also featured current Indianapolis Colts offensive lineman Ryan Diem and former New York Jets and Tennessee Titans wide receiver Justin McCareins.

Before returning to Northern Illinois in 2011, Canada had spent the last seven years at Indiana, where he coached the Hoosiers' quarterbacks each season, became passing game coordinator in 2005 and 2006, and served as offensive coordinator for the last four years.

Canada's quarterbacks at IU (Ben Chappell, Kellen Lewis and Blake Powers) hold the top three spots in single season touchdowns, yards, completions, attempts and completion percentage. In four years as IU offensive coordinator, the Hoosiers had an All-American wide receiver (James Hardy), three first-team All-Big Ten receivers, an all-conference left tackle and an all-league quarterback (Lewis). Chappell led the Big Ten in passing yards, completions and attempts in 2010 while setting the Indiana single-season records in all three categories.

Lewis set the Indiana school record for career passing touchdowns and established new single-season marks for passing yards, passing touchdowns and total yards as the 2007 Hoosiers scored a school-record 412 points under Canada's direction.

A 1993 graduate of Indiana, Canada began his coaching career as a student assistant (1992-93) and graduate assistant (1994-95) at IU. He made his full-time coaching debut in 1996 at Butler University, where he oversaw the quarterbacks and wideouts before moving up to offensive coordinator in 1997.

Eddie Faulkner Tight Ends

Former Badger running back Eddie Faulkner is in his first season as Wisconsin's tight ends coach. Faulkner was a running back at UW from 1996-2000 and spent last season as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator at Northern Illinois, working with current Wisconsin offensive coordinator Matt Canada.

Faulkner, who was briefly a member of Pitt's coaching staff before joining the Badgers, helped Northern Illinois to an 11-3 record, the Mid-American Conference (MAC) championship and a GoDaddy.com Bowl victory last year.

As running backs coach at NIU, Faulkner produced All-MAC tailback Jasmin Hopkins, who rushed for 956 yards and 15 touchdowns on 187 carries (5.1 avg.). NIU boasted the nation's No. 12 rushing attack with an average of 234.14 yards per game.

Overseeing NIU's special teams, Faulkner's punt coverage unit ranked second nationally, yielding just one yard per return. Huskies placekicker Mathew Sims was a first-team All-MAC performer while compiling a school-record 124 points (20-28 field goals, 64-66 PATs).

Prior to NIU, Faulkner spent eight seasons at Ball State (2003-10). Initially joining Brady Hoke's BSU staff as a graduate assistant in 2003, Faulkner elevated to running backs and special teams coach before serving as the Cardinals' offensive coordinator his final two years. He was Ball State's interim head coach at the end of the 2010 season before his departure to NIU.

During his Ball State tenure, the Cardinals captured two MAC West Division championships and advanced to back-to-back bowl games for the first time in school history. The 2008 team went undefeated during the regular season as tailback MiQuale Lewis rushed for a Ball State record 1,736 yards.

Faulkner was a member of two Big Ten championship teams as a running back at Wisconsin. He rushed for 1,064 yards in his career and seven touchdowns. He had three 100-yard rushing games, including 119 in a win over No. 14 Iowa in 1997 as a red-shirt freshman. After graduating from UW, Faulkner signed a free agent contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2001 before going on to a pro career with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League.

Thomas Hammock Running Backs/ Recruiting Coordinator/ Assistant Head coach

It will be interesting to see what Thomas Hammock can do for an encore. Hammock's first year as Wisconsin's running backs coach saw his star protégé, Montee Ball, lead the nation in rushing, be named a Heisman Trophy finalist and tie Barry Sanders' NCAA record for touchdowns scored in a season. That constitutes a pretty good debut.

Hammock returned to UW in 2011 after spending the previous four seasons at Minnesota. He was a graduate assistant with the Badgers in 2003 and 2004.

Ball, who rushed for 996 yards as a sophomore, took the nation by storm as a junior. He led the country with 1,923 rushing yards, the 22nd-best total in NCAA history and third-best in school annals. Ball was almost unstoppable near the end zone, scoring 39 TDs to tie Sanders' NCAA record and lead the country (12 more than the next player). He scored at least two touchdowns in all 13 of the Badgers' regular-season games, setting an NCAA record for consecutive multiple-TD games.

Ball was duly rewarded for his excellence, becoming UW's first Heisman Trophy finalist since 1999, earning the Big Ten's Graham-George Offensive Player of the Year Award and being named a consensus first-team All-American. A Doak Walker Award finalist, Ball also earned the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award, given to the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player, and the Archie Griffin Award, presented by the Touchdown Club of Columbus to college football's Most Valuable Player.

In addition to Ball, UW's James White ran for more than 700 yards. In total, UW's running backs had 2,927 yards on the ground (5.8 yards per carry) and scored 41 rushing TDs. Badger running backs were also threats through the air as they combined to catch 61 passes for 716 yards and six TDs.

As a team, Wisconsin led the Big Ten and ranked 11th in the country in rushing offense, averaging 235.6 yards per game on the ground. The Badgers' 48 rushing touchdowns tied the single-season conference record. UW finished the season ranked sixth in the country in scoring offense (44.1 points per game) and 14th in total offense (469.9 yards per game), leading the Big Ten in both categories.

Ball was the second player in Hammock's seven years as a full-time running backs coach to lead the nation in rushing under his tutelage. In 2005-06, Hammock coached Northern Illinois' Garrett Wolfe. Wolfe's 1,928 rushing yards and 148.3 yards per game were both best in the country in 2006. He also finished as the NCAA career leader in yards per carry (6.40 - minimum 780 rushes) and is fourth all-time in career rushing yards per game (156.5). One of just four players in college football history to run for at least 1,500 yards in three different seasons, Wolfe was drafted in the third round by the Chicago Bears.

Before re-joining the Badger staff, Hammock spent the previous four seasons at Minnesota. Following three seasons as the running backs coach, Hammock was the Gophers' co-offensive coordinator in 2010. Under Hammock, the UM offense moved up 26 places in the national ranking for rushing offense and 34 in total offense over the previous season. Following a mid-season coaching transition, Hammock took over play-calling duties for the final five games. During those five games, he led an offense that helped the team secure wins in its final two games, including its first rivalry win in four years, defeating Iowa for the Floyd of Rosedale trophy.

Hammock spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Wisconsin from 2003-04, helping the Badgers make Music City (2003) and Outback (2004) bowl appearances.

As a player, Hammock ranks ninth on the Northern Illinois all-time rushing list with 2,432 career yards. He logged 1,083 yards as a sophomore in 2000, ranking 12th in the NCAA (120.3 ypg.), and posted 1,095 yards as a junior.

Unfortunately, Hammock's senior season was cut short due to a potentially life-threatening heart condition in 2002. Adversity propelled his coaching career as he turned his attention towards becoming a student coach and helped Michael Turner post a MAC single-season rushing record of 1,915 yards in 2002.

Hammock earned his bachelor's degree from Northern Illinois in 2002 and a master's from Wisconsin in 2004. He and his wife, Cheyennitha, have one daughter, Tierra.

Mike Markuson Offensive Line

Mike Markuson is in his first season as the offensive line coach at Wisconsin. Markuson had spent the last 14 years in the SEC, coaching the offensive lines at Arkansas and Ole Miss.

Since 2003, six different Markuson disciples have earned All-America honors. The most well-known of those players is Michael Oher, the subject of the movie "Blind Side," who was a first-team All-American and a first-round draft choice of the Baltimore Ravens in 2009. Markuson has also tutored 2007 Rimington Trophy winner Jonathan Luigs and two-time first-team All-American and 2004 first-round NFL draft pick Shawn Andrews.

Both at Ole Miss and Arkansas, Markuson has helped develop potent run games. In Markuson's decade at Arkansas, no other Southeastern Conference team was more effective at running the ball than the Razorbacks. In 2003, Markuson added the duty of running game coordinator, and the Hogs topped the SEC in rushing in four of the five campaigns under his watch.

The 2006 and 2007 seasons saw the Razorbacks lead the SEC and rank fourth in the nation in rushing offense. Arkansas boasted one of the best rushing duos in the country in that time as Darren McFadden and Felix Jones each rushed for over 1,000 yards in both seasons.

McFadden won the Doak Walker Award both years and was a two-time runner-up in the Heisman Trophy balloting. He and Jones were both first-round picks in the NFL draft.

Not only did Markuson's offensive line create lanes for the Razorback running game, it also kept defenders away from the Hog quarterbacks. Arkansas finished the season fifth nationally in 2007, allowing only 13 sacks, after ranking second in the country (0.64 per game) in 2006.

That success carried over to Ole Miss. In 2008, the Rebels recorded their most rushing yards since 1990 and ranked second in the conference after ranking 11th just one year prior. The following season, RB Dexter McCluster had a record-breaking year running behind Markuson's line, posting the second-highest rushing total in school history with 1,169 yards and earning first-team All-America honors.

Also serving as the co-offensive coordinator, Markuson's most impressive coaching job might have come in 2010. With seven underclassmen earning starts on the offensive line and using six different starting lineups, Ole Miss topped the SEC in fewest sacks allowed and notched eight 100-yard rushing games between four different runners.

Markuson's line ranked second in the SEC (14th in the nation) in fewest sacks allowed in 2009 (17) and was fourth in the conference in 2008 (20), after Ole Miss finished ninth the previous year.

Markuson tutored a pair of first-team All-Americans at Ole Miss in Oher (2008) and guard John Jerry in 2009. Oher became the fifth Rebel to win the Jacobs Blocking Trophy, as the SEC's best blocker, and was taken with the 23rd overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens. Jerry was taken in the third round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins.

Under Markuson's tutelage at Arkansas, Luigs captured the 2007 Rimington Trophy, awarded to the outstanding center in college football, and was named a first-team All-American by The Sporting News and Rivals.com. Luigs also earned a share of the Jacobs Trophy.

Luigs and guard Robert Felton were named to the Coaches All-SEC first team in 2007. Felton also earned second-team All-America honors from Rivals.com.

Arkansas featured three first-team All-SEC performers on the offensive line in 2006 (Luigs, Tony Ugoh and Zac Tubbs). A second-round pick in the 2007 NFL draft, Ugoh was distinguished as a second-team All-American by CollegeFootballNews.com.

The 2003 Arkansas rushing attack ranked fifth nationally, and Andrews was an All-American tackle and an Outland and Lombardi Trophy finalist. He was chosen 16th overall in the 2004 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles.

1983. He began his collegiate coaching career in 1984 with a two-year stint as the defensive line coach at South Dakota State, where he earned his master's in physical education in 1986.

After spending the 1986 season as the defensive line coach at his collegiate alma mater - Hamline University in St. Paul, Minn. - Markuson began a two-year graduate assistantship at Oklahoma State. While in Stillwater, he helped the Cowboys to a 35-33 win over West Virginia in the 1987 Sun Bowl and a 62-14 win over Wyoming in the 1988 Holiday Bowl behind five touchdowns and 222 rushing yards by Heisman Trophy winner Barry Sanders.

In 1989, Markuson served as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame under head coach Lou Holtz. That Fighting Irish team posted a 12-1 record and finished No. 2 in the final Associated Press rankings after toppling Colorado in the Orange Bowl. Wisconsin Director of Athletics Barry Alvarez was the defensive coordinator on that team.

Markuson landed his first full-time collegiate coaching position in 1990 when he was named the offensive line coach at Austin Peay. He then worked two years at Alabama A&M, coaching the offensive line in 1991 and serving as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in 1992.

