In Loving Memory of

Jennifer M. (Rosenberry) Jenkins

8/27/1980 - 11/29/2012

It doesn't seem possible that it's been 14 years since God called you home. They say time heals all, but the sadness is still there. You are missed and loved every day. We had to say goodbye after you were gone and hope that it was heard. We will love you always. Some day, we will be together again.

Love,
Mom, Dad,
and Will
