Reason #1 to Preplan Your Funeral:

Make sure your last hurrah is everything you've always imagined.

Pre-planning your funeral allows you to record your exact wishes so your loved ones aren't left second guessing. This is your chance to let everyone know exactly what you want, from the size and type of service to the music and food. Whether you prefer burial or cremation, a traditional funeral or a celebration of life, an Elvis-themed reception or a backyard cookout—when you plan ahead, you get to call all the shots.