From 1993-96, Markuson coached the offensive line at Murray State before moving on with head coach Houston Nutt to Boise State and serving as the Broncos' offensive coordinator in 1997.

Markuson was a three-year football letterman at Farmington High School where he served as team co-captain and earned all-conference honors as a senior. He went on to Hamline where he was a four-year starter at defensive tackle and a two-time honorable mention All-Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference selection for the Pipers. He was also team co-captain as a senior.

Charlie Partridge Associate Head Coach / co-Defensive Coordinator / Defensive Line

Charlie Partridge is entering his fifth season at Wisconsin. After spending the first three years as UW's defensive line and specialists coach, he was promoted to associate head coach, co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach in 2011.

Last season's defensive line was one of the deepest in Badger history. UW typically rotated at least eight linemen every game, even after losing starting defensive end David Gilbert to a season-ending injury after the fourth game. They were a key component in Wisconsin finishing among the top 15 nationally in both scoring and total defense.

The 2010 season was highlighted by the play of Partridge's star pupil, junior defensive end J.J. Watt. Watt, who won the Lott IMPACT Trophy, was a converted tight end who began his UW career as a walk-on. Watt was the leader of Wisconsin's defense, finishing the season tied for seventh in the country in tackles for loss (21). A consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection, Watt tied for second in the Big Ten in sacks (7.0) and tied for third in forced fumbles (3) and fumble recoveries (2). He tied for second on the team in tackles (62), led the team with 10 quarterback hurries and also broke up eight passes, blocked three kicks and recorded an interception.

A second-team All-American by Walter Camp, Rivals.com and CBSSports.com, Watt was named Lott IMPACT Defensive Player of the Week three times during the season. He was drafted 11th overall by the Houston Texans in the 2011 NFL Draft, the highest for a UW defensive player since 1992.

In 2009, the UW defensive line exceeded all expectations after losing three senior starters from the prior year. The headliner of the group was senior defensive end O'Brien Schofield, who ranked second in the country with 24.5 tackles for loss, the second-highest total in school history. He also tied for seventh in the country and third in school history with 12.0 sacks, while Watt pitched in with 15.5 TFLs. The duo's 40.0 combined TFLs were the most by a pair of teammates in the country.

The d-line was also instrumental in transforming UW's rush defense into one of the best in school history. Wisconsin led the Big Ten and ranked fifth in the country in rushing defense, allowing just 88.2 yards per game on the ground (second-best in school history). The Badgers held each of their last 10 opponents to less than 100 yards rushing, the longest streak in the country and the longest streak in school history.

In his first year at UW, 2008, Partridge led a veteran line. The three senior starters, Matt Shaughnessy, Mike Newkirk and Jason Chapman, all earned All-Big Ten mention while Schofield, in his first season as a starter at defensive end, tied for the team lead in sacks. Shaughnessy was drafted in the third round of the 2009 NFL draft by Oakland.

Partridge has also worked with the Badgers' kickers during his time at UW. Both four-year starters, placekicker Philip Welch and punter Brad Nortman left their mark on Wisconsin's record book. Welch, a first-team Freshman All-American in 2008, finished his career ranked second in school history in points (384), field goals made (59) and field goal percentage (.776). Nortman, a two-time honorable mention All-Big Ten selection, ranks third in school history with a 42.1 career average.

Partridge, an assistant at Pittsburgh for five years, coached the defensive line for his first four seasons there before switching to linebackers in 2007. He had special teams coaching responsibilities for the last three seasons, including the last two as special teams coordinator for the Panthers.

Pittsburgh ranked No. 5 nationally and led the Big East in total defense last season, allowing just 297.7 yards per game. In addition, the Panthers led their conference and were No. 3 in pass defense, surrendering only 167.3 yards per game. Pittsburgh was fourth in the Big East with nearly three QB sacks per contest. The Panthers' signature defensive effort in 2007 came when they shut down high-powered and No. 1-ranked West Virginia in a 13-9 win that eliminated the Mountaineers from national title contention.

Linebacker Scott McKillop led the Panthers with 151 tackles in 2007 and was named first-team All-Big East. Joe Clermond, a defensive lineman whom Partridge had coached at Pitt, was a second-team All-Big East selection in 2007.

Partridge's special teams units flourished at Pittsburgh. In his first season as special teams coordinator (2006), Pitt led the Big East in net punting (37.54 avg.) and kickoff returns (24.14 avg.). Punter Adam Graessle was an All-Big East selection that season and kick returner Lowell Robinson led the conference and finished ninth nationally with a 27.9-yard average. ESPN's 2006 college football "play of the year" selection was a 73-yard punt return for a touchdown by Pitt's Darrelle Revis against West Virginia. Revis was a first-round draft choice of the New York Jets in 2007.

Prior to his years at Pittsburgh, Partridge served as recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach at Eastern Illinois in 2002. Eastern Illinois qualified for the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs that season after sharing the Ohio Valley Conference title.

Partridge worked for head coach Dan McCarney at Iowa State from 1998-2001. He was a defensive graduate assistant in 1998-99 and worked with outside linebackers. He became the program's director of football operations in 2000.

Partridge was a NSCA All-America defensive lineman at Drake. He was a three-year starter and team captain for the Bulldogs before starting his coaching career at his alma mater as a graduate assistant in 1996-97. He coached running backs, including a pair of 1,000-yard rushers, and served as a strength and conditioning coach.

Partridge, a native of Plantation, Fla., earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education from Drake in 1995 and a master's degree in education from Iowa State in 2002. Partridge and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Alexa and Kylee.

HOME GAMES IN CAPS / *AP & USA Today / ! Big Ten Championship Game, Indianapolis, Ind. / % Rose Bowl, Pasadena, Calif.

Team Notes

- ▶ Wisconsin captured its 13th Big Ten title and second in a row, defeating Michigan State, 42-39, in the inaugural Big Ten Football Championship Game. It is the third time in school history the Badgers have won back-to-back conference titles (1896-97 and 1998-99).
- ▶ UW made its eighth appearance in the Rose Bowl. It was the second time in school history the Badgers have played in Pasadena two-straight seasons. Wisconsin also played in the Rose Bowl in 1953, 1960, 1963, 1994, 1999, 2000 and 2010.
- ▶ The Badgers won at least 10 games for the third-straight season, the first time in school history they have done that. Wisconsin is one of just six teams in the country to win at least 10 games in each of the last three seasons. The others are Alabama, Boise State, Oregon, Virginia Tech and TCU.
- ▶ UW won 11 games for just the fourth time in school history (five 10-win seasons in the last seven years). It is the first time they have had back-to-back 11-win seasons.
- ▶ The Badgers have made four appearances in the Rose Bowl during the BCS era (since 1998). That is the second-most in the country during that span, trailing only USC's five appearances.

- ▶ UW has appeared in a bowl game in 10-straight seasons tied for the ninth-longest active streak in the country. It is second only to Ohio State's streak of 12-straight bowl games among Big Ten teams.
- ▶ Wisconsin finished the season ranked 10th in the Associated Press Poll and 11th in the USA Today Coaches Poll. It is the first time UW has finished in the A.P. top 10 in consecutive seasons since 1998-99.
- ▶ The Badgers ranked sixth in the country in scoring offense, averaging a school-record 44.1 points per game. That is sixth-best in Big Ten annals.
- ▶ Wisconsin was the only team in the country to finish among the top 15 in the final NCAA stats in both total offense and total defense.
- ▶ The four-year record of the Badger senior class was 39-14. The 39 wins are second-most in a four-year span. The 2007 senior class holds the UW record with 40 victories in a four-year span.
- ▶ Wisconsin went undefeated at home for the second-straight season and has won 16 consecutive home games, the second-longest active streak in the country.

2011 Game Recaps

#11 Wisconsin 51 UNLV 17

Sept. 1
Camp Randall Stadium
Madison, Wis.

Russell Wilson threw two touchdown passes and ran for another in his Wisconsin debut and Montee Ball scored four times to lead the 11th-ranked Badgers over UNLV 51-17. Wilson shined, taking off on a 46-yard TD run that had him slipping into the end zone untouched just before halftime. He finished 10 of 13 for 255 yards and had two rushes for 62 yards. Ball caught Wilson's first TD pass as a Badger from 4 yards out. Wisconsin made it 13-0 when Ball took a handoff, busted through two arm tackles and high-stepped to avoid Quinton Porter's desperation dive for a 22-yard touchdown. It was 20-0 when Wilson found top target Nick Toon for completions of 39 and 15 yards before White punched it into the end zone from a yard out. Ball, who finished with 63 yards rushing, also scored on a pair of 1-yard runs, making it 51-3 midway through the third quarter.

#8 Wisconsin 35 Oregon State 0

Sept. 10
Camp Randall Stadium
Madison, Wis.

Wisconsin pounced on special teams mistakes and leaned on Russell Wilson and the defense to do the rest in a 35-0 victory at Camp Randall Stadium over Oregon State. In his second start for the Badgers, Wilson was 17 of 21 for 189 yards and three touchdowns, including a pair to tight end Jacob Pedersen. Wisconsin's running game eventually wore down Oregon State, and Montee Ball had a pair of touchdowns in the second half. It was Wisconsin's first shutout since a 37-0 defeat of Purdue in October 2009, a point of pride for the defense. Wilson and the offense certainly got some unintended help from Oregon State. The first special teams mistake came on the Beavers' second possession, when punter Johnny Hekker bizarrely shanked a ball out of bounds for a four-yard loss that gave the ball back to the Badgers deep in Oregon State territory. Oregon State's defense held on first and second down, then gave up a 17-yard touchdown from Wilson to a wide-open Pedersen.

#6 Wisconsin 49 Northern Illinois 7

Sept. 17
Soldier Field
Chicago, Ill.

Russell Wilson threw for 347 yards and three scores, Montee Ball rushed for another two touchdowns and No. 6 Wisconsin piled up more than 600 yards of total offense in a 49-7 rout of Northern Illinois at Soldier Field. Ball finished with 91 yards on 18 carries, James White added 91 yards and another score, and Nick Toon had two touchdown catches for the Badgers (3-0), who have won 31 straight against non-conference opponents in the regular season. Wilson was 23-for-32, threw for 347 yards -- the seventh-best total in UW history -- and tallied three touchdowns. Wilson accounted for 384 total yards, a total that ranks as the fifth-highest total offense total in school annals. While the offense was racking more than 600 yards, the Badgers' defense responded with an equally impressive effort. UW limited the Huskies to 237 total yards -- including just 64 on the ground. Sophomore linebacker Chris Borland led the effort with a game-high 11 tackles, including a pair of tackles-for-loss.

Russell Wilson threw for two touchdowns and ran for another in No. 7 Wisconsin's 48-17 rout of the eighth-ranked Cornhuskers. Montee Ball ran for 151 yards and four touchdowns for the Badgers. Wisconsin's defense allowed a pair of early - and easy - touchdown drives to Martinez and the Huskers that put the Badgers behind 14-7 early in the second quarter. Wilson answered with a drive, though, and Ball scored his second touchdown of the day. Later in the quarter, Wisconsin's defense picked off Taylor Martinez on two straight possessions, the first by linebacker Mike Taylor and the second by safety Aaron Henry. Wilson made the Huskers pay for both turnovers, firing a 36-yard touchdown to Jared Abbrederis, then a 46-yard touchdown to Nick Toon with 0:32 left. Martinez then threw another interception on the first play from scrimmage in the second half, this time to cornerback Antonio Fenelus.

