

A photograph of a single-story brick building with a flat roof. The name "STRICKLER'S" is mounted on the brick wall in large, white, three-dimensional letters. To the left is a glass-paned entrance with a small white awning. A concrete ramp with yellow metal railings leads to the entrance. In front of the building are several windows, some with red awnings, and a blue vending machine. A tall black light pole stands near the entrance. The sky is blue with some clouds, and trees are visible in the background.
