The Huntingdon County Fair Queen Program offers young women ages 16 to 20 the opportunity to serve as ambassadors for the Huntingdon County Fair while promoting agriculture and the fair's traditions. Through the program, participants develop leadership and communication skills, connect with their community and create lasting memories. Sunday, Aug. 9, the 2025-2026 Huntingdon County Fair Queen Gracie Rowe, will pass down her crown to one of the two contestants vying for the title of Huntingdon County Fair Queen.

Huntingdon County Fair Queen Gracie Rowe, center, will proudly pass down her crown at 5 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 9, to one of two outstanding contestants competing for the title of 2026-27 Huntingdon County Fair Queen, including, Madison Mowrer, left.

Trinity Hardy is the 18-year-old daughter of Eric and Samantha Hardy of Petersburg. She is a 2026 honors graduate of Juniata Valley High School where she was involved in multiple clubs and activities where she held multiples offices. This included but was not limited to FFA vice president, class of 2026 treasurer, track and field, student council treasurer, CHAMP captain, Speech League, SWPBIS vice president, journalism co-president, NHS treasurer, Varsity J vice president, choir and teacher aiding. This fall she plans to attend Juniata College to start her journey in obtaining her doctorate in mathematical education, to become a math professor. Outside of academics, she is also involved in the Huntingdon County Junior Fair Board, Huntingdon County Jr. Holstein Association, was named the Huntingdon County Alternate Fair Queen in 2025 and was the 2025-2026 Shaver's Creek Fire Queen. She is actively involved in the Huntingdon County Fair, where she exhibits market goats, dairy cattle, market lambs and rabbits, which is a first for her this year. She also enters multiple other exhibits, including cookies, hay flowers and crafts in the exhibit halls. In her free time, she enjoys reading, playing cards, pet sitting, baking and decorating cookies and babysitting her little sister. But her favorite thing to do is to raise and show her farm animals.

Madison Mowrer is the 19-year-old daughter of Nate and Erica Mowrer of Petersburg. She is currently pursuing a degree in animal science with a communications certificate at the Pennsylvania State University. A 2025 graduate of Juniata Valley High School, Madison was actively involved in FFA, student council, National Honor Society, School-Wide Positive Behavior, volleyball, track and field and served as a CHAMP captain. Madison served as the 2024-2025 Huntingdon County Dairy Princess and has enjoyed growing up on her family's eighth-generation dairy farm. She has been actively involved in the Junior Holstein Association for many years and recently completed her term on the National Junior Advisory Committee for Holstein Association USA. At Penn State, Madison is involved in the Dairy Science Club and the FFA Alumni and Supporters Chapter. During the school year, Madison works in the Penn State Dairy Nutrition Lab, assisting with research projects, sampling and trials. This summer, she is serving as the organic dairy intern with the Penn State Extension Dairy Team while continuing to raise and exhibit her 4-H projects at the local, state and national levels.

Each of these ladies have written an essay, "What my fair means to my community," created a farm safety board, will take part in an interview, be questioned on their fair knowledge, give a speech titled "Why you should come to my fair" and answer an on-stage impromptu question. If you are interested in watching the fair queen pageant this year, join us at the Midway Stage at 5 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 9. Best of luck to each of these wonderful contestants!