Russell Wilson caught a 25-yard touchdown pass from Montee Ball on a trick play, then spent much of the afternoon handing to Ball for big gains as Wisconsin beat Indiana 59-7. Ball was sensational in his regular role, rushing for 142 yards and touchdowns of five, 35 and 54 yards. Wilson threw for 166 yards and a touchdown with 42 yards rushing. He was rested in the fourth quarter. James White added 87 yards rushing and a touchdown for the Badgers. Indiana quarterback Edward Wright-Baker threw a pair of interceptions and had a fourth-quarter fumble in the end zone that was recovered for a touchdown by backup linebacker Derek Landisch. After a 38-yard field goal by Philip Welch, an interception by Aaron Henry helped the Badgers score once more before halftime. Wilson's 25-yard scramble set up his 3-yard touchdown pass to tight end Jacob Pedersen, and Wisconsin led 38-7 at the half.

Oct. 22

East Lansing, Mich.

Keith Nichol caught a 44-yard pass from Kirk Cousins on the game's final play for a tiebreaking touchdown, giving No. 15 Michigan State a 37-31 victory over No. 4 Wisconsin. With 4 seconds left, Cousins rolled out to his right and threw it about as far as he could. The ball went into the end zone but caromed off Michigan State receiver B.J. Cunningham's facemask back to Nichol, who caught it just outside the end zone and struggled for the goal line, fighting two Wisconsin defenders and -- according to a video review -- just barely breaking the plane. Russell Wilson had led the Badgers from 14 points down in the fourth quarter to tie the game with 1:26 left on a to 2-yard touchdown pass to Montee Ball. Wisconsin trailed 31-17 in the fourth quarter before Wilson ran 22 yards for a touchdown and made several spectacular throws on the move to set up the TD pass to Ball to tie it at 31.

Oct. 29

Columbus, Ohio

Braxton Miller threw a 40-yard touchdown pass to Devin Smith with 20 seconds left to thwart a late rally by the Badgers and give Ohio State a 33-29 victory over No. 12 Wisconsin. The play nullified a fantastic rally by the Badgers that saw senior quarterback Russell Wilson connect with sophomore wide receiver Jared Abbrederis on a pair of dramatic fourth-quarter touchdown passes. The second came on a 49-yard connection after Wilson found Abbrederis wide open and streaking down the sideline. That score made it 29-26 in favor of the Badgers with just 1:18 remaining. After OSU's miraculous TD pass staked the hosts back to the lead with 20 seconds to play, the Badgers drove to the Ohio State 45 and took three shots at the end zone. They got an extra play after time elapsed due to a defensive facemask call -- but linebacker Andrew Sweat hit Wilson as he was throwing to end the game and touch off a wild celebration.

Toon finished with eight catches for 100 yards and two scores, and Wilson went 16 for 17 for 178 yards. The Badgers outgained the Gophers in total yards 461-156 and had 29 first downs to their rival's nine In 10 games, Ball has 27 total touchdowns. Nov. 19

Champaign, Ill.

Montee Ball rushed for 224 yards and scored three times, and No. 15 Wisconsin forced four turnovers in a 28-17 comeback victory against Illinois. On a day when stiff winds limited Wisconsin's passing attack, Ball was dominant. He had 164 yards on the ground as Wisconsin scored 21 unanswered points in the second half. Turnovers -- a fumble and three interceptions -- combined with special teams mistakes doomed the Illini. The Badgers scored on drives of 44, 39, 30 and 2 yards. Badgers linebacker Chris Borland hit receiver Darius Millines on the Illini's first possession of the third quarter, forcing a fumble that the Badgers recovered. Ball scored on a 5-yard pass from quarterback Russell Wilson with 6:27 left in the period. Later, after a fast three-and-out, the Badgers took over at the Illini 44. Two plays later, Wilson faked an inside handoff to Ball and trotted around the left side to make it 21-17 as the third quarter ended. Illinois opened the final period with another costly interception. Ball capped the ensuing drive with a 17-yard run for his 30th touchdown of the season, extending his conference record.

Montee Ball scored four more touchdowns and Wisconsin routed No. 20 Penn State 45-7 to clinch a spot in the Big Ten title game. Ball has scored 34 touchdowns this season for the Badgers, the second-most in a single season in NCAA history. He finished with 156 yards on 25 carries. The Nittany Lions took an early 7-0 lead but quickly unraveled, falling behind 28-7 by halftime. Russell Wilson threw for 186 yards and two touchdowns, flustering the Nittany Lions' defense by slipping away from tackling attempts all afternoon. The Badgers answered Penn State's score with a heavy dose of Ball on a 10-play, 76-yard drive that ended with a 21-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to Jared Abbrederis. PSU's Matt McGloin then threw an interception to Wisconsin safety Shelton Johnson, giving the ball back to the Badgers near midfield. Wilson marched Wisconsin into the red zone, Ball scored a 1-yard touchdown and Wisconsin took a 14-7 lead early in the second quarter.

Dec. 3
Lucas Oil Stadium
Indianapolis, Ind.

Montee Ball scored four touchdowns, the last coming on a 7-yard run with 3:45 left, and the Badgers used a running into the kicker penalty to kill the clock as No. 15 Wisconsin hung on to beat No. 11 Michigan State, 42-39, and earn a second-straight Rose Bowl bid. MSU coach Mark Dantonio called for a punt block, but Isaiah Lewis hit punter Brad Nortman. The 5-yard penalty gave Wisconsin the ball with Michigan State out of timeouts. Ball was his usually spectacular self as he ran for more than 100 yards and scored on two 6-yard TD runs in the first quarter. He scored two more times in the final 13 1/2 minutes -- once on a 5-yard shovel pass and the other a 7-yard TD run that gave Wisconsin a 40-39 lead. A conversion pass from Wilson to Jacob Pedersen made it 42-39 with 3:45 left.

Jan. 2
Rose Bowl Stadium
Pasadena, Calif.

An official video review concluded that Russell Wilson's attempt to stop the clock after a first-down completion took longer than the 2 seconds with which he had to work, as Oregon hung on for 45-38 win in the highest-scoring game in Rose Bowl history. Wilson completed 19 of 25 passes for 295 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He added a rushing TD, as well. Montee Ball rushed for his 39th touchdown to tie Barry Sanders' NCAA record for total TDs in a season, finishing with 164 yards on 32 carries. The Badgers led five separate times in the game as the teams traded punches, but UW couldn't muster another trip to the end zone after the Ducks opened the fourth quarter with a score. Wisconsin coughed up a pair of uncharacteristic turnovers in the second half and gave up 621 yards to Oregon's offense.

UW Bowl Game History

Rose Bowl Jan. 1, 1953 Rose Bowl Stadium

PASADENA, Calif. — USC scored the game's only points on a 22-yard pass from Rudy Bukich to Al Carmichael in the Trojans' 7-0 win over Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl.

The Badgers dominated the game from a statistical standpoint, outgaining USC by 120 yards. Led by Alan Ameche's 133 yards rushing, Wisconsin had a 211-48 advantage on the ground. However, both defenses rose to the occasion when necessary.

One of Wisconsin's best scoring chances came in the opening minutes of the third quarter. Ameche broke loose for a 54-yard run as the Badgers got to the USC 21-yard line. On third down, Archie Ray Burks fumbled on an end run and USC recovered.

The Trojans then put together the game-winning drive (73 yards), which ended with Bukich's TD pass. Wisconsin countered with a 13-play, 84-yard drive that ended at the Trojan two-yard line when Jerry Witt was stopped a yard short of a first down on a fake field goal play.

Coach Ivy Williamson's club was the first in Badger history to play in a bowl game.

Rose Bowl Jan. 1, 1960 Rose Bowl Stadium

PASADENA, Calif. — Washington scored the game's first 17 points en route to a 44-8 Rose Bowl win over Wisconsin.

Washington tallied the first TD on a 6-yard run by Don McKeta 10 minutes into the game. George Fleming booted a 26-yard field goal after the Huskies recovered one of four Wisconsin fumbles. Fleming then returned a punt 53 yards for a score on the final play of the period for a 17-0 Husky lead.

Badger fullback Tom Wiesner tallied Wisconsin's only points on a four-yard run with 5:27 left in the opening half. Dale Hackbart connected with Al Schoonover for a two-point conversion that cut the lead to 17-8. Washington quarterback Bob Schloredt, who shared game MVP honors with Fleming, tossed a 23-yard TD pass to close the first-half scoring. Schloredt completed four passes for 102 yards and rushed for 81 yards.

Wisconsin mounted a challenge in the third quarter, but four plays inside the Husky 10-yard line failed. The Badger defense entered the bowl having allowed barely 10 points per game for the regular season.

PASADENA, Calif. — A 23-point fourth quarter explosion wasn't quite enough as the Badgers dropped a 42-37 Rose Bowl encounter to USC. The Trojans had claimed a 42-14 lead on the first play of the fourth quarter before the Badger rally.

USC had a 21-7 halftime lead and extended it on the first play of the third stanza, before Ron Vander Kelen led one of the biggest charges in bowl history.

Vander Kelen reached paydirt on a 17-yard scamper to reduce the margin to 28-14. USC responded with a pair of touchdown passes by Pete Beathard and the Trojans led 42-14. Lou Holland (13-yard run) and Gary Kroner (four-yard reception) tallied for the Badgers within three minutes. A bad snap on a punt resulted in a UW safety. After the free kick, Vander Kelen hit three straight passes, including a 19-yard score to Pat Richter for the final 42-37 margin.

Vander Kelen, the game MVP, set both school and Rose Bowl records with 401 yards passing. Richter caught 11 of those aerials for 163 yards. The 79 total points scored was a Rose Bowl record that stood for 28 years.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Tennessee scored 18 straight points in the first half and held on to defeat Wisconsin 28-21 in the Garden State Bowl.

The Badger defense limited UT to 89 yards rushing, but Volunteer QB Steve Alatorre unleashed a potent passing attack. Alatorre threw for 315 yards. WR Anthony Hancock caught 11 passes for 196 yards.

After Fuad Reveiz booted a field goal in the first quarter, Wisconsin assumed its only lead of the game on a three-yard run by Jess Cole. Willie Gault returned the ensuing kick-off 87 yards to give Tennessee a lead it never lost. Reserve quarterback Randy Wright came off the bench to throw a pair of second-half touchdown passes for the Badgers. Wright hit Jeff Nault and Thad McFadden on scoring tosses in the final period.

The game featured two high-powered offenses that combined for 49 points, 793 total yards and 49 first downs.

Wisconsin's fourth bowl in school history and first non-Rose Bowl drew a crowd of 53,220.

SHREVEPORT, La. — Wisconsin won its first bowl game with a 14-3 decision over Kansas State in the Independence Bowl.

Randy Wright threw a game-record two TD passes and the Badger defense set a scoring record before 24,684 fans. The anticipated crowd was more than 49,000, but a 23-mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 degrees below zero. Wright, the game's offensive MVP, completed nine of 24 throws.

However, his 87-yard pass play to Tim Stracka was the longest in UW and Independence Bowl history. The Wisconsin defense limited Kansas State to 192 total yards in the Wildcats' first-ever postseason appearance.

KSU had taken a 3-0 lead on Steve Willis' 29-yard field goal before the Badgers scored 14 straight points. Tim Krumrie was the game defensive MVP. He helped limit the Kansas State running attack to less than two yards per carry. Game totals showed five turnovers, 14 punts, 22 completions in 59 attempts (.372) and 14 penalties.

