Always open to you

The eyes of the Lord are on the righteous,
/ And His
ears are open to their cry.
Psalm 34:15
(NKJV)

Have you ever listened to the prayers of another and been surprised by how many little things they take to God? You may think to yourself, God has far too many bigger issues to contend with than to be saddled with all of life's little problems. You may think it is better to pray for bigger issues like the end of crime in your city or a cure for cancer. Praying for lesser things just doesn't seem right, does it? But it is. For God is open to all prayers, small and big, from those who believe in a caring heavenly Father. Whether we call for peace around the world or peace in our own backyards, God hears our cries. We can take anything to Him and He will listen. There is nothing that we cannot pray about and bring to God.
