

In Loving Memory Of Our Wife,
Mother & Grandmother

Agnes M. Gray

Dec. 21, 1939 - March 17, 2012

During your time on earth, you definitely made the world a happier and better place. Your smile lit up a room and made everyone feel special and welcomed. You tried to be positive and always saw the good things in life. The best gift you shared were hugs that warmed the heart and were filled with unconditional love. These are missed the most! So on this date that God took you home, we thank him for allowing us to have you in our lives and we miss you every day!

*With all our love,
Walt, Diane, Janet, Joyce,
Amy and families*