Legion Field

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — A fumbled snap on a 26-yard game-winning field goal attempt was the deciding play in Wisconsin's 20-19 loss to Kentucky in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Trailing by a point after the Wildcats' Joe Worley booted a 52-yard field goal with eight minutes left, the Badgers drove inside Kentucky's 20-yard line. Todd Gregoire's field goal with 1:55 left never materialized after holder Bob Kobza dropped the center snap. Gregoire, a freshman, had tied a school record with four field goals earlier in the game.

Wisconsin assumed a 13-0 lead on a pair of Gregoire three pointers and a three-yard TD pass from Mike Howard to Thad McFadden. The Badgers outgained their SEC foe both on the ground and through the air.

However, UW was assessed 13 penalties for 133 yards, both Hall of Fame Bowl records. The Badgers also threw two interceptions. Kentucky, which was making its second straight postseason appearance in Birmingham, had no turnovers.

PASADENA, Calif. — The Wisconsin defense forced six turnovers, while the offense churned out 250 yards rushing as the Badgers downed UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. It was the Badgers' first-ever New Year's Day bowl victory.

More than 70,000 Badger fans attended the game and provided a distinct home-field advantage in the Bruins' home facility.

Tailback Brent Moss, the Rose Bowl MVP, helped the UW to a 14-3 halftime lead by scoring on a pair of short runs. Moss rushed for 158 yards on 36 carries.

Wisconsin extended its lead to 21-10 when Darrell Bevell provided the game's most unlikely play. On second down from the UCLA 21, Bevell broke containment and weaved his way to the end zone for the game-winning points.

Trailing 21-16, UCLA's final drive made it to the Badger 18-yard line before Wayne Cook was stopped and the clock expired before the Bruins could run another play.

"The win, as much as it was for our players and coaches, was for our fans," said Coach Barry Alvarez. "They supported us all the way."

TAMPA, Fla. — Senior Terrell Fletcher rushed for a Hall of Fame Bowl-record 241 yards as Wisconsin won its second January bowl game in as many years with a 34-20 triumph over Duke.

Fletcher gained 190 yards and scored two touchdowns in the second half to ice the win. Wisconsin intercepted three passes in the opening half. Jeff Messenger's 19-yard return of one of those pickoffs resulted in the Badgers' first score.

Duke eventually tied the game in the third period before Fletcher took over the contest. Fletcher broke the deadlock with a one-yard run late in the third quarter. Jason Burns extended the margin to 27-13 with an 11-yard reception from Darrell Bevell.

After the Blue Devils cut the margin to seven (27-20) on Robert Baldwin's second score, Fletcher turned a critical third-and-one play into a 49-yard touchdown run to clinch the win.

More than 30,000 fans made the trip to Tampa as UW won its third game in a row and second bowl in two years to close the season 8-3-1.

TUCSON, Ariz. — Freshman tailback Ron Dayne concluded his remarkable rookie season with a 246-yard, three-touchdown performance in Wisconsin's 38-10 win over Utah in the Copper Bowl.

Dayne was named the game's Most Valuable Player. He totalled 152 yards by half-time as the Badgers opened up a commanding 31-3 lead. QB Mike Samuel got the UW on the board with a 38-yard run. After Utah kicked a field goal, Dayne scored (two carries for 77 yards) to give the Badgers a 14-3 lead.

The Utes were driving again when Cyrill Weems intercepted a pass and returned it 82 yards for a TD and a 21-3 bulge. The Badgers' secondary picked off four Mike Fouts passes.

The featured matchup between Dayne and Utah's Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala, the nation's two largest runners, never materialized. The Ute ballcarrier hurt his ankle early in the game.

Badger defensive end Tarek Saleh was game defensive MVP with six tackles, one for a loss, one pass broken up and a blocked field goal. It was the Badgers' third bowl win in four seasons.

TAMPA, Fla. — A potent offense and suffocating defense were on display in Georgia's 33-6 win over the Badgers in the 1998 Outback Bowl.

Buoyed by a game MVP performance from Bulldog QB Mike Bobo (26-28 passing for 235 yards), the Bulldogs scored the game's opening 33 points. UGA completed 89.7 percent of its passes, the best-ever mark vs. a Badger defense.

A 12-yard pass from back-up quarterback Scott Kavanagh to tight end Dague Retzlaff was the Badgers' lone tally.

In a game that featured two of the nation's best runners — Wisconsin's Ron Dayne and Georgia's Robert Edwards — the Bulldog ball-carrier was the most effective. Edwards rushed for 110 yards and, more importantly, scored three TDs.

Georgia's multi-threat receiver Hines Ward caught a bowl-game record 12 passes (122 yards), threw one pass (incomplete) and rushed seven times (for eight yards).

"I don't think we played our best game," Wisconsin Coach Barry Alvarez said. "But I think Georgia had an awful lot to do with that."

PASADENA, Calif. — The 85th Rose Bowl was billed as a battle between Wisconsin's nationally rated defense and UCLA's vaunted offense. In truth, the Badgers' Ron Dayne rambled his way to four touchdowns and the UW defense got a stop in the final minute to earn a hard-fought 38-31 Rose Bowl triumph over the sixth-ranked Bruins.

UCLA's defense struggled to stop Dayne, whose 246 yards rushing were one yard shy of the game record. The Badgers mixed in some timely running (65 yards) and passing (154) from QB Mike Samuel in building a 31-21 lead in the third period.

The Bruins cut the lead to three on Jermaine Lewis' second TD and were driving again when freshman Jamar Fletcher intercepted All-American Cade McNown and returned the pick for a TD.

Once again, UCLA battled back and pulled within 38-31. The Bruins' last drive started on their 46-yard line with 1:42 left. Three incompletions by McNown set up Wendell Bryant's game-clinching sack on fourth down.

More than 55,000 Badger fans enjoyed the school's second Rose Bowl win. Dayne's record-setting performance earned him bowl MVP honors.

PASADENA, Calif. — In what was supposed to be a battle of high-powered offenses, the 86th Rose Bowl game between Wisconsin and Stanford ended up a defensive struggle.

The Badgers, getting a boost from Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne, rallied in the second half for a 17-9 win over the Cardinal. In the process, Wisconsin became the first Big Ten school in history to win the Rose Bowl in back-to-back seasons.

Dayne, whose 64-yard run on the second play of the second half energized the Big Ten champs, gained game MVP honors for the second year in a row. Dayne's stats in his final game as a Badger included 200 yards on 34 carries.

The Badger defense bottled up Stanford's running attack all game and limited the Cardinal to minus five yards rushing (tied for the second-best mark in school history). QB Todd Husak threw for 258 yards, but UW's defense dictated the action for most of the game.

Wisconsin had a 17-9 lead in the second half on TD runs by Dayne and Brooks Bollinger, but it took another defensive stand to clinch the win. Stanford's final drive ended when Husak was sacked on fourth down with just over a minute left.

EL PASO, Texas. — A furious second-half comeback — including big plays on special teams, a turnover from the defense and a balanced offense — contributed to Wisconsin's 21-20 victory over UCLA in the 2000 Sun Bowl.

After falling behind 20-7 with a little more than one-and-a-half quarters left, Michael Bennett turned the momentum with a 54-yard kickoff return. Brooks Bollinger's three-yard TD pass to Chris Chambers brought the Badgers to within 20-14.

On UCLA's next drive, Ben Herbert made a key fourth-down stop on a fake field goal by the Bruins. The Badgers took over on their own 30-yard line and drove for the tying score, a six-yard run by Bennett. Vitaly Pisetsky's conversion was the winning point. The game was far from over.

UCLA had three more possessions, but the Badgers held each time and wrapped up the victory with Jamar Fletcher's interception in the final minute. Bennett was named Special Teams MVP, while UCLA's Freddie Mitchell (9-180) was the game MVP.

Besides Bennett's TD run and Chambers' scoring catch, the Badgers got their other points from Lee Evans (54-yard catch). It was the Badgers' third bowl win over UCLA since 1994.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas — Wisconsin continued its remarkable run of success in bowl games, stunning 14th-ranked Colorado with a come-from-behind 31-28 overtime victory in the Alamo Bowl presented by MasterCard at the Alamodome.

It was the Badgers' seventh bowl win in eight tries.

Mike Allen booted a 37-yard field goal on Wisconsin's first possession of overtime to give the UW the victory. Colorado's Pat Brougham had missed a 45-yard field goal attempt on the Buffaloes' first OT possession.

Brooks Bollinger drove the Badgers 80 yards in 10 plays and capped the march with a 1-yard touchdown run with 51 seconds left in regulation to send the game to overtime. During the final regulation drive, the Badgers converted twice on fourth down.

Wisconsin overcame four turnovers by limiting the high-powered Colorado running game to just 123 yards rushing and 200 yards in total offense. Buffs running back Chris Brown, the nation's third-leading rusher, was held to 97 yards on 28 carries.

The Badgers accumulated 356 yards of total offense, including 99 yards rushing from Davis and 82 on the ground from Bollinger. Bollinger was 12-24 passing for 163 yards and two scores.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Auburn scored twice in the final 3:30 to snap a 14-14 tie and defeat Wisconsin 28-14 in the Music City Bowl at the Coliseum.

It was just the second defeat for the Badgers in nine bowl appearances during the Alvarez era.

Jim Sorgi had connected with Lee Evans on a 12-yard touchdown pass with 8:52 remaining. Sorgi then hit Owen Daniels for a two-point conversion that tied the game at 14.

Wisconsin stopped Auburn on the ensuing possession and drove to midfield before Will Herring intercepted a Sorgi pass at the Auburn 13-yard line. The Tigers then marched 87 yards in six plays, culminating in a 2-yard TD run by Ronnie Brown. The Tigers recovered a Sorgi fumble less than a minute later and iced the game on a one-yard TD run by Cadillac Williams.

Auburn took a 7-6 lead at the half and expanded that edge to 14-6 after three quarters before the Badgers knotted the affair midway through the final quarter.

The Tigers held a 197-58 advantage on the ground and a 354-261 edge in total yards. Auburn had three players -- Williams (68), Jason Campbell (67) and Brown (62) -- rush for at least 60 yards. UW's Anthony Davis ran for 77 yards in his most extensive action since the second game of the season.

Raymond James Stadium

TAMPA, Fla. — A late rally came up just short as the 16th-ranked Wisconsin football team dropped a hard-fought 24-21 loss to No. 7 Georgia in the Outback Bowl at Raymond James Stadium.

The Bulldogs extended their 10-6 lead early in the third quarter by tallying a pair of touchdowns to make it 24-6 with 6:33 left.

One of those TDs came after David Greene's pass deflected off a Bulldog player and into the hands of fullback Jeremy Thomas, who took it in 24 yards for the score.

Wisconsin countered as John Stocco capped a scoring drive with a 19-yard touchdown pass to Darrin Charles, and linebacker Andy Crooks jumped a screen pass and returned it 11 yards for a touchdown with 4:13 remaining.

Stocco completed a pass to Jonathan Orr for a two-point conversion to pull Wisconsin within 24-21.

That was as close as the Badgers would get, though, as Georgia was able to run out the clock to earn the win.

Wisconsin had 230 yards of total offense, compared to 460 for the Bulldogs. Anthony Davis rushed 21 times for 79 yards for the Badgers to finish his career in fifth place on the Big Ten's all-time rushing list. Stocco completed 12-of-27 passes for 170 yards and one TD.

ORLANDO, Fla. — Junior RB Brian Calhoun rushed for 213 yards and a touchdown, and junior QB John Stocco threw for 301 yards and two scores, as Wisconsin defeated seventh-ranked Auburn 24-10 in the Capital One Bowl at Citrus Bowl Stadium.

The Badgers amassed 548 yards of total offense against a Tigers team that entered the contest allowing just 294.09 yards per game, ninth best nationally. They did it behind Calhoun, who became just the second player in Division I-A history to record 1,500 yards rushing and 500 yards receiving in the same season.

They also did it through the strength, poise and agility of Stocco, who connected with Brandon Williams for 173 yards and one TD. That score moved Stocco to No. 1 on the single-season list for TD passes (20) at Wisconsin.

ORLANDO, Fla. — Wisconsin won its school-record 12th game of the season and the 2007 Capital One Bowl with a 17-14 win over Arkansas at Florida Citrus Bowl Stadium. Quarterback John Stocco, who missed the final two games of the regular season, returned to the field for his final game in a Badger uniform and was named the most valuable player of the game.

Stocco completed 14 of his 34 passing attempts for 206 yards and two touchdowns. He finished second to Darrell Bevell among Wisconsin's all-time leaders in passing yards, pass attempts, pass completions, completion percentage and passing touchdowns.

Stocco hit tight end Travis Beckum five times for 82 yards, including a team-long 29 yard reception, and one touchdown. Paul Hubbard and Luke Swan each pulled in four catches. Hubbard finished with 73 yards receiving and one touchdown.

Defensively, Mark Zalewski led the Badger effort with nine tackles while Joe Stellmacher finished with six and three more players, Zach Hampton, Mike Newkirk and Allen Langford, had five apiece. The Wisconsin defense also intercepted two Razorback passes. Hampton picked off his second career interception while DeAndre Levy recorded his first.

TAMPA, Fla. — Despite keeping Tennessee scoreless in the second half, the Wisconsin football team fell to the Volunteers, 21-17. Returning from an injury, P.J. Hill carried the ball 16 times for 132 yards, while quarterback Tyler Donovan finished with 155 passing yards and two touchdowns (one passing, one rushing).

On its opening drive, Tennessee went 66 yards in nine plays, capping off the possession with a 3-yard touchdown run by Gerald Jones. The Badgers responded on their next drive, culminating in a seven-yard scamper by Donovan. Two UT touchdown passes game the Vols a 21-7 lead late in the half but the Badgers closed the deficit to seven after an Andy Crooks TD reception with just over a minute remaining.

A Taylor Mehlhaff 27-yard field goal late in the third quarter accounted for the only points of the second half.

ORLANDO, Fla. — Florida State scored 21 points off of three Wisconsin turnovers – two coming on fumble returns for touchdowns – and the Seminoles went on to a 42-13 victory over the Badgers in the Champs Sports Bowl.

The Badgers and Seminoles battled to a scoreless tie until Florida State's Derek Nicholson returned a fumble 75 yards for a touchdown with 12:33 remaining in the second quarter. The Badgers countered with a 31-yard field goal from Philip Welch leaving the Seminoles with a 7-3 lead. But Florida State got a one-handed, 15-yard TD reception from Greg Carr with seven seconds left to give the 'Noles a 14-3 halftime lead.

Welch kicked a 41-yard field goal with 12:01 left in the third quarter to cut the lead to 14-6, but FSU responded with a 16-play, 85-yard scoring drive that consumed 7:43 and was punctuated by a 6-yard TD run from Antone Smith. The Seminoles scored 21 unanswered points after that.

UW running back P.J. Hill rushed for 140 yards to lead the Badger offense.

ORLANDO, Fla. — John Clay had 121 yards rushing and two touchdowns, powering No. 24 Wisconsin past 14th-ranked Miami 20-14 in the Champs Sports Bowl.

Clay ran through, over and around the Hurricanes to help the Badgers earn their first victory over a ranked opponent this season.

Scott Tolzien threw for a career-high 260 yards, and Montee Ball added 61 yards rushing for Wisconsin.

Clay had all sorts of seams to run through, and he bulldozed his way to the rest of his yards. The Big Ten offensive player of the year ripped through a hole for a 52-yard run, and followed that with his second 3-yard TD run of the game to put Wisconsin ahead 14-7 in the second quarter.

Phillip Welch added a 37-yard field goal with 12 seconds left in the half and a 29-yarder with 4:01 remaining in the game that made it 20-7.

Tight end Lance Kendricks had a career-high 128 receiving yards, becoming just the third UW receiver to go over the 100-yard receiving mark in a bowl game, while his seven receptions tied for the second-most in school history in a bowl game.

PASADENA, Calif. — Linebacker Tank Carder swatted down a 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2 minutes to play, and it helped No. 3 TCU completed a perfect season with its first Rose Bowl victory, 21-19, over fourth-ranked Wisconsin.

The play halted the Badgers' attempt at a fourth-quarter comeback, which nearly came to fruition after Montee Ball capped a 132-yard day by running in for a touchdown from 4 yards out on the end of a 77-yard scoring drive.

Through the air, senior quarterback Scott Tolzien completed 12 of 21 passes for 159 yards to finish the season with a Big Ten-record completion percentage of 72.9 percent. Ball's score was the only points of the second half for Wisconsin, which also held TCU to a single second-half TD.

The two teams combined for a Rose Bowl-record 24 first quarter points. The Badgers kicked a field goal after marching 55 yards on eight plays on their game-opening drive, a 30-yarder from Phillip Welch. TCU answered with a 23-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Andy Dalton to Bart Johnson on its first possession, jumping out to a 7-3 lead. Clay countered with a 1-yard touchdown run on UW's next drive to help the Badgers regain the lead, but Dalton quickly put the Frogs back out front on a 4-yard run of his own.

PASADENA, Calif. — When the clock ran out on Wisconsin's attempt at a rally in the final seconds of the fourth quarter, the 0:00 showing on the scoreboard added up to a 45-38 win for the Oregon Ducks in the highest-scoring game in Rose Bowl history.

An official video review concluded that Russell Wilson's attempt to stop the clock after a first-down completion took longer than the 2 seconds with which he had to work. Wilson completed 19 of 25 passes for 295 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He added a rushing TD, as well.

Junior running back Montee Ball left his stamp on the NCAA record book, rushing for his 39th touchdown to tie Barry Sanders' mark for total TDs in a season. The Heisman Trophy finalist finished the game with 164 yards on 32 carries.

The Badgers led five separate times in the game as the teams traded punches, but UW couldn't muster another trip to the end zone after the Ducks opened the fourth quarter with a score.

Wisconsin coughed up a pair of uncharacteristic turnovers in the second half and gave up 621 yards to an Oregon offense that proved its ability to score quickly -- an affinity specifically showcased by speedster De'Anthony Thomas on touchdown runs of 91 and 64 yards.

Retired Numbers

Elroy Hirsch

Elroy Hirsch played only one season (1942) at UW, but he was one of the most beloved sports figures in school history. Hirsch, nicknamed "Crazylegs," rushed for 786 yards for Wisconsin's 8-1-1 team in 1942. He starred for nine years with the L.A. Rams and later served as UW's Director of Athletics (1969-87).

40

Alan Ameche

Alan Ameche, the 1954 Heisman Trophy winner, was a three-time All-American and ended his career as the NCAA's all-time rushing leader. He led the Badgers to the 1953 Rose Bowl and rushed for 133 yards in that game. The four-time NFL Pro Bowl pick was inducted into the College Hall of Fame in 1975.

35

Allan Shafer

The memory of former quarterback Allan Shafer is continued with the "Living Memorial" Scholarship that is given in his name. Shafer was fatally injured during the 1944 Wisconsin-Iowa game. Shafer is one of two Badgers (Jay Seiler is the other) to die from a football-related injury.

Pat Richter

Pat Richter, Wisconsin's last nine-time letterwinner, was a two-time All-American end who led the Badgers to the 1962 Big Ten title and starred in the famed 1963 Rose Bowl. Richter went on to play in the NFL for the Washington Redskins and later, as UW Director of Athletics, led the Department of Athletics through a revival in the 1990s. He is a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame, the CoSIDA Academic All-American Hall of Fame and is a recipient of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award.

88

Dave Schreiner

Dave Schreiner, the two-time All-America end, was named Western Conference Player of the Year in 1942. Schreiner lettered three years at the UW as an end, both on offense and defense. He is a member of the National Football Foundation and W Club Halls of Fame. He was voted to the UW's all-time team in 1969.

80

Ron Dayne

In 2007 Wisconsin officially retired the number of one of college football's most dominant running backs. Ron Dayne (1996-99), the NCAA's all-time leading rusher, totaled 6,397 yards (excluding bowl games) in four seasons at Wisconsin. He won the 1999 Heisman Trophy and was a member of 1999 and 2000 Rose Bowl Championship teams.

CoSIDA Academic All-America All-Time Team

Four former Badger football greats were named to the Academic All-America All-Time team at the College Sports Information Directors of America convention in 1998. Fullback Alan Ameche was a first-team choice and center Ken Bowman, defensive lineman Don Davey and defensive back Dale Hackbart were named to the second team. All four Badgers are former Academic All-Americans. Davey, a native of Manitowoc, Wis., is the only four-time Academic All-America pick in university-division history.

Academic All-America Hall of Famers

Two former Badger gridiron stars (Alan Ameche and Pat Richter) have been inducted into the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame.

To gain admittance to the Hall, student-athletes must be former Academic All-Americans who distinguished themselves off the playing field after graduation.

Ameche, who played professionally after graduation, retired in Philadelphia after his career and became one of the city's philanthropic leaders. Richter played pro football in Washington before returning to the UW to earn his law degree. He worked at a Madison law firm and at Oscar Meyer before his appointment as Director of Athletics at the University of Wisconsin.

NCAA Post-Graduate Scholars

The NCAA annually awards post-graduate scholarships to student-athletes who excel academically and athletically and who are in their last year of collegiate competition. Thirty-five scholarships each year go to football players (13 to Div. I-A players). Wisconsin's recipients are listed below.

Overtime Games

Wisconsin has compiled a 5-2 overall record in seven overtime games. The Badgers played their first overtime game in 1999 and played four more over the next four years. It would be six seasons before they played in another one. Incidentally, Wisconsin and Illinois played the last NCAA Division IA tie game, a 3-3 deadlock in Madison on Nov. 25, 1995. Overtime was instituted in 1996. Below are descriptions of Wisconsin's seven overtime games.

October 9, 1999:

Wisconsin 20, at Minnesota 17

Vitaly Pisetsky kicked a 31-yard field goal in overtime to give Wisconsin a 20-17 victory over the Golden Gophers. Pisetsky had tied the game with a 36-yard field goal with 2:59 remaining in regulation. It was the first overtime game in school history and came with head coach Barry Alvarez resting in the Mayo Clinic after knee surgery. Wisconsin began the OT on defense and shut down Minnesota thanks to 15 yards in penalties and an interception by Jamar Fletcher. The Badger offense then advanced the ball to the Golden Gopher nine-yard line to set up the winning kick.

September 16, 2000:

at Wisconsin 28, Cincinnati 25

Backup tailback Eddie Faulkner scored on a 16-yard run in overtime to give Wisconsin a come-from-behind, 28-25 victory over Cincinnati. Minus five starters due to NCAA-imposed suspensions, the Badgers trailed much of the game before Vitaly Pisetsky's 40-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter tied the game at 13. The Bearcats made it 19-13 on a 51-yard TD pass (PAT no good) before Wisconsin responded with QB Brooks Bollinger's one-yard TD run for a 22-19 edge. UC sent the game to overtime with a field goal at the end of regulation. The Bearcats then took a 25-22 lead in overtime before Faulkner's winning run.

September 23, 2000:

Northwestern 47, at Wisconsin 44 (2 ot)

Wisconsin played its second consecutive overtime game, but dropped a 47-44 shootout in double overtime to visiting Northwestern. RB Michael Bennett carried 48 times for 293 yards, but it wasn't enough to overcome a turnover-free effort by the Wildcats. Kicker Vitaly Pisetsky gave the Badgers a 34-31 lead with 51 seconds left in regulation, but Northwestern took the ensuing possession and got a 46-yard field goal as time expired to send the game to the extra session. Each team scored a touchdown in the first overtime. Wisconsin then settled for a Pisetsky field goal in the second overtime to set up a game-winning, 12-yard run by Damien Anderson.

October 21, 2000:

Purdue 30, at Wisconsin 24

Ashante Woodyard returned a blocked field goal for the game-winning touchdown in overtime as Purdue defeated Wisconsin, 30-24. It was the Badgers' third overtime game of the 2000 season, equalling an NCAA record. Purdue's Craig Terrill blocked Vitaly Pisetsky's 58-yard field goal attempt on the Badgers' first overtime possession and Woodyard scooped up the ball for the score. Wisconsin, behind QB Jim Sorgi (who was making his first career start), had come from behind to tie the game with 3:50 remaining in regulation on a five-yard TD catch by John Sigmund. Purdue won the overtime coin toss and elected to play defense. UW lost 15 yards on three plays, setting up Pisetsky's long-range attempt.

December 28, 2002:

Wisconsin 31, Colorado 28

(Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, Texas)

Mike Allen booted a 37-yard field goal to give Wisconsin a 31-28 upset victory in overtime against 14th-ranked Colorado in the 2002 Alamo Bowl. Allen's game-winning kick came on the Badgers' first overtime possession and after Colorado's Pat Brougham had missed a 45-yard field goal attempt on the Buffs' first OT possession. Quarterback Brooks Bollinger drove the Badgers 80 yards in 10 plays and capped the march with a one-yard touchdown run with 51 seconds left in regulation to send the game to the extra session. During the final regulation drive, the Badgers converted twice on fourth down.

November 22, 2008:

at Wisconsin 36, Cal Poly 35

The Badgers got a 6-yard touchdown run from John Clay and an extra point from Philip Welch in overtime to key a 36-35 victory over Cal Poly. The Mustangs led 29-21 as Wisconsin took over at its own 11-yard line with 4:00 left to play. Dustin Sherer directed a nine-play, 89-yard scoring drive that ended with a 3-yard touchdown run from P.J. Hill with 1:42 left. Hill then scored on a 2-point conversion run to tie the game at 29. The Mustangs had the ball first in OT and scored on a touchdown pass from quarterback Jonathan Dally to Ramses Barden on their first play. Cal Poly's Andrew Gardner then missed the PAT to set up the Badger win.

September 12, 2009:

at Wisconsin 34, Fresno State 31 (2 OT)

After battling it out in two overtimes, Wisconsin kicker Philip Welch drilled a 22-yard field goal attempt to give the Badgers the 34-31 win over Fresno State. Kevin Goessling kicked a 41-yard field goal with 16 seconds left in regulation to force the extra frames. Nick Toon caught a six-yard touchdown pass on UW's possession in the first overtime, but the Bulldogs countered as Seyi Ajirotutu caught a seven-yard strike from Ryan Colburn to force a second overtime. In double overtime, senior captain Chris Maragos intercepted Colburn in the end zone to give the Badgers the ball back and set up the game-winning field goal.

Badger Football Glossary

Ameche, Alan ‘The Horse’

Born in Italy as Lino Dante Ameche, the future Heisman Trophy winner changed his name to Alan at age 16. Lino, in his mind, was not rugged enough. Widely respected for his strength as a youth, he won the light heavyweight Golden Gloves novice boxing championship of Kenosha by default. All of his rivals dropped out after learning Ameche had entered the tournament.

During his college recruitment, he was being heavily pressured to attend Notre Dame by Fred Miller, the philanthropic owner of Milwaukee’s Miller Brewing Co. Wisconsin partisans, however, threatened a boycott against the buying and consumption of Miller beer if Ameche attended Notre Dame. Under threat of boycott, Miller backed off and Ameche signed with Wisconsin.

In 1953, when rule changes made it necessary for him to be an all-purpose player, Ameche played defense with such ferocity that he ended up playing 55 minutes or more in each game, prompting a nickname, ‘The Iron Horse.’ Ameche, drafted by Baltimore, eventually turned down a lucrative offer to join the pro wrestling tour and signed with the Colts. He led the NFL in rushing his first season and was named Rookie of the Year.

Ameche died following heart surgery in 1988 at the age of 55.

Artificial Turf

The artificial turf at Camp Randall Stadium was first installed in 1968 when Wisconsin became the second school in the nation to install Tartan Turf. Designed by the 3M Company, the original turf cost $210,000 and was funded by the UW Parking and Transportation Board in exchange for permission to convert practice fields on the north end of Camp Randall into a 500-car parking lot.

The initial surface turned black in some areas when the green fiber tips broke off, so 3M sprayed the field green for the 1969 season. Camp Randall Stadium’s playing surface was replaced prior to Wisconsin’s 1998 Big Ten championship season. At the same time, the school replaced the playing surface in the McClain Athletic Center, too.

During the summer of 2003, Wisconsin contracted with FieldTurf to install its product in Camp Randall Stadium and the McClain Center. The FieldTurf product is the playing surface of choice for a number of major college and professional stadiums. The turf includes a sand and ground up rubber base that leads to excellent drainage in wet conditions and a soft, non-abrasive condition to cushion falls. Yardage numerals and hash marks are glued in, and the red endzone names and center Motion W were manufactured according to UW color specs and added in the fall of 2004.

Badger Nickname

The team’s nickname, ‘Badgers,’ was borrowed from the state of Wisconsin. The territory was dubbed the ‘Badger State,’ not because of animals in the region, but rather an association with lead miners in the 1820s. Prospectors came to the state looking for minerals. Without shelter in the winter, the miners had to ‘live like badgers’ in tunnels burrowed into hillsides.

Bakken, Jim

Jim Bakken, a former kicker with the St. Louis Cardinals, set a UW record with six field goal attempts vs. Minnesota in 1961. Bakken served as an administrator in the Badger athletic department before his retirement in 2003.

Band caps

When a Badger team wins an athletic contest, members of the band turn their hats around and wear them backwards. The practice started in the 1920s to symbolize the band looking back at the victory in days when they marched out with the departing crowd.

Bucky Badger

Badgers in various forms have been recognized as the school mascot for decades. The version currently known as Bucky, sporting a cardinal and white letter sweater, was first drawn in 1940 by artist Art Evans. At that time, the badger went by names like Benny, Buddy, Bernie, Bobby and Bouncey. Art Lentz, the department's publicity director, had the idea to bring the mascot to life.

The original badger mascot was too vicious to control. On more than one occasion, the live badger escaped handlers before a sideline hero recaptured the animal with a flying tackle. It was decided in the interest of fan and player safety that Wisconsin's mascot be retired to the Madison Zoo. The Badger Yearbook replaced the live badger with a small raccoon named Regdab (badger backwards) and passed it off as a 'badger in a raccoon coat.'

In 1949, a student in the university's art department, Connie Conrad, was commissioned to mold a paper-mache badger head. Gymnast and cheerleader, Bill Sagal, of Plymouth, Wis., was directed by homecoming chair Bill Sachse, to wear the outfit at the homecoming game. A contest was staged to name the popular mascot. The winner was Buckingham U. Badger, or Bucky. The name apparently came from the lyrics in a song which encouraged the football team to 'buck right through that line.'

Bucky Badger has persevered through the years, even surviving a threat by then assistant attorney general, Howard Koop, in 1973. He suggested that Bucky be replaced by Henrietta Holstein, a loveable cow. Koop argued that 'kids love cows. A generation could grow up supporting the university and Henrietta Holstein.' Koop's effort to overthrow Bucky failed.

Bucky even survived a cameo appearance by former Sports Illustrated writer Rick Telander. In preparation for a book about the athletic department, Telander wore Bucky's costume at a '91 volleyball game. Telander overcame 'terminal claustrophobia' in his appearance.

Bud Song

An integral part of any Wisconsin band performance is the playing of the Bud song. The tune is a spinoff of the song 'You've Said It All,' a jingle with words and music originally written by Steve Karmen for Budweiser beer commercials. Copyrighted by Sandlee Publishing Corporation in 1970, the song has become legendary at the University because of its polka-like rhythm. Band director Michael Leckrone said the song's popularity got started at a 1975 hockey game. 'The crowd wanted to hear a polka,' he said. 'I didn't have any polkas. We had, just by accident, this beer commercial in the tunes we play. I told the band if we substituted the word 'Wisconsin' for 'Budweiser' it would work.'

Leckrone said the song became a football tradition after a 1978 come-from-behind victory over Oregon. "Wisconsin was behind by three touchdowns, and the crowd was really dead. I played the song to get everyone pepped up. About 20 seconds after that, Wisconsin scored a TD. I played it again, and Wisconsin scored another touchdown. From then on, the band could never play enough 'Bud,'" said Leckrone.

Colors

The University of Wisconsin Athletic Department's official colors are Cardinal and White. PMS 200 is the designated color of the cardinal.

Fifth Quarter

The Wisconsin band has become nationally famous for its post-game celebration called the Fifth Quarter. Win or lose, fans sing, dance and cheer with the band as they play traditional favorites, like 'On, Wisconsin' and the Bud song. Originally, the post-game concert was designed to give the fans something to listen to on their way out of the stadium, but it developed into a post-game party as the band built in audience participation activities.

Graduating Law Students

At the homecoming game, graduating law students throw canes over the crossbar of the goal post in a pre-game ceremony. If students catch their cane, legend claims they will win their first case. If the cane is dropped, the case will be lost. The custom originated at Harvard and came to the UW-Madison in 1910.

“Hard Rocks”

The 1951 Wisconsin defense, known as the ‘Hard Rocks,’ led the country in total defense (154.8 per game) and was second in rushing defense (66.8). That defense allowed only 5.9 points per game and actually outscored the opponents 58-53 for the season. The defense was so terrorizing that the athletic department received a letter from one fan asking Wisconsin to ‘punt on first down’ so he could see more of the defensive platoon.

Eight of the nine seniors on the ‘Hard Rocks’ scored in their careers. The ninth, Bill Lane, came close. With Indiana backed up deep in its own territory for a punt, the seniors told Lane they would refrain from rushing in order to form a wedge, or ‘meatchopper,’ for him to run behind and score. Much to the seniors’ dismay, freshman Don Voss missed the call and blocked the punt.

After the season, the defensive platoon challenged the offense in a charity game with one interesting twist. The offensive team could have the ball all the time, since the defense felt it could outscore its opponents even without the ball.

Heartland Trophy

The hotly -- and evenly -- contested Wisconsin-Iowa football series was missing just one thing until 2004: a trophy for the annual winner. The Heartland Trophy is the statue of a bull that measures 30 inches tall, 36 inches long and 18 inches deep. It was designed and produced by artist Frank Strub, a former Iowa football player living in Des Moines. “The trophy is a terrific opportunity to further showcase a great Midwestern college football rivalry,” said UW Director of Athletics Barry Alvarez. “Playing for the Heartland Trophy adds another dimension to what is already a highly anticipated competition for college football bragging rights.” A fake punt from Brad Nortman and a touchdown run from Montee Ball with just over a minute left gave the Badgers a 31-30 comeback victory at Iowa in 2010, giving UW possession of the Heartland Trophy for the first time since 2007. The win tied the all-time series up at 42-42-2.

Hirsch, Elroy “Crazylegs”

Though he only played one season in Madison, Hirsch’s legacy grew through 18 years as athletic director and many more as a goodwill ambassador.

Hirsch was first tagged ‘Crazylegs’ on Sept. 26, 1942, after a 60-yard touchdown run vs. Notre Dame prompted a local writer to say, ‘His crazy legs were gyrating.’ After leaving Wisconsin, he starred for nine seasons with the Los Angeles Rams.

During those days in L.A., he kept busy by making three movies, including ‘Crazylegs, All-American’ in which he portrayed himself. After retiring as a player, he worked in the Rams’ front office before returning to Madison as athletic director from 1969-1987.

His No. 40, the number he wore at every stop in his football career but one, is retired at Wisconsin. Because of a mandatory league numbering system he wore No. 80 (double-40) for the Chicago Rockets, but had the No. 40 stitched on the inside of his jersey.

Hirsch passed away on Jan. 28, 2004 of natural causes. “There was never a more loved and admired ambassador for Badger Sports than Elroy Hirsch,” said Athletic Director Pat Richter. “He loved life, loved people, and loved the Badgers.”

Jump Around*

Wisconsin’s 31-24 victory over Purdue on October 10, 1998, is memorable mostly for Boilermaker quarterback Drew Brees’s NCAA-record 83 passing attempts (and NCAA record-tying 55 completions) and freshman Jamar Fletcher’s 52-yard interception return for a touchdown in the third quarter that provided the winning margin. The game is memorable, however, for another reason: it was the beginning of “Jump Around.”

Kevin Kluender was in his second year as an assistant marketing director at Wisconsin that fall. Kluender’s job at Badger home games was to cue up music and to work in conjunction with public address man Mike Mahnke. That season marked the debut of the “student section race,” a mock competition run on the stadium scoreboard in which the letters representing the student sections at Camp Randall Stadium (K, L, M, N, O and P) raced against each other. The race, always run at the end of the third quarter, was usually followed by music that Kluender selected. Ryan Sondrup, a former Badger football player and then volunteer in the athletic marketing office, had (along with some other Badgers) come up with a list of contemporary music to be played in the stadium during games. That evening Kluender chose “Jump Around,” a song released in 1992 by a group called House of Pain.

“I remember thinking maybe the students would get into it,” Kluender recalled. “I initially turned my back to the field while the song was playing, but I saw people in the press box pointing out to the field. I turned back around and it looked like popcorn popping.” Indeed, the student section (which included Sondrup that night) had embraced the song by doing just what it said: jumping around. Since that game against Purdue, fans all over the stadium have taken to jumping to the hip-hop tune. Kluender, however, is not completely comfortable with taking credit for introducing "Jump Around" to Camp Randall Stadium. "The song was already in our computer when I got to Wisconsin," Kluender said. "I'm sure it had been played before. But that Purdue game was the first time we did it in the format that we've maintained over the years."

Marek, Billy

The three-time, first-team, all-Big Ten running back wasn't recruited to play high school football because he had Osgood Schlatter disease (a knee ailment that affected teenagers) and didn't play seventh and eighth grade football.

The 5-foot-8 Marek carried the ball only once as a freshman at the UW, then put together three consecutive 1,200-yard seasons. In danger of falling shy of 1,000 yards in 1974 after missing nearly three full games with injuries, Marek rushed for 704 yards in the final three games, including 304 and five touchdowns in a 49-14 rout of Minnesota. His play earned him Sports Illustrated's national offensive back of the week honors.

Marek was at the center of an April Fool's Day joke played by Wisconsin State Journal columnist Tom Butler in 1975. Butler wrote a tongue-in-cheek piece about moving the Big Ten's leading rusher to the defensive secondary for his senior season. The article ended with the phrase, 'April Fools!' Unfortunately, wire service reporters did not make it to the last line, and called head coach John Jardine's house for confirmation. The AP eventually moved the story on its national wire for about a half-an-hour before the hoax was discovered.

Motion "W"

When Barry Alvarez came to Madison, he decided that the helmet logo needed to be updated to signal a new era in Wisconsin football. He entertained 15-20 different designs in 1990 before Rayovac artist Rick Suchanek developed the 'Motion W,' which included a tail at the back of the logo. Alvarez thought the tail was a bit much, but when it was removed, decided to go with it. The University bought the rights to the design, and the logo has been adopted by all other UW sports.

O'Dea, Pat

One of several Wisconsin greats from the pre-modern era of college football is kicker Pat O'Dea. The Australian-born O'Dea came to Madison in 1896 to join his brother Andy, who was crew coach and football trainer. Known as the 'Kangaroo Kicker,' O'Dea brought a different style to the American game of football. He learned to play the Australian game where all punting and drop-kicking was done on the run. O'Dea drop-kicked a legendary 62-yard field goal vs. Northwestern during a heavy blizzard. After his playing days, he coached at Notre Dame and Missouri before moving to San Francisco. O'Dea, who essentially had disappeared, was thought to have joined an Australian contingent which travelled through the country. Press releases surmised that he 'probably lies beneath an unmarked grave in France.'

The truth was, he had moved to California under the assumed name of Charles J. Mitchell, to escape the pressure of being a star ex-athlete. 'Probably, I was wrong,' he said in an interview with San Francisco sportswriter Bill Leiser after the 17-year exile. 'I wanted to get away from my past. As Pat O'Dea, I seemed very much just an ex-football player. I was very happy as Charles Mitchell for awhile.'

"On, Wisconsin"

The tune was originally composed in 1909 by Chicago's William Purdy, and the words were written by Carl Beck. Purdy and Beck had been fraternity brothers at Hamilton College (Clinton, N.Y.) and were roommates in Chicago. Purdy was going to submit the song for a $100 prize that the University of Minnesota was offering for a new football song. When Beck heard the music, he offered to write words and suggested that Purdy offer it to Wisconsin, where Beck had once studied. The song was an instant hit on campus and spread throughout the world. It was especially popular with military bands.

Some 2,500 schools have adopted the music and changed the words to suit their needs. 'On, Wisconsin' was sung for the first time at the 1909 homecoming game vs. Minnesota.

The music was adapted by current Band Director Michael Leckrone in 1969. The original version had been played virtually unchanged since its inception. 'I got a lot of flak for that,' Leckrone said. 'The old version was one you had to wait on. I wanted to generate immediate crowd reaction, so I stepped it up a bit.'

On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin

Plunge right through that line,
Run the ball clear down the field, boys
Touchdown sure this time
On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Fight on for her fame,
Fight, Fellows, Fight, Fight, Fight
We'll win this game!

Paul Bunyan Axe

The most-played rivalry in Division I football continues this fall when Wisconsin and Minnesota meet. The UW-UM series is the nation's oldest and has been played continuously for since 1890 (except for 1906). The game has alternated sites between the university campuses since 1946. Much prestige was always associated with the game, and the significance was emphasized with its place on the schedule. Between 1933 and 1982, the Wisconsin-Minnesota game was always the final regular-season contest for each school.

The series took an added twist in 1948 when more than state bragging rights were on the line. After a 16-0 setback that season, the Wisconsin lettermen's group, the National 'W' Club, presented Minnesota with an axe wielded by Paul Bunyan. He was the mythical giant of Midwestern lumber camps. Each year since, the winner of the annual battle between the Big Ten rivals is presented with the axe, complete with scores inscribed on the handle, for display on its campus.

Slab of Bacon

The Slab of Bacon trophy was the precursor to Paul Bunyan's Axe as the prize in the Wisconsin-Minnesota football series. Apparently, the trophy was presented to the winning school by a sorority from the losing institution. The trophy was discontinued in the 1940s and was discovered in a storage room at the UW Department of Athletics in 1994. It is currently housed in the football office at Wisconsin. 'We took home the bacon,' Coach Barry Alvarez said, 'and kept it.'

Sculptures

Two of the most significant figures in Wisconsin football history are permanent fixtures in front (Gate 1) of Camp Randall Stadium. Life-size sculptures of former head coach and current Director of Athletics Barry Alvarez and former player and Director of Athletics Pat Richter stand as reminders to all Badger fans of the roles the pair had in turning UW Athletics around during the 1990s. The silicon bronze Alvarez sculpture is six feet, one inch tall and weighs approximately 300 pounds. The sculptor was Lou Cella of Timeless Creations, Inc., who created the piece at The Studio of Rotblatt Amrany in Highwood, Ill. The sculpture of Richter was done by Sean M. Bell, also at The Studio of Rotblatt Amrany.

"Varsity"

The traditional arm-waving at the end of the song, 'Varsity,' was the 1934 brainstorm of band leader Ray Dvorak. He saw Pennsylvania students wave their caps after losing a game. Dvorak later instructed Wisconsin students to salute UW President Glenn Frank after each game.

Var-sity! Var-sity! U-rah-rah! Wisconsin!
Praise to thee we sing
Praise to thee our Alma Mater
U-rah-rah, Wisconsin!

All-Alvarez Team

Late during the 2005 season, as the head coaching career of Wisconsin's Barry Alvarez was winding down, the Capital Times set out to choose an All-Alvarez Team. Ballots were sent out to more than 50 prospective voters, selected to represent a wide range of eras, position groups, experience with and perspective on the program. Voters could choose from an inclusive list of candidates at each position, with a set limit of selections (one tailback, two receivers, three linebackers, etc.) representative of a traditional football lineup. In addition, the ballot included a line for write-ins at every position. To account for an overload of top-notch players at any one position, a wildcard category (in which two additional players could be named to the team) was created. Ballots were tabulated by Capital Times reporter Jim Polzin, who brainstormed the All-Alvarez Team.

Wisconsin and The Polls

The Badgers have been ranked as the nation's No. 1 squad once in their history. That was on Oct. 7, 1952, after a 20-6 win over Illinois. The Badgers lost the next week to Ohio State but went on to a 6-3-1 record and a Rose Bowl berth.

Camp Randall Stadium

Camp Randall History

The centerpiece of Wisconsin athletics, Camp Randall Stadium has been at the heart of the university since 1917. Home to the Wisconsin Badger football team, the most recent renovation of the stadium was completed in 2005, offering the teams and fans a state of the art football experience.

Harboring the popular bowl shape structure, Camp Randall is one of the nation's oldest and most historic stadiums. Camp Randall is the fourth-oldest stadium among NCAA Bowl Subdivision schools. Only Georgia Tech, Mississippi State and Cincinnati are older. In terms of capacity, the stadium is the 17th-largest in the nation and is the fourth-largest in the Big Ten.

Prior to its use as a football stadium, the land was used for the training of Wisconsin troops during wartime, and was named after Wisconsin's first wartime governor, Alexander W. Randall.

In the early days of the state of Wisconsin, the 50-acre plot bounded by University Avenue, Breese Terrace, Monroe Street and North Randall was owned by the Wisconsin State Agricultural Society. State Fairs, races, and other community events were held where the present day stadium rests. After the Civil War began escalating, the society donated the land to the state to use as a training ground for troops. Soldiers first moved into the area on May 1, 1861.

In the matter of a year, more than 70,000 of the state's troops were trained there at one time or another. In 1862, sick and wounded Confederate soldiers were held at Camp Randall and those that perished were laid to rest on Madison's west side. The area known as "soldier's rest" is the northernmost confederate cemetery in the United States.

In 1893 the land was going to be put up for sale for building lots, but the war veterans sounded their voice, and the state legislature purchased the land from a group of Madison business owners for $25,000. The land was immediately turned over to the university. The famous Memorial Arch was constructed in 1911 at the same price that the land was purchased for. The cannons that are still present today were mounted in 1913. During WWI and WWII troops were again stationed at the site for training before being sent abroad to defend the United States.

The local veteran's group proceeded to write a petition to the Wisconsin Board of Regents in hopes to keep the "Camp Randall" title for the field. Their petition was granted and the site was first used for athletic events in 1894 as track and field events took place. The first football game was played at the site the following year.

For the first 20 years of use, the stadium was occupied with rented bleachers on the east and west sides that were able to hold around 3,000 people. There are reports that nearly 15,000 people would regularly attend football games filling in the standing room surrounding the field.

Work began in 1915 after seven years of petitioning to the state legislature in order to receive the necessary funds to construct a permanent football stadium. The work was slow and immediately fell behind schedule. While playing Minnesota during the fall of 1915, the east-side bleachers collapsed and injured hundreds of spectators. The accident caught the attention of the legislature and the new concrete seating was soon under construction.

The first section of seating was built on the hill along Breese Terrace. The hill was used as the foundation for the bleacher section on the west side of the playing surface. The 40 rows of bleachers, seating close to 10,000 fans, were ready in time for the 1917 opener against Beloit. The stadium wasn't officially dedicated until the homecoming game against Minnesota on November 3, 1917. The Badgers beat the Gophers 34-0 in front of a capacity crowd of 10,000 fans.

Over the next seven years, the stadium gradually removed the temporary wooden bleachers and added concrete seats. In 1924, the capacity had reached 33,000 and there were now seats on all four sides of the field.

Over the next 15 years, more and more pieces were added as money became available. In 1940, more seating was installed and the seating capacity had grown to 45,000 with the UW Field House enclosing the south end of the field.

An interesting use of the stadium in the 1940s was the inclusion of dormitories for students and military personnel. The WPA (Works Progress Administration), initiated by President Franklin D. Roosevelt to help pull the nation out of depression, constructed the dorms underneath the east-side bleachers. There was enough room for 150 men to live as well as a rifle range and boxing and wrestling rooms.

The dorms were initially occupied by naval trainees and, after the war, the dorms were occupied by student veterans. The living quarters were named the Schreiner and Baumann houses in honor of two UW students that were killed in Okinawa during WWII. The dorms were closed in 1951 and converted into offices for the extension department and later became the home to the athletic and military departments.

In 1950, plans for adding an additional 10,000 seats began. At the cost of $569,000 the bleachers in the north end were to be raised to the same level as those in the west and east sides. The project took over a year due to material shortages after the war and an extremely harsh winter. The seats were completed in 1951 and the stadium was now able to hold 55,000 people, but was still one of the smallest in the Big Ten.

After near capacity crowds over the next few seasons, the Board of Regents decided to lower the field and add 10,000 more seats. These new seats would eliminate the track and most of the new seats would be placed along the sidelines. By 1958, the $482,000 project was completed and the capacity had increased to 63,710.

The stadium proved adequate during the 1950s and early 1960s. In 1964, the regents decided to add more seating after a number of successful seasons had brought more and more people to the stadium. This time, the plan was to go up. The second deck along the west side was to be constructed with the addition of a press box (freeing up more seats in the bleachers). The project was completed in time for the 1965 season and brought the capacity up to 77,745.

Camp Randall remained virtually untouched for over 35 years until the most recent renovation began in 2001. The $109.5 million project was completed in 2005 raising the capacity to where it currently rests at 80,321.

Recent additions include the premium seating structure above the east side bleachers, the new Kellner Hall office building, the Athletic Operations Building, the football offices, the McGinnis Family Athletic Ticket Office, new visiting team lockers, the Camp Randall Media Room, and renovations and upgrades to the press box.

The new structure on the east side includes 72 suites, 337 club seats and 590 varsity indoor seats. The Communications Center built in 1965 is now remodeled and includes areas for media, game personnel and university department officials and was renamed the Evjue Communications Center after the recent renovation. The Kellner Hall building, which is attached to the east bleachers and the Field House, is home to the Athletic Department and Ticket Office.

Since its inception, Camp Randall has seen three different playing surfaces. From 1917-1989 the surface was a natural grass playing field. In 1990 artificial turf was installed and a computerized scoreboard was added in 1992. During the recent renovation two video replay scoreboards and a new sound system were installed. In 2004, the turf was replaced with the current rubber composite, FieldTurf system. That FieldTurf was replaced prior to the 2012 season.

Camp Randall is one of college football's most storied stadiums with a rich history of service and over 90 years of football. Camp Randall is not solely used by the Wisconsin football team. Since 1982 all WIAA state football championship games have been held at the stadium. Camp Randall has also played host to outdoor concerts, the Drum Corps International, Green Bay Packer exhibition games, and other large public events.

The 25 Greatest Moments in Camp Randall History

(Used with permission from KCI Sports Ventures, LLC, which published a book of the same name written by Mike Lucas in 2005)

25. Oct. 27, 1984 • Wisconsin 16, Ohio St. 14

The Badgers upset the sixth-ranked Buckeyes behind the stellar play of RB Marck Harrison and LB Craig Raddatz. Harrison rushed for 203 yards while Raddatz recorded two interceptions and 11 tackles.

24. Nov. 12, 1932 • Wisconsin 20, Minnesota 13

The man of many positions, Walter Francis “Mickey Himself” McGuire, in his final home game as a Badger scored all three touchdowns as Wisconsin beat national powerhouse Minnesota. McGuire scored on the opening kickoff and closed the day by catching the game-winning touchdown pass with nine seconds to play.

23. Oct. 3, 1970 • Wisconsin 29, Penn State 16

Coach John Jardine earned his first win as a Badger, beating No. 17 Penn State prior to their joining the Big Ten along with hall-of-fame coach Joe Paterno in a non-conference battle.

22. Nov. 22, 1952 • Wisconsin 21, Minnesota 21

With the tie against rival Minnesota, the Badgers earned a share of the Big Ten title and advanced to their first Rose Bowl appearance. The Badgers then fell 7-0 to USC on New Year’s Day.

21. Oct. 3, 1992 • Wisconsin 20, Ohio St. 16

The Badgers beat No. 12 Ohio St. earning their first win over a ranked opponent in seven years as well as their first conference opening win in 11 years.

20. Oct. 17, 1959 • Wisconsin 25, Iowa 16

By beating the Hawkeyes, Wisconsin started their march towards their first out-right Big Ten title and to the 1960 Rose Bowl. The win was also coach Milt Bruhn’s first at the helm of the Badgers.

19. Oct. 16, 1971 • Wisconsin 31, Michigan St. 28

The “Dance Revolution” was at its peak as Rufus “Roadrunner” Ferguson led the team in rushing with 1,222 yards in 1971. The win over Michigan State was the first for Wisconsin in 10 years.

18. Nov. 23, 2002 • Wisconsin 49, Minnesota 31

Anthony Davis, who rushed for 301 yards and five TD’s, became only the third Badger to rush for more than 300 yards in a game. Walk-on sophomore, Jim Leonhard, had two interceptions breaking the school record for picks in a season (11).

17. Sept. 30, 1978 • Wisconsin 22, Oregon 19

Third-string quarterback, Mike Kalasmiki came into the game after second-stringer, Charles Green, wasn’t able to produce any offense who replaced injured John Josten early in the first quarter. Kalasmiki directed a 22-point run in the final 10:29 to mark one of the most memorable comebacks in UW history.

16. Nov. 10, 1951 • Wisconsin 16, Pennsylvania 7

The famous “Hard Rocks” defense recovered a fumble in the end zone, returned an interception for a touchdown and recorded a safety to propel the Badgers past Ivy League opponent, Pennsylvania. Including extra points and field goals, the “Hard Rocks” outscored their opponents 58-53 during the 1951 season.

15. Sept. 9, 2000 • Wisconsin 27, Oregon 23

After recording only 24 yards on the ground and trailing 6-0 at the half, the Badgers responded with a huge second half coming from behind to beat the Oregon Ducks. Michael Bennett had 258 of his 290 rushing yards in the second half, while cornerback, Jamar Fletcher, had three interceptions and free safety, Jason Doering, had 18 tackles.

14. Nov. 23, 1974 • Wisconsin 49, Minnesota 14

Wisconsin running back Billy Marek notched his third-straight game with over 200 yards as he tallied 304 yards to go along with five touchdowns in the win. Cornerback Ken Simmons forced one fumble, recovered two and intercepted former Gopher quarterback and current coach of the Super Bowl Champion Indianapolis Colts, Tony Dungy.

13. Nov. 6, 1993 • Wisconsin 14, Ohio St. 14

One week after the tragic stampede of the student section at Camp Randall, the Badgers welcomed No. 3 Ohio State to Madison. The Buckeyes were undefeated on the season and had a 14-game regular season unbeaten streak dating back to the previous year. The Buckeyes blocked Rick Schnetzky’s game-winning field goal as time expired to end the game in a tie. The Badgers and Buckeyes went on to share the Big Ten title that season, and Wisconsin proceeded to beat UCLA in the Rose Bowl.

12. Nov. 19, 1966 • Wisconsin 7, Minnesota 6

Head coach Milt Bruhn won his final game as coach after resigning the Monday before. Bruhn ended his career with a 52-45-6 record including two Big Ten titles. The Badgers didn't win another game over their next 23 tries, spanning more than two seasons.

Wisconsin Radio Network

Last spring the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Learfield Sports agreed to a contract extension that grants Learfield Sports certain marketing and multi-media rights with Badger athletics for the next 12 years.

The previous contract was scheduled to run through June 30, 2009. The extension added 10 more years to the agreement.

Learfield Sports' Madison-based staff, which operates under the name Badger Sports Properties (BSP), will continue to manage the corporate sponsorship programs in support of UW Athletics and be responsible for the production and distribution of live radio broadcasts of Badgers sports, as well as coaches shows and more.

Under the terms of the contract extension, Learfield Sports will pay the UW Athletic Department a minimum of $75 million in guaranteed rights payments over the next 12 years.

Among other items included in the extension, Learfield Sports will continue to provide the Athletic Department with a comprehensive package of complimentary radio advertising inventory for use in promoting UW Athletics and will donate $25,000 each year of the contract to fully endow a scholarship in the UW-Madison School of Journalism and Mass Communication.

Learfield Sports has partnered with the University of Wisconsin since 1994, producing annually more than 100 radio broadcasts of Badger football, basketball and hockey games on a statewide network. In 2001, Learfield Sports acquired the multimedia rights creating marketing opportunities beyond radio to include television, venue signage, event impact, retail promotions, corporate hospitality, print and uwbadgers.com.

In addition to Wisconsin, Learfield Sports manages multimedia rights for more than 30 collegiate institutions and associations including other Big Ten Conference members Iowa, Indiana, Minnesota, Purdue and Penn State. The company also manages the marketing partnerships for the Black Coaches Association (BCA) and provides exclusive sports programming to more than 1,000 radio stations throughout the country. Additionally, Team Services, LLC, a Learfield Sports company, specializes in venue naming rights, marketing research and sales consultation.
